WILL HEAR NEW SONG UNI NIGHT

"Nebraska" Written by Unannounced Author, Will Be Heard for First Time

A song entitled, "Nebraska," dedicated to Jack Best, whose picture will appear on the title page, is to be introduced to the University public on University Night, at the auditorium, March 3. The author's name will not be divulged until that time.

Those who have heard the song say it has great possibilities as a popular one-step, that it has "heaps of pep," and that it will be a big bomb in the campaign for a 1917 football championship.

Although the composer's name has been kept secret as yet, he is said to have had a share in the development of some football songs now meeting with favor at eastern conference games.
