SPIRITED SCRIMMAGE, SCUBS vs. VARSITY

BOTH TEAMS PLAYED AS IF IT WAS A MATCH GAME

Varsity Line Impregnable, But Scrubs Were Able to Advance By Air Route

"Hold 'em line. Get in 'ere boys. Now what ya gonna do?" It was Moser talking and the occasion was last evening's practice on Nebraska field. The scrubs were lined up against the varsity in one of the most spirited and best played scrimmages of the year. Both teams played excellent ball some of the time, and some of each team played good ball all the time.

The practice began, as usual, with punting practice, with the quarterbacks doing the receiving, which was the really hard job because of the high wind. After a short while at this work and a whirl at signal practice, the real work began.

Whether it was because of the rather cool wind or for some other unseen reason, both teams played as if it was a match game.

Scrimmage Started

The scrimmage started with the scrubs on their own 40-yard mark and the ball in their possession. Then started a series of line plunges which were in no wise successful, for Rhoades, Moser, Corey, Wilder, Dale and Kositzky proved to be a regular stonewall and one that was absolutely impenetrable. But the scrubs were not to be stopped so easily. They soon opened up and started to advancing by the air route. The passes were to either end or halfback or tackle, but, whoever they were to, they were successful.

Forward Passing

Only once in the march down the field was one of them fumbled and that was a poor pass. But considering that there were ten or a dozen successful ones, that is a very fine percentage. But the passing game was the only one the scrubs could work successfully until they got to the varsity's goal line. Then in one last desperate attempt they adopted Notre Dame's old crossback and scored.

The scrubs were then given the ball on the varsity's 10-yard line and told to put it over, at which they failed miserably, for the varsity line broke through repeatedly and threw them for losses of from five to ten yards.

Much interest has been awakened the last two nights in the appearance of Riddell and Otupallik. Their addition to the backfield means two complete sets of phenomenal backfield men. It is probable that the coach will use them as backfield men offensively and as ends on the defense.

LAST CHANCE FOR CANDIDATES TO FILE FOR PRESIDENCIES

Candidates for presidency of the various University classes have until this evening at 5 o'clock to get under the wire with their filings in the office of Registrar Greer, Administration building.

The candidates must file in order to get their names on the ballots that will be used at the election next Tuesday. According to the University rules, no one who has not formally filed can be a candidate, and a man whose name is written on the ballot cannot be elected president.

So far the candidates who have been at work, and who have organizations boosting for them are Harold Neff of the seniors, Lloyd Tully and Ralph Sturm of the Juniors, Carl Harnsberger of the sophomores, and C. F. Rundquist of the freshmen.

CARL HARNBERGER HURT IN FALL

Sophomore Presidential Candidate Injured Yesterday Afternoon

Carl W. Harnsberger, '16, of Ashland, suffered a severe shock and possible internal injuries by falling from the porch at the south entrance of University hall to the ground below, yesterday afternoon at 5:30 p. m.

He was rushed to the Lincoln sanitarium in the police ambulance, and attended by Dr. Thompson. On superficial examination the doctor said that there were apparently no bones broken, but that Harnsberger had sustained a severe shock to his entire system. There was a hint of spinal concussion, but this could not be definitely determined until the patient was more quiet and a more detailed examination could be made.

Harnsberger had met Ernest Graves, '13, at the entrance of University hall. The two exchanged greetings, and then engaged in a friendly scuffle which resulted in both going over the iron railing to the ground below. Graves was severely shaken, but was able to get up at once and assist in getting Harnsberger to the hospital.

500 MEMBERS FOR UNI GIRLS' CLUB

LARGEST MEMBERSHIP IN HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION

"Red" Side, Led by Bertha Driftmeier, Victorious in Membership Campaign Contest

Five hundred university girls are now members of the girls' club, four hundred and three joining during the campaign of the last three days and ninety-seven joining during registration week. This is the largest enrollment in the history of the organization.

The "reds," with Bertha Driftmeier, '17, as leader, won in the contest, winning 243 members against the 160 won by the "whites," headed by Kate Helzer. The reports of the various workers were turned in at Dean Mary Graham's office every half day and are as follows:

	Reds	Whites
Tuesday afternoon	74	27
Wednesday morning	34	40
Wednesday afternoon	65	21
Thursday morning	55	46
Thursday afternoon	15	26
Totals	243	160

By virtue of their victory, the workers on the "red" side will be entertained by the members of the "white" team. A personal campaign of all girls who are not members of the club will be made next week.

