GHOST OF DRAKE DRIVES VARSITY IN SCRIMMAGE

COACH GIVES MEN STRONG TALK STRAIGHT FROM SHOULDER

Kansas Aggies Loom Up As a Team That Must Be Defeated Without Fail

With the ghost of Drake driving them from behind and the fear of the Kansas Aggies ever present, the varsity buckled down to real work last evening.

A spirit of earnestness and genuine sincerity prevailed following the coach's opening address. He said in part: "Even if we manage to defeat Drake by one or two touchdowns, it means a development of over one thousand percent before we can hope to do anything with the Aggies. But at present we will dismiss them from our minds and go after Drake," and with that a strenuous signal practice was inaugurated for the varsity.

Several new open formations were tried out while the well known ones were worked over again. It could be plainly seen that the coach is beginning to tighten up on his demands of the quality of the work shown by the men. The commands were sharper, the signals were snappier and the reprimands more frequent than they have been any night so far.

Open Tackling

The signal practice was followed by open tackling, a very much needed practice according to the coach, who said, "The Aggies have a man down there that some of you fellows won't be able to lay a hand on, let alone grab a shoestring, the way you are tackling now." So it was a thud and a bump, a side step here and a stiff arm there until the sun had sunk to the horizon.

The cripples will be spared as much as possible this week until they can get in and go at top speed with the rest of the team. Meanwhile as much speed will be gotten into the mixed lineup as possible.

Lots of Bear Dope

The coaches came back with all sorts of "bear" dope on the Drake and Kansas Aggies teams. Rutherford says that Drake has a fine team. They have Sprong at center, all-Missouri valley guard last year, and in addition they have two tried and proved veterans in Warnock and Captain Smith. They have a strong line and fast backfield with a nice assortment of plays.

Captain Tim and Coach Stewart came back from Manhattan quaking with fear. They are haunted by the spectre of the first defeat the Aggies have ever inflicted on Nebraska. The Aggies have a team that is practically ideal. The backfield is excellent and the center of the line is as impregnable as a stone wall.

But it is on the ends that they have the stars. Those who saw the K. A. C. game last year will remember the class displayed by the Aggie ends, but they are not to be compared with this year's wing men, according to Coray. From their reports it is very evident that a real battle will take place when the boys from Manhattan visit Nebraska field one week from Saturday.

STUDENTS FORM HUGHES CLUB

200 ATTEND FIRST MEETING OF ORGANIZATION IN TEMPLE

Carl Ganz Elected President—Charles E. Matson Assails Democratic Record

A Hughes and Fairbanks club of University students who favor the election of the republican national ticket was organized at the Temple theater last night, about 200 attending the organization meeting. A great deal of enthusiasm for the G. O. P. was manifested during the evening, and the address of Charles E. Matson, president of the Nebraska Alliance of the National Republican League was well received.

Mr. Matson talked for about forty-five minutes, directing his verbal broadsides against both the domestic and foreign policies of the democrats and President Wilson. He assailed the Mexican policy as weak and vacillating, the record of the democratic party on preparedness as bad, and its policy in regard to appointments and appropriations as a violation of party pledges.

Officers Elected

Officers for the club were elected, Carl Ganz being named president. Eva Miller was elected vice-president of the club, John Riddell secretary, and Fred Wells treasurer.

The following committees were appointed:

Resolutions—W. B. Jeffrey, chairman; Roy J. Harney, Spray L. Gardner, J. L. Caley.

Executive—John Riddell, chairman; Marion Shaw, Prof. C. B. Cornell, Carl Ganz, M. L. Poteet.

Publicity—Fred Wells, Eva Miller, Virgil Haggart.

A reception committee to receive Charles E. Hughes when he came to Lincoln this month, and a Hughes marching club will be formed later.

MRS. T. F. A. WILLIAMS TO TALK AT VESPERS AT Y. W. C. A. TONIGHT

Mrs. T. F. A. Williams will talk at vespers at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. rooms on "Social Service Opportunities for College Women." She will not speak so much about social service in general as upon specific places where university girls can do a definite good.

The social service committee is very anxious to have girls offer their services. There is much to do and everybody can help.

ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT ISSUES DIRECTORY OF 800 GRADUATES

The engineering department has issued The Nebraska Blue Print directory, containing the names of over 800 graduates and those who have gone into engineering lines.

The book is an effort to keep the graduates in closer touch with each other, as well as with the University, and to sustain interest in the broader lines of engineering.

