PRICE FIVE CENTS

EIGHT HUNDRED TO PLAY BASKETBALL

113 TEAMS HAVE ENTERED HIGH SCHOOL TOURNAMENT

A List of the Teams and Players—Tournament Largest in the Country

Over eight hundred players, representing 113 high schools in Nebraska, will be here for the annual interscholastic basketball tournament, according to the list of entries received by Saturday afternoon. This mark surpasses the one reached last year and makes the tournament the largest in the country.

Entry lists had been received Saturday evening from 112 schools, and the Omaha high school of commerce had sent its entrance fee but not its list of entries.

Manager Guy Reed, in charge of the tournament, will appoint an executive committee today, and tomorrow the task of classifying the teams and arranging the schedule will begin. There is some talk of making three divisions instead of two as last year, but this will probably not be done.

List of Teams and Players

Following is a list of the teams entered, something of their record for the year, and the players they will send to Lincoln to play in the tournament:

Alma—Verle Doan, Ira Hethers, Lawrence Hastings, Mitchell Everson, Venith Scott, Claude Martin, Gilbert Colgan, Lawrence Metzger, Clayton Gould. Won 4, lost 6.
Ansley—Bert Knapp, Florian Liewey, Hubert Mills, Henry Scott, Tom Mackey, Welland Hayslip.
Arlington—Glen Ludwig, Robert Steele, Hiram Alexander, Lawrence Echtenkamp, Major Giffrey, Leonard Haming, Lloyd Brown. Won 3, lost 3.

FOUR HUNDRED GREEKS AT PARTY

Second Pan-Hellenic Stunt Night at Alpha Sigma Phi House Friday Evening Sets Mark

Nearly four hundred "Greeks" are estimated to have visited the Alpha Sigma Phi house some time during the All-Greek party Friday night and as many as three hundred were present at one time. The attendance exceeded the expectations of the committee but not their preparations.

The stunts were very good in general, although some of the numbers on the program, which was "subject to sudden changes," dropped out at the last minute and were supplied by "extras." The stage was fitted up with real stage scenery and accompanied by curtain and spot-light.

Luncheon was served after the program and dancing occupied the remainder of the evening.

The program follows:
Alpha—Evolution of the modern dance—Delta Delta Delta.

Beta—Solo—Delta Gamma.
Gamma—"Who Broke the Lock on the Hen House Door?"—Beta Theta Pi.
Delta—Egyptian Dance—Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Epsilon—Solo—Kappa Sigma.
Eta—"Would Be Grand Opera"—Gamma Phi Beta, Acacia.
Zeta—Dainty Dance—Pi Beta Phi.
Theta—Fiji Frolic—Phi Gamma Delta.

Iota—Costume Duet—Alpha Xi Delta.
Kappa—Quartette and Twangers—Pi Kappa Phi.
Mu—A Few Lines of Drama—Alpha Phi.
Nu—A Real Tin Lizzie—Alpha Delta Pi.

Omicron—An Unknown Quantity—Delta Zeta, Delta Gamma.

ANNOUNCE EXAMINATION FOR SECOND LIEUTENANT

Tests Will Be Held at Fort Crook and at Fort Riley on April 23 and on July 23, 1917

Examinations for the position of second lieutenant in the regular army, with a yearly salary of $1,700, will be held at Fort Crook and Fort Riley April 23 and July 23, Captain S. M. Parker, commandant of cadets has announced.

An unusual opening for service has been created by the recent increase in the size of the army, and the time for rapid promotion also seems opportune. Those who desire to take the examinations may learn the requirements at the office of the commandant, and may leave their applications there to be forwarded to the office of the Adjutant General at Washington. The age limits for those who may take the examinations are 21 and 27.

DEFINES ADVERTISING FIELD FOR PAPERS

Publication Board Announces New Policy, Giving only the Nebraskan and Agriculture a Clear Field

The Daily Nebraskan and Agriculture will in the future be the only University student publications not limited in their field of advertising solicitation according to a decision of the student publication board made at a meeting Friday noon in the student activities office.

Other publications, as the Blue Print, the Pharmacy annual, Shucks, and the Home Economics annual are to be restricted to the particular field of business which the publication represents.

No particular solicitation is given by the board to other publications, such as the Cornhusker and Awgwan. They are not barred, however, from accepting Lincoln advertising obtained by methods devoid of urgency.

