CO-EDS AWARDED BASKETBALL 'N'S'
Thirty-one Girls Get Letters—Arrangements for the Annual Tournament Completed

Thirty-one girls have been awarded "N's" in basketball. They will represent their various class teams in the annual tournament which is to be held next week.

The seniors are: Louise White, captain, Fern Longacre, Lucy Jeffords, Florence Sandy, Lillian Wirt, Edith Brown, Rose Anderson, and Henrietta Hawkins.

The juniors: Camille Koch, captain, Dawn Flanery, Grace Nichols, Beatrice Koch, Beatrice Dierks, Blanche Higgins, and Ruth Shively.

The sophomores: Helen Hewitt, captain, Helen Bloodhart, Bess McDonald, Catherine Paper, Elizabeth Paper, Lenora Noble, Madelene Gerard and Fern Noble.

The freshmen: Lettie Iron, captain, Janet Thornton, Elizabeth Brown, Jane Kingery, Jane Beachler, Patricia Maloney and Daisy Parks.

This is the first time that members of class teams have been given "N's." Hitherto to receive a letter, a girl had to play on a class team, receive a grade of ninety per cent in her physical education work, and make a place in the annual spring track meet. Those who fulfill these requirements now receive "N" blankets.

The Tournament

The girls basketball tournament this year is to be held in an entirely new fashion. Instead of having the usual evening tournament, three games will be played, the first one on Monday, February 19, the second on Tuesday, February 20 and the third on Thursday, February 22. The reasons for the change, according to Prof. Ina Gittings, are the confusion due to the fact that the girls are not accustomed to playing by electric light and the fact that two games in one evening, which the winners must play, are too strenuous for them.

The games will begin at about 10:30 in the big armory and there will be no admission charged. The prospect for a lively contest for the material from which the teams are selected is excellent.

MISS VAN DRIEL IN SOCIAL SERVICE AS CHARITY VISITOR

Miss Annis S. Chalkin, '08, secretary of the Alumni association has received a very interesting letter from Gertrude Van Driel, '14, who, with her sister, Agnes, '16, is engaged in social service work in Chicago.

Miss Van Driel wrote that they had completed the course of training at the Chicago School of civics and philanthropy and had secured positions with the United charities as visitors. She said that both enjoyed the work, finding it full of interesting experiences, and that they appreciated the University Journal a good deal. "We are anxiously awaiting the new directory," she concluded.

WILL FORM AN ASSOCIATION OF WOMEN ATHLETES

The women of the physical education department expect to organize a Nebraska Women's Athletic association this week, and send one or possibly two delegates to the national convention of such associations, which will be held at Madison, Wisconsin, March 9 and 10.

Only the largest colleges of the country have been asked to send delegates to this convention. Oberlin, Depauw, Leland Stanford Jr., University of Michigan, Illinois, Minnesota, California, Indiana, and Kansas are among the twenty-five colleges which will be represented.

The purpose of the association is to promote high physical efficiency among women students by fostering an interest in gymnastic and athletic activities. Members of the association realize that the present development of athletics for women is incomplete, and they expect to study methods which will result in definite progress towards a broader view of women's athletics.

Miss Ina E. Gittings, director of women's gymnastic work, and Mrs. C. B. Leck, physical education instructor, are directing the organization.

GOLDEN FLEECE COMMITTEE HAS APPROVED 49 CO-EDS

Before the critical gaze of Betty Brown, Eva Miller and Melba Quigley have passed the Titian-haired girls of the University who wish to become members of the Order of the Golden Fleece. Forty have been passed as sufficiently red-headed to get a place

ALUMNAE

Neil Bridenbaugh, '08, has accepted a position in the public schools at Sioux City, Ia. Bernice Keefe, who graduated here last semester, has also gone to Sioux City to teach.

Bessie Townsend, '16, has passed the examination of the state board of pharmacy and is now a registered pharmacist helping her father, A. D. Townsend, in his drug store at Ponca.

Louise Phelps, '02, who is private secretary to E. Benjamin Andrews, former chancellor of the University of Nebraska, has written the alumni secretary expressing her interest in the news of her alma mater which she receives in the Alumni Journal.

Mrs. C. W. Zepp (Ellen Faulkner, '04), writes the alumni secretary that there are a number of former Nebraska students and graduates at Fort Collins, Colo., where her husband is teaching this year. Mrs. Zepp expressed her loyalty to the University, and said that "our Association of Collegiate Alumnae serves to bring the women together for delightful afternoons once a month."
