FRESHMEN VICTORS IN OLYMPICS CLASH

The freshmen showed surprising strength in the boxing and wrestling events. All but two of these—middle-weight wrestling and heavyweight boxing, went to them. The boxing matches, limited to three rounds of two minutes each, proved to be the really blood-thirsty part of the program. Heasty, freshman, drew blood on Bennett in the lightweight event, and Andrews, freshman, knocked out Gumere in the middle of the second round of the middleweight fight. Kositzky, sophomore, was awarded the heavyweight match after Munn pursued a temporary advantage with too much gusto. During a fusillade of interchanged blows, Kositzky fell to his knees. Munn disregarded the position of his opponent and continued raining blows on the man on the mat.

Kindig, sophomore, put Hinds, freshman, to the mat in a swift bout in the middleweight wrestling. The freshman showed an abundance of strength and aggressiveness, but was forced to yield to the superior science of his opponent.

Summing of Events

Following is a list of the events, with scores:
Lightweight boxing—Heasty, freshman won from Bennett by decision; 5 points.

Lightweight wrestling—Campbell, freshman, won from Bryan, in six minutes; 5 points.

Middleweight wrestling—Kindig, sophomore, threw Hinds, in eight minutes; 5 points.

Middleweight boxing—Andrews, freshman, knocked out Gumere, in second round; 5 points.

Heavyweight wrestling—Munn, freshman, threw Shirey, in one and a half minutes; 5 points.

Heavyweight Boxing—Kositzky, sophomore, given match on foul by Munn; 5 points.

Score: Freshmen 20, sophomores 10.

Tug-of-war—Freshmen won, 17 points.

Pushball—Sophomores won, four and a half minutes; 25 points.

Pole fight—Freshmen won, five minutes; 33 points.

Total score: Freshmen 70, sophomores 35.

kicked a beautiful field goal from the 42 yard line after Kyle had made a fair catch. The big boy did most of the gaining for his team, repeatedly taking the ball for from ten to fifteen yards.

Lincoln was badly outplayed during the first half, the score at the end of the second period being 3 to 0 in favor of Beatrice.

Herb Reese's boys got to going in the second half, however, and after receiving the kickoff scored a touchdown without losing possession of the ball.

The stellar performers for Lincoln were Webb and Brian, both of whom made repeated gains on end runs or returned punts.

Lincoln's second touchdown was made by Webb who returned a punt from Beatrice's 40-yard line across the goal. The third and last was made on a line buck by Cypranson after Webb had returned a punt from the middle of the field to Beatrice's 2-yard line.