The action of the board was taken to protect the Lincoln merchants whose advertising has been a steady source of income for University publications, from a too-heavy solicitation by student managers of the publications. Too much pressure might be brought upon the merchants, a pressure that would be undesirable, in the opinion of the publication board.

The Daily Nebraskan is the official daily newspaper of the University and is its generally acknowledged advertising medium. Agriculture, a monthly published by students in the college of agriculture, has been published for a long time and has attained a recognized position closely akin to that held by the Nebraskan.

The other publications are not expected to be injured by the action of the board, as their own field remains for them. It is felt, rather, that all the publications will benefit.

DIED WHILE AT WORK THURSDAY

A. C. Sharrick, Carpenter, in the Employ of the University for 16 Years; Dropped Dead

Alfred C. Sharrick, 61 years old, a carpenter in the employ of the University for sixteen years, died from apoplexy while at work at his bench in the carpenter shop north of University hall Thursday evening, shortly before 6 o'clock. His funeral was held yesterday at 2 p. m. at his home, 1801 Garfield street, with burial in Wyuka. Mr. Sharrick had been feeling poorly for some time, but continued his work in the University carpenter shop. Death came without warning while he was finishing up his work for the day prior to going home.

PHI PSIS WIN CHAMPIONSHIP

Defeat Alpha Tau Omega 15-11 Friday In Final Interfrat Basketball Game

The Phi Kappa Psi basketball team sprung one of the biggest surprises in years when it outplayed the Alpha Tau Omega team and won 15 to 11; thus winning the inter-fraternity basketball championship, last Friday night.

The game was full of thrills and rough playing. The big feature was the team work of the Phi Psis, who time after time took the ball down the field in a series of machine-like passes.

The individual stars of the contest were Schumacher of the A. T. O.'s, and Selzer of the Phi Psis. Schumacher made six of his team's points, with three long, sensational shots. Selzer played all over the floor and made five points for his team.

Close guarding by the winners was another factor in the victory. The A. T. O.'s could not make long ones count consistently and they could not get close enough to the basket to make short ones. Kellogg, Cook and Porter all played excellent games.

The score at the end of the first half was 12 to 7 in favor of the Phi Psis, but even with the score against them the A. T. O. supporters would not acknowledge that the Phi Psis could win. But as the game progressed and the A. T. O.'s could not catch up, hope gradually dwindled.

It was a championship battle worthy of the name, and will be remembered by those who saw it as a real basketball game.

A. T. O. 11	Phi Psi 15
Schellenberg	Selzer
Shaw	Kellogg
Shaw	Seeman
Schumacher	Cook
Vifquain	Porter

Substitutions—Gerhart for Zumwinkle.
Field Goals—Schumacher 3, Shaw and Kellogg 3, Selzer, Cook and Porter 1.
Free Throws—Schellenberg 3, Selzer 3.
Referee—Thiesen.

E. LeRossignol, head of the department of political economy and "Professionalism in Athletics," by Guy Reed.

JOINT MEETING OF LITERARY SOCIETIES LAST FRIDAY EVENING

Palladian and Union literary societies held their second union meeting for this year in Palladian hall Friday evening. There were about 120 students present, including the members of both societies and visitors. The following program was given:
Music String Quartette
Vocal Solo Charles Lively, '17
Play "The Man of '65 and Today"
After the program the people were divided into different groups named for the great men of history and each group then played a historical sketch in costume.

NEBRASKA WINS FROM BULLDOGS

AMES GETS GAME ON NIGHT BEFORE, 24-17

Score Against Drake Bulldogs Is 23-13—Captain Campbell's Arm Not Broken, and He Is Star

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 24.—Nebraska won its second Missouri valley conference game here tonight when she defeated the Drake Bulldogs, as expected, 23-13. The first half ended 10-1 for the Cornhuskers, but the Bulldogs hit harder during the last period and kept up with the Huskers in the scoring.

Captain Campbell of Nebraska was the star of the game, making five field goals and one free throw. Flotow, the other Nebraska forward, pushed his captain hard for honors, making four field goals. Jackson made one field goal for Nebraska.

Hawley was the Bulldog star, making three baskets and one free throw. Eddy made one field goal and three free throws.

Nebraska displayed good teamwork and outclassed Drake in practically every department of the game.

Ames, Ia., Feb. 23.—Ames won her second game from Nebraska tonight, 24-17, in a game which started out slow and became faster as it progressed. The first half ended 15-9, Ames; Nebraska's total in this half being boosted by free throws. Nebraska's guarding game was not effective.