MILBY DESCRIBES CAMP LIFE AT LLANO GRANDE

A letter telling of camp life on the border was recently received by Professor Caldwell of the history department, from George Milby, '19, who is with the Nebraska field hospital corps at Camp Llano Grande, Tex.

Milby has been in the south for two months and enjoys camp life now, but says at first everyone was disgusted. They sleep out of doors and get up and go to bed according to bugle calls. There are nearly one hundred students there and they are all anxious to get back to school, but he does not expect to be home for about four weeks.

The Nebraska student writes for a few books in American history V so that he can keep in touch with his school work, thus enabling him to continue with his course when he is released from soldier life.

DORIS WEAVER, NEW BLACK MASQUE

ELECTION OF SIOUX CITY, IA., GIRL TO HONORARY SOCIETY

Vice-President of Y. W. C. A. and Prominent in Other Varsity Activities—Succeeds Dorothy Ellsworth

The election of the thirteenth member of Black Masques, the senior girls' society, was decided by the active chapter of the society yesterday, when Doris Weaver, '17, of Sioux City, Ia., was unanimously chosen to complete the number.

Miss Weaver has taken a very active part in school affairs during her entire college course, and is thoroughly acquainted with campus activities. She was a member of Silver Serpents last year and is at present vice-president of the Y. W. C. A. and chairman of the coming membership campaign.

Mask New Member

The Black Masques met at 6:30 and, going together to the Gamma Phi Beta house, called Miss Weaver to the door, where she was masked and taken to the rooms of one of the members. A short informal session followed and a hearty welcome was extended to her.

Miss Weaver takes the place made vacant by the death of Dorothy Ellsworth last summer.

PRESIDENT WILL NOT VISIT NEBRASKA UNI

HIS SECRETARY SENDS REGRETS TO WOODROW WILSON CLUB

Program at Omaha Too Full to Permit a Trip to Lincoln, Say Tumulty and McCormick

President Wilson will be unable to address the Nebraska University students when he comes to the state next week, according to telegrams sent to Ted Metcalfe, who was instructed by the newly organized Woodrow Wilson club Wednesday night to wire the president the invitation on behalf of the club to come to the University.

Metcalfe telegraphed both the president, and Vance McCormick, chairman of the democratic committee, the invitation of the club.

From the president's secretary, J. P. Tumulty, Metcalfe received this reply last night:

From Tumulty

"Many thanks for telegram. The president greatly regrets his inability to accept your cordial invitation. His program for Omaha is already so full that he is afraid he cannot carry it out."

From Vance McCormick, the chairman of the democratic national committee, this telegram came:

"I regret exceedingly that the president's plans will not permit his acceptance of your very kind invitation to speak before the Woodrow Wilson club of the University of Nebraska. His itinerary and plans are already

FINAL PLANS MADE FOR FIRST ALL-UNI MIXER

CANDIDATES WILL BE ON HAND TO GREET CONSTITUENTS

Band Will Play—Stunt Program a Big Feature—Reception Committee Named

Final plans for the first 1916-17 mixer were made at a meeting of the committee yesterday noon. While the members of the committee have modestly refrained from actually saying so, they have let it be bruited about that the all-University party is going to start the year right—so right that future mixers will have to hump to equal this coming one of Saturday night.

One feature that will doubtless prove most interesting to all of the students is the fact that the candidates for class presidency will be at the mixer, getting around among their constituents, and building their political fences.

Opportune for Candidates

The party comes at a most opportune time for the aspirants to class preference. Election day is but three days after the mixer, and the keen political bosses realize that a man who can prove to be a god man where all of the students are gathered together, is apt to be the man who will get the votes at the polls Tuesday.

The mixer committee will give the candidates some opportunity to compete with each other—to see how well they can blow, or some similar stunt.

People will begin to get to the party at 8 o'clock. The University band will start things off, and there will be a short stunt program. Then will come the dancing, interspersed with other short and exceedingly spirited stunts. The refreshments, and then maybe, those girls who have refused to make dates to come to the mixer may be prevailed upon, if the men prove not of faint heart, to be accompanied, or "seen" home.

Reception Committee

The reception committee for the mixer, that will greet the students, especially the freshmen, and extend the right hand of fellowship, at the same time introducing folks around when introductions are necessary, will be composed of the following people:

CHANCELLOR INVITES CANDIDATES TO SPEAK

FOUR PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEES URGED TO ADDRESS STUDENTS

Invitations Sent on Request of Mass Meeting of Students—Planned by Howard's Class

Four presidential candidates, Woodrow Wilson of the democratic party, Charles E. Hughes of the republican party, Governor Hanley of the prohibition party, and Allan L. Benson of the socialist party, have been invited to speak to Nebraska University students.