An interesting article written by an engineer of Chicago on "The Lighting of a Public School Building," takes Lincoln high school as an example and minutely describes the system used there. This and several other subjects are discussed in the first Blue Print Directory.

ALLAN L. BENSON IS NOT COMING

SOCIALIST CANDIDATE WILL NOT ADDRESS STUDENTS

Chairman of Party Speakers Bureau Indicates Plans Already Made Can't Be Changed

Allen L. Benson, socialist candidate for president, will probably not be able to address the students of the state University, according to a letter received by Chancellor Avery yesterday from Max Sherover, manager of the socialist party speakers' bureau. Mr.

ENGLISH LITERATURE DEPARTMENT ISSUES BOOKLET ON SILAS MARNER

The department of English literature in the Teachers' college, under the direction of Prof. Frederick A. Stuff and Instructor Letta Clark, has issued detailed directions for teachers in the presentation of Silas Marner. These outlines offer a scientific framework for each lesson after the general plan in vogue in the Teachers' college training school.

The plan embodies the most recent views on supervised study and the unique idea of socialization of the rather general use in the English classes over the state, and will undoubtedly revolutionize much of the work in the teaching of English in our high schools.

FRATERNITY MEN CANNOT TAKE CO-EDS TO GAMES

Lawrence, Kas.—In an attempt to create a new football spirit at the University of Kansas, the Sigma Chi fraternity paved the way for a new movement that has proved a success at other schools, when it announced this morning that none of its members would be allowed to escort women to the football games this season.—Exchange.

POTEET RESIGNS AS BUSINESS MGR.

Daily Nebraskan Staff Loses Head of Important Department

Marcus L. Poteet, business manager of The Daily Nebraskan last semester, and part of this, has resigned. An opportunity to do other work while attending the University, that would give much more return for the time invested, was the cause of Poteet's resignation, which will take effect as soon as a successor is appointed by the publication board.

Poteet is one of the ablest advertising men in the University, and his resignation is a serious loss to The Nebraskan, which is supported, as any newspaper, by the advertising. The enlargements and improvements in The Nebraskan during the past and present semester have been due in very large part to his ability and his co-operation with the editorial staff.

Sherover's letter was a reply to the invitation sent to the socialist candidate by the University students, and forwarded by Chancellor Avery.

Routing arrangements for Mr. Benson's speeches, already made, will prevent the candidate from speaking, according to the letter. He candidate does not now intend to include Lincoln in his itinerary.

The Letter

The letter follows: Chicago, Sept. 29, 1916—S. Avery, chancellor, Lincoln, Neb.: Dear Sir: Your kind invitation extended to Mr. Benson in behalf of yourself and the students of your university, has been received. This department is in charge of Mr. Benson's route and

BEETHOVEN'S FIRST SYMPHONY AT CONVOCATION THURSDAY

Beethoven's First Symphony will be given at convocation Thursday morning under the direction of Mrs. Carrie B. Raymond, with the University string quartet. Works of the first order have been presented at convocations for several years, and have been very well attended.

The First Symphony is particularly attractive as showing what the great composer could do in his earlier years. The discriminating listener can readily detect Mozartian influence, and in addition some hint of the independent and original Beethoven developed in later years. It is interesting to note in this connection that, despite the aggressive character of modern music, there appears to be a reawakened interest in musical centers in the music of composers who a few years ago were thought destined for the discard.

IVAN BEEDE NOW ASSOCIATE EDITOR

Editorial Staff Completed by Election Monday Noon

Ivan G. Beede, '18, of David City, was elected associate editor of The Daily Nebraskan yesterday noon, filling the place left vacant when the board elected the other members of the present staff, last June.

Beede was a member of the reporter staff of The Nebraskan during his freshman and part of his sophomore years. During the past summer he added to his newspaper experience by doing work for The Lincoln Star. He has also taken work in the journalistic courses under Prof. M. M. Fogg. He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, the journalistic fraternity.

CONVOCATION

President N. O. Allan of Doane college, will speak today at convocation, Memorial hall, 11 a. m.

THREE TEACHERS' COURSES

Three courses, especially arranged for teachers in the public schools at times convenient to them, are being offered this year.—Exchange.

as far as we can see, at present, it will hardly be possible for Mr. Benson to come to Lincoln.

Had your invitation come a few weeks earlier, before his route was completed, I should gladly have taken him within a reasonable distance out of his way, in order to bring him before your student body. However, I shall not take it upon myself to decline this invitation, but am writing this letter to merely inform you of the situation.

