REAVIS AND MAGUIRE ANNOUNCED TO SPEAK AT CONVOCATIONS

Both Congressman C. F. Reavis and former Congressman John A. Maguire of the First congressional district, which includes Lincoln, will address the University students before election day.

Congressman Reavis will speak at convocation October 24, it was announced yesterday. Mr. Maguire will come to the University one week later.
The former is the republican candidate, and the latter the democratic candidate for the office.

Arrangements have been made for a Shakespeare tercentenary program November 14, under the direction of Dr. Louise Pound. Short musical features will be given with all programs.

BIG ENROLLMENT EXPECTED BY THE SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE

A substantial increase in attendance at the school of agriculture which opens here October 11, is expected by Prof.
H. E. Bradford, principal of the school.
Advance correspondence is 25 per cent heavier than ever before, says Professor Bradford. And most of the correspondence this year indicates that a large number of questioners intend to come. The attendance last year, including the four-year course, winer course of six weeks, farm motors course of four weeks, buttermakers course of two weeks, and boys' and girls' short course of one week, was 769. Of this number, 466 were enrolled in the four-year course.

BORDER TROUBLES HURT REGIMENT

New Equipment for Cadets Delayed by Demand of Guardsmen on Mexican Frontier

The military department of the University of Nebraska is handicapped this year by the lack of new government uniforms. These were supposed to have been here by now, but owing to the Mexican situation they cannot be had until next July.

When the new law regulating university drill goes into effect, there will be more officers and equipment which is necessary to take care of the ever increasing freshman squads.

How the conditions are in other schools can be seen by the following paragraph taken from the "Army and Navy Journal" of September 23:

"How limited our military sources are is shown through the fact which must be a typical and not an isolated incident that there will be no military drill at the University of Oregon before the second semester of school and probably not until next year, according to an announcement made recently by President P. L. Campbell. Military instruction was authorized by the board of regents last spring, and the school made application for instructors and equipment under the new law. It is stated that an officer cannot be assigned owing to conditions on the Mexican border, and equipment cannot be supplied because of the demand by the national guard of the various states."

NEBRASKA BAND MUST GO TO OREGON—AND IT WILL

er before the thousands of coast people who are going to watch the great game—the Nebraska band will prove the better musical organization. It will not have as many men, as only forty musicians are to be taken on the trip, but the coach believes that the local organization can outplay the other just as he believes the varsity eleven can outplay the Oregon Aggie eleven.

The Omaha stock exchange yesterday sent down to Lincoln $150 in cold cash, reserving a block of tickets for the dance that will never be used, but anxious to demonstrate that the big city is behind the scheme to send the band west. A number of the fraternities have already bought up batches of tickets in lumps of twenty-five, anxious to join the band wagon and help boost the event.

Just why it is important that the University should send its band west has been expressed in the following ways by some of the men most intimately connected with the scheme:

What They Say

Dr. E. J. Stewart, football coach:
"The team is used to having the band play and be with it at all of its games.
The presence of the band at Oregon may mean the difference between defeat and victory! I want the band to go by all means."

Guy E. Reed, manager of athletics:
"The band is going, I have bought the tickets. It is now up to everybody to help raise the money. I think that the students should take 2,000 tickets for the benefit dance."

C. B. Cornell, director of the band:
"To take the band west will prove to be the greatest advertisement Nebraska and the University ever had. We should send it."

R. J. Saunders, captain of the band:
"The band wants to go to help win the Oregon game and show up the Oregon Agricultural band." Captain Parker, commandant of cadets, under whose direction is also the band: "I feel that the band ought to go. I will do all that I can to see that it gets there."

CAMPUS GROWS AS WATER RECEDES

University of Washington.—The rapid lowering of the waters of Lake Washington, due to the opening of the canal connecting it with Lake Union, has resulted in a considerable addition to the acreage of the university campus, as well as the creation of numerous islands in University bay.
Incidentally the varsity canoe house was left high and dry. It is to be floated through the canal and located on the shores of Lake Union.—Exchange.
