Entered at the postoffice at Lincoln, Nebraska, as second class mail matter under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Senior girls have donned their "mortar-boards." There are few traditions connected with the school, but the wearing of senior hats is one of the time-honored customs that nearly everyone adheres to. It is about the last chance the women have to show their loyalty to the University while they are undergraduates.

The Prison Relief Fund has nearly reached the thousand dollar mark. Ten thousand dollars was pledged originally. This would make an approximate average of four and one-half dollars for every man and woman on the campus.

Four dollars a half from every one on the campus would be an utter impossibility. But every single person connected with the University ought to give something toward the fund.

There have been rumors of the possibility of a Student Union at Nebraska—the rumor has so materialized that a committee was appointed some time ago to formulate plans for the actual establishment of a Union, but so far there has been no report of definite action.

When such a thing as a Student Union is needed as vitally as it is at Nebraska there should be no hesitancy or delay on the part of anyone to help in the material realization of the plan.

Aspiring journalists were given another opportunity to learn the tricks of the trade, when Edgar Howard, editor of the Columbus Telegram and lieutenant-governor-elect spoke to the news-writing class last evening. The "Editor and his Service to the People" was the subject of Mr. Howard's address, and the hundred or more journalism students were ambitiously inspired by the possibilities open to the man or woman who enters journalism as a profession.

The facilities for teaching journalism at Nebraska are very inadequate, but the ever-increasing demand for instruction in the subject has resulted in the schedule of addresses, to the students, by more than a dozen of the best known newspaper men from over the state.

It is plainly evident that the establishment of a School of Journalism is an absolute necessity if Nebraska University will maintain its reputation as one of the foremost and progressive Universities in the country.

TURN YOUR SHIRTTAILS INTO DRAWERS

What good is a Shirt-tail anyway?

IN OLUŠ the outside shirt and underdrawers are one garment. This means that the shirt can't work out of the trousers, that there are no shirt tails to bunch in seat, that the drawers "stay put," to say nothing of the comfort and economy of saving a garment. OLUŠ is coat cut—opens all the way down—closed crotch, closed back. See illustration.

For golf, tennis and field wear, we recommend the special attached collar OLUŠ with regular or short sleeves. Extra sizes for very tall or stout men. All shirt fabrics, in smart designs, including silks—$1.50 to $10.00.

OLUŠ one-piece PAJAMAS for lounging, resting and comfortable sleep. Made on the same principle as OLUŠ Shirts—coat cut, closed back, closed crotch. No strings to tighten or come loose. $1.50 to $8.50.

Ask your dealer for OLUŠ. Booklet on request.