I shall forward your telegram to Comrade Benson and possibly he will send a message to the students. Sincerely yours, Max Sherover, manager Speakers' Bureau.

Ellsworth Moser, Center

huskers, who will start the game against Drake next Saturday.

ANNUAL FALL ELECTIONS; VOTE IN ARMORY TODAY

NO FIGHT IN SOPHOMORE AND SENIOR CLASSES

Bitter Race for Juniors Between Tully and Sturm—Four Freshmen Out for Office

The annual fall elections are being held at the University today, the polls in Memorial hall being open from 9 to 12 in the morning, and from 1 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Votes cast by sophomores and seniors will be a mere formality, as Carl Harnsberger in the former, and Harold Neff in the latter class were the only ones to file for the presidencies. The juniors and freshmen are engaged in interesting races, however, Lloyd Tully and Ralph Sturm fighting for the honor among the third year students, and a mixed field of Donald Gallagher, Joseph B. Riley, Clarence V. Rundquist and Farley Young are entered for the freshman prize.

Australian Ballot

The Australian ballot system, adopted by the board of regents in 1912, will be used. Students will go to the polls and give their names to the election clerks, receiving from them the ballot of whatever class in which they are entitled to vote.

WINS LINCOLN A. C. A. SCHOLARSHIP

Ruth Shively, '18, received the Collegiate Alumnae scholarship of one hundred dollars. The scholarship was won from nine competitors on merit of high scholastic standing, her average grade being 90. Applications for the scholarship, which is to be given each year, must be made by sophomore or junior girls who are wholly or partially self-supporting.

Miss Shively is majoring in physical education in the University. She played on the Lincoln high basketball team of '13 and '14 and was captain of the '14 team.

GOVERNOR HANLY AT MEMORIAL HALL

Prohibition Party Candidate Speaks This Afternoon at 4:30

J. Frank Hanly, Indiana governor, will speak to the University students this afternoon at 4:30, in Memorial hall. Governor Hanly comes in response to the invitation of the student body, extended through Chancellor Avery. He has played a prominent part in national republican party politics, and his address will be worth listening to, regardless of the politics of his hearers.

A faculty committee will count the votes, and the results should be known to the candidates and their partisans by 5:30 this afternoon.

The newly elected class presidents will probably call meetings within the next two weeks for the election of the minor officers. Committee appointments should be out within two weeks. Hop committees for all classes, prom committees for the junior and senior classes, Olympics committees for the freshman and sophomore classes are among the most important to be named.

Promised Offices?

One of the candidates for the junior presidency is said to have been liberal with promises of committee appointments in return for votes. The other is said to have been wary of this, and to be keeping mum as to the positions to be handed out. The junior race has presented a few queer alignments. Supporters of each of the candidates professed confidence in the outcome, yesterday.

Class lists of the juniors were secured yesterday, and there was a deal of telephoning going on last night in a final effort to line up the vote on one side or the other. Activity in the freshman class seemed at a low ebb, and the result of the election there is very much up in the air.

Katherine Kiefer, '17, left last week for St. Louis, where she will spend the winter studying music.

SECOND MEETING OF "DRY" WORKERS

PROHIBITION IN NEBRASKA TO BE BOOSTED THURSDAY

E. Everett Baker Will Be the Principal Speaker—Organization to Help Dry Federation

A meeting of the Intercollegiate Prohibition association will be held Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Music hall of the Temple. Everyone is urged to come whether a member or not.

The state Dry federation and the Lancaster county organization are both asking for speakers and workers during the campaign. Branch organizations of the I. P. A. have been organized by Mr. Baker, the traveling secretary, at Union, Cotner and Wesleyan. At Wesleyan meetings are held every evening of the week and are well attended by a large group of students preparing themselves for active service in the campaign, and already several of their workers have been scheduled for speaking dates and deputations work in surrounding towns.

Prominent Speakers

Prominent speakers and workers will be scheduled for these meetings from time to time, and University students interested in the work will give from three to five minute talks. The committee plans to have these meetings no more than an hour in length.

For Thursday night the principal speaker will be E. Everett Baker, the traveling secretary for the association. Mr. Baker has been engaged in this work for a number of years in various parts of the country and gives a very interesting account of the fight for prohibition in these places. He was also actively engaged in the recent campaign in which Duluth, Mich., voted dry and thoroughly understands the various phases of the subject.

This meeting is not for the men of the University alone, but for everyone who is interested in the movement, man and woman, faculty and students, included. This meeting will be entirely non-partisan and the organization itself is connected with no political party whatever.