Captain Campbell, whose arm was hurt in a collision with Aldrich Thursday night, played again tonight. His arm, thought at first to be broken, was only severely bruised.

PRaises BOOK BY NEBRASKA GEOGRAPHERS

Journal of Geography Comments on "The Wheat Industry" by Professor Bengtson and Miss Griffith

"The Wheat Industry," a 337-page book containing over 130 illustrations and maps, written by N. A. Bengtson and Miss Donee Griffith of the department of geography, the first volume in the Macmillan industrial series, edited by Prof. G. E. Condra, of the department of conservation and soil survey has received special mention in this month's issue of the Journal of Geography.

"Professor Bengtson and Miss Griffith have two excellent qualifications for writing the book, abundant first-hand knowledge of the subject and the experienced, successful teachers' skill in presentation. . . . The book is not only authoritative but thoroughly interesting. . . . It is hoped that succeeding books in the series will be as good."

The magazine also states that the Association of American Geographers, of which Professor Bengtson is a member, is the most exclusive geographical society in the world. Only five scientists west of the Mississippi river have been elected to membership and of these two are Nebraska University men, Dr. G. E. Condra being the other member from Nebraska.

WANT QUICK ACTION ON JOURNALISM DEPT.

State Editors Recommend Establishment for Practical Working by Next School Year

Recommendations to the chancellor and board of regents that such action be taken on journalistic training at the University as will insure a department of journalism in practical working by the beginning of the next school year, were unanimously adopted last Friday by the members of the Nebraska state press association, meeting in an adjourned session in Lincoln.

The state editors, in their resolution, call attention to their action of last summer, in endorsing the journalistic college, and remind the university authorities that nothing definite has been done in this matter.

The resolutions also urge the regents to place at the head of the department a man who has demonstrated his ability, and who is known to have had both practical and theoretical training in this field. The association also commended Prof. M. M. Fogg for the work he has done for journalism in the state of Nebraska.

Lieutenant Governor Edgar Howard introduced the resolutions.

The members of the state press ate dinner Friday evening in the dining room of the home economics building on the farm campus. Chancellor Avery presided as toastmaster and Dean E. A. Burnett of the agricultural college was another faculty man who spoke.

TICKETS TUESDAY FOR UNI. NIGHT

Seat Sale Begins in Temple in the Morning—Reservations made With Ticket—10c Each

Tickets for University night, at the Auditorium March 3, will be placed on sale at the Temple tomorrow morning. A uniform charge of ten cents a seat will be made, only this year reservations come with the tickets, thus eliminating some of the tiresomeness of former ticket sales.

Although the auditorium with its much larger seating capacity, will be used for the night this year instead of the Oliver theatre, the same rush for seats is expected and the management is preparing to handle it.

BRYSON TO NATIONAL STUDENT CONFERENCE

WILL GET IDEAS ON STUDENT COUNCIL FOR NEBRASKA CHARTER

Great Student Gathering at Purdue University—Students asked to Submit Ideas for Questionnaire

A box has been placed in front of the Daily Nebraskan office, south of University hall, and students are asked to drop in it suggestions to the University student council charter convention, especially for the questionnaire which will be submitted to the representatives of all the student councils of the country, who meet at Purdue March 1, 2 and 3.

Albert Bryson, one of the student members of the Nebraska university student council charter commission, was elected by the commission as its representative to the national conference of student councils, to be held at Purdue university March 1, 2 and 3. Bryson will leave Wednesday, taking with him a questionnaire, and instructed to learn as much as possible about the practical workings of the student council.

His meeting with the student council members from every large university, and the ideas that he will gain from them, are expected to be of great aid to the charter commission in drafting its plan for student self government at Nebraska.

CHILDREN GUESTS OF UNI. PLAYERS

Two Performances Saturday of "Alice in Wonderland"—Detention Home and Orthopedic Children There

The University Players in "Alice in Wonderland" at the Temple theatre Saturday found appreciative audiences in the children from the orthopedic hospital, who were their guests at the morning performance, and children from the detention home, guests in the afternoon. There were some grown-ups present, but not so many as expected.

Gladys Corrick, as Alice, was the life of the play, and the children followed her adventures with shining eyes. The costumes, including those used for temperamental animals, and the bearing of the court ladies and gentlemen were true to the story, sustaining well the spirit of wonderland. The play was under the direction of Octavia Beck and Lucile Becker, '18.

The cast follows in order of appearance:
