Entered at the postoffice at Lincoln, Nebraska, as second class mail matter under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

The hieroglyphics on the furniture and walls of the class rooms in some of the buildings resemble a first grader's writing tablet. When we were in high school the finest thing on earth was to cut our initials on our desks, or print our name on the landing in the east hall, but now we are out of high school and it would seem fitting to leave our high school tricks behind us. Hand carving on the arm of a chair isn't pretty, and it will never be used as a relic.

The Hughes-Wilson debate, at the Temple theater this evening, will be well attended by the men, but the women will probably feel that they should not go. This is an error. Women in Nebraska should take every advantage to educate themselves in politics, so that when they have the right to take part in the running of the country, they will know something about it.

Women should know all there is to know about the political questions of the day, and though the debate may not convince them, it will at least be food for thought.

One editor says that the rah-rah days are over for the college man—students are becoming more dignified, and he commends the fact, which is proper.

But regardless of the apparent foolishness of a demonstration, nevertheless it was spontaneous and enthusiastic. The university student of today has effected a blase manner, denoting superiority perhaps, which is superficial and tiresome. There is a lack of enthusiasm and pep which is discouraging. People accept things as a matter of course when, nine times out of ten, they are nothing short of miracles.

Someone has suggested that a fitting tombstone, for a newspaper man, would be a granite typewriter. It would.

last yesterday, so he was not ready to give out his name.

One request has been made of all of the students who go to the rally. That is, that they show the exuberance of their spirits by being University students, and not yield to the partisan influences of their particular school or college. Let the yelling be for Nebraska, and not for the students in torts or some other bunch, is the earnest request of those in charge.

The band will play. What more can be said?

THE DAYS GONE BY

Five Years Ago Today

John L. Cutright was elected president of the sophomore class. The class election took place in a class meeting at which 250 of the class were present.

Rain interfered with the playing off of the tennis matches. Among those who took part in the tournament were Arthur Hiltner, '13, Samuel Waugh and Frederick C. McConnell, '13.

Three Years Ago Today

From Daily Nebraskan, October 12, 1914: "Miss Dorothy Keens, a sophomore in the University, has been quarantined for smallpox. The disease broke out in the school where Miss Keens is cadeting in kindergarten."

The wedding of Miss Keens to Herbert W. Lelsel, which took place April 13, 1914, was recently announced. Evidently the lady in question was Mrs. Weisel at the time she was quarantined.

Two Years Ago Today

The athletic board of the University offered a prize of $5 cash for the best Nebraska University yell.

Black Masques announced the election of Lella McNeerney and Norma Kidd to take the places of Helen Thomas and Ethel Hills, who did not return to college.

One Year Ago Today

Word of the death of Ralph Northrup was received in Lincoln.

Coach Stiehm was lining up his huskies in preparation for Washburn.

Sixty girls had registered for swimming at the Y. M. C. A. pool.

VENISON DINNER FOR CORNHUSKERS

J. C. KETRIDGE, '09, WILL FEED TEAM AT LIBBY, MONT.

Alumnus Promises Feast on Return Trip—Old Grads to Portland for the Game

A venison dinner for the football team is promised by J. C. Ketrledge, forestry, '09, when they stop over at Libby, Mont., on their return trip. Mr. Ketrledge is with the forest service at Libby, and proposes to accompany the team to Oregon, joining them at either Sand Point, Ida., or Spokane, Wash. He mentions a list of Nebraska men who will probably board the train at Missoula: Bodley, Fullaway, Bennett and Phillips; and Coons, Grain and Westgate at Spokane.

In his letter to Dr. Condra, Mr. Ketrledge states that he saw in the Spokane Review that "Nebraska is sending a Cornhusker special train with the team to Portland." Great interest is being shown by the Nebraska men in that country and they are all working to make the trip a success.

The papers of Cheyenne and Denver, says Dr. Condra, who just returned from these places, devoted more space to Nebraska's victory over Drake than to any other games except those of local interest.

GEESEN WINS HIS FIRST MATCH

Uni Tennis Champion Started on Road to Another Victory

Edward Geeson, '18, University tennis champion last year, made a good beginning toward another championship by eliminating Bollbaugh in the first round yesterday, 7-5, 6-2. Although the match was won in straight sets, it was fast and hard fought throughout.

Two other matches were played yesterday, leaving a dozen to be disposed of by Saturday. H. Line eliminated D. B. Dow, 6-1, 6-3, and M. H. Powers won straight sets from H. Rubbel, 6-6, 6-3.

Thursday will see the elimination of some good men, and several fast matches are promised for the closing days of the first round. Weaver and Saunders, and Anthes and Withey are scheduled for today, and there are several more which will probably be played.

When you buy a shoe you have it fitted and you take it because it looks well and feels comfortable.

But a careful selection of your corset is much more important.

You must feel comfortable—and your corset must form a fashionable smooth base for your gown.

Redfern Corsets

Back Lace Front Lace are designed with infinite care for every type of figure, and naturally the best of fabrics, boning and other materials is used in their design, for they are high class corsets.

ALUMNI NEWS

Chris. Nelson, '16, leaves Monday for the Thomas county high school, where he will teach German and Latin this year.

Clayton S. Radcliffe, LL. B., '13, county attorney at Sidney, visited friends on the campus yesterday. Mr. Radcliffe is a candidate for re-election. His opponent is Joseph M. Swenson, '08, who ran for the office and was defeated two years ago.

Mr. Radcliffe, who is in partnership with James L. Tewell, '13, came to Lincoln with the sheriff of the county to bring two men whom he convicted for murder, to the penitentiary.

C. L. Rein, law, '15, formerly secretary to the chancellor and a well known University debator and George R. Mann, '15, Ivy Day orator, '15, are now practicing law in Lincoln under the firm name of Mann & Rein. The firm is becoming well known as the attorneys for the Municipal Ordinance Revision commission. Mr. Rein was at one time editor-in-chief of The Nebraskan.

A novel dance at Grinnell has been planned, at which the women will invite men to be their guests. With the old system some of the co-eds did not get dates to the dances; now all are able to attend.—Exchange.
