UNIVERSITY MEN ON THE PROGRAM

Instead of telling the merchants, as most speakers do, what accounts they should keep, Professor Martin outlined a system for keeping the accounts which they already have.

Penn P. Podrea, sales manager of the Iren Biscuit Company of Omaha, was the last speaker, talking on "Salesmanship."

The program for today is:

Morning Session
W. C. E. Elliott, president of the federation, presiding.

10 a. m.—"The Relation of the University to the Business Interests of the State," Chancellor Samuel Avery.

10:30 a. m.—"The School of Commerce—Its Functions," Prof. J. E. Le-Rossignol, director of the school of commerce.

11 a. m.—"Credit Co-operation Among Retailers," C. W. Russ, Hot Springs, Ark.

Afternoon Session
Prof. O. R. Martin, presiding.

1:30 p. m.—"Financial Problems of the Retailer," C. W. Russell, treasurer M. E. Smith & Company, Omaha.

2:30 p. m.—"Analyzing the Trade Possibilities of the Community," C. F. Kurtz, director of business administration, extension division, University of Iowa.

3:30 p. m.—"The Training of Retail Salesmen," S. A. Sanderson, vice-president, Rudge & Guenzel Company, Lincoln.

ROY BRADLEY, '18, BACK FROM BORDER, MIDWEEK SPEAKER

Roy Bradley, '18, top sergeant of Company M of the Fourth regiment while it was on service along the border, will speak at the mid-week devotional meeting of the Y. M. C. A. in Music hall of the Temple tonight at 7 o'clock on "The Religious Conditions Among Troops on the Border." Bradley was in close touch with the work being done by religious branches among the soldiers of the national guard while they were getting their first long taste of service.

EXPRESS SPIRIT THROUGH ACTION

Should Show Interest in All Things, Especially Religion, Not in Words, But Deeds, Says Miss Dodge

Not mere opinion or belief, but concrete action, is the test of spirit, in the opinion of Miss Adelia Dodge, field secretary of the north-central district of the Y. W. C. A., who spoke on "Dramatized Religion" at Vespers yesterday afternoon.

"We like to see things in action. We give pageants to illustrate passive facts; we enjoy moving pictures because they give us life-size pictures of action. In just such a way should we show our interest in our religion—by doing things."

This activity, which is the concrete expression of spirit, should not be resultless; it should accomplish something; more than the obvious, the routine, should be done.

"Seeing is believing, and so, in order to convince others of our belief, we must do something to show them how we feel," Miss Dodge continued, following up her point.

Dramatized religion, on the other hand, is not for a moment of the sensational sort. It is the serious, well-thought-out, purposeful expression of deep conviction. We should live what we feel—we should live our beliefs.

In connection with the Vespers program, Mildred Gillilan sang a vocal solo. Doris Weaver presided over the meeting.

SENIOR WRESTLING TRYOUTS COMING THIS AFTERNOON

Tryouts for the senior wrestling team will be held late this afternoon in the Armory. Men will be picked for each of the weights, 125, 135, 145, 158, 175 and heavyweight. The victors in matches in the interclass tournament will be awarded medals.

Mississippi and the Semester

The University of Mississippi is considering the adoption of the semester system as opposed to the plan of having three terms. The faculty of the college of arts has expressed itself as being in favor of the present system by a small majority, and the question will be brought up before the whole faculty at its next meeting. Mississippi, Texas, Georgia and Virginia are about the only state universities that still retain the three-term system.—Ex.

VENUS 10¢ PENCIL

No matter what course you're taking you need this famous pencil!

BECAUSE of the superlative quality of material and workmanship, VENUS is admittedly the finest pencil it is possible to make.

If you like a thick soft lead that marks so that you can read the writing half way across the room, choose the soft degrees 6B—5B—4B.

For short-hand notes or easy writing 3B—2B—B (medium soft) are popular.

For sketching, general writing purposes, etc., HB—F—H—2H (medium) will prove desirable.

For drafting, a medium hard pencil gives the best results and you'll like 3H—4H—5H—6H.

For very thin, narrow lines for extremely accurate graphical charts, maps, details, etc., 7H—8H—9H are available.

Look for the distinctive water mark finish on each of the 17 black degrees and hard and medium copying.

Your professors will confirm these statements as to the merits of VENUS pencils.