Chancellor Avery yesterday sent a day letter to the national committee of each of the four parties, extending the invitation, at the request of the mass meeting of students held at the temple theater Wednesday night. The mass meeting was called by Prof. George Howard's class in present political questions.

To each invitation the chancellor added his personal invitation to speak.

The Invitations

The four invitations, much alike, are quoted below.

"National Democratic Central Committee, Chicago, Ill.: The students of the University in mass meeting assembled, have requested me to extend to President Wilson an invitation to address them in connection with his prospective visit to Omaha on October

5. I am pleased to comply with this request and to add to it my personal invitation. S. Avery, chancellor."

"Republican National Headquarters, Conway Building, Chicago, Ill.: The students of the University in mass meeting assembled, have requested me to extend to Mr. Hughes an invitation to address them in connection with his prospective visit to Lincoln on or soon after October 16. I am pleased to comply with this request and to add to it my personal invitation. S. Avery, chancellor."

"Prohibition National Committee, 106 North La Salle street, Chicago, Ill.: The students of the University, in mass meeting assembled have requested me to extend to Governor Hanley an invitation to address them in connection with his proposed visit to Lincoln early next month. I am pleased to comply with this request and to add to it my personal invitation. S. Avery, chancellor."

"Socialist National Headquarters, 703 West Madison street, Chicago, Ill.: The students of the University, in mass meeting assembled have requested me to extend to Allan L. Benson an invitation to address them in connection with any visit that he may make west during the coming campaign. I am pleased to comply with this request and to add to it my personal invitation. ALL ASSOCIATION GIRLS TO HAVE PART IN ITS MANAGEMENT

Y. W. C. A. girls are henceforth to have a more active part in the management of their association, it was decided at the last cabinet meeting. Hereafter a general meeting for all Y. W. C. A. girls will be held once every month.

These meetings will be social and business meetings combined with a purpose to bring the girls into closer touch with the business affairs, which have up to this time, been attended to by the cabinet alone. The first meeting will be held Wednesday evening, October 11.

Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN FOR NEW MEMBERS BEGINS

BOTH CITY AND UNIVERSITY ASSOCIATIONS CO-OPERATE

All Subscriptions Above $5 Will Give Full Membership in the City Association

The membership campaign of the University and city Y. M. C. A., offering the best inducement to University students to join that has ever been presented in Lincoln, commences this morning, to continue through today and tomorrow.

Any amount that the student will contribute, up to $5, will give him the membership in the University Y. M. C. A. Five dollars and more will mean in addition a nine months' membership in the city Y. M. C. A., with full membership privileges.

Service Basis

The membership campaign is being made on a straight, clean-cut basis of service rendered for the city, the state, and the University by the association. Prospective members will have lined up before them the achievements of the University association in the way of social service, not only among the University students, but among the boys of Lincoln and the laboring classes of the city.

The solicitors will point out the accomplishments of the association in spreading the gospel of democracy as well as that of Christianity among the students. They will be reminded of the "N" book, and the University directory, which are published by the Y. M. C. A. They will have brought to their minds the University Ak-Sar-Ben and Christmas parties, the open house to students, the employment bureau, the room service—all of those things by means of which the Y. M. C. A. has added, and will continue to add, immeasurably to the college.

FINE ARTS STUDENTS ARE REQUIRED TO DO SKETCH WORK

Students who are planning to take the degree of fine arts are now required to do sketch work. Each student must have a sketch book and hand in a sketch each week in addition to the work required in the department.

A very interesting innovation has been the use of the moving model. Instead of having the model in the one pose—two or three poses are taken and the student is given a chance to select one of these.

Eight states, including Alaska, vote on prohibition as a state measure November 7; they are South Dakota, California, Nebraska, Montana, Michigan, Missouri, Idaho, and Alaska. All are now wet except Idaho, which now proposes to place the existing legislative prohibition into the constitution.—Exchange.

AG. STUDENTS GIVE SMOKER TONIGHT

Agricultural college students—the men—will be entertained at a smoker this evening at the home of the farm house fraternity, 307 North Twenty-fourth street.

An evening full of good times, with the special object of getting the freshman ag students acquainted with the older men, is promised. The officers of the agricultural club, together with the members of the farm house, have planned the entertainment.

There will be a number of short talks during the evening, on subjects that will interest the ag students. The principal object of the smoker, however, is to give the men a good time, get them acquainted, and introduce the freshmen to the University and the agricultural college spirit.
