SOME GOOD THROWERS

Outfielders in the Old Days Excelled in Making Assists.

Jack Murray of the New York Giants Has Most Consistent Record—Ellis, Bates, Snodgrass and Cravath Also Shine.

Statistics show that outfielders back in the eighties and nineties shaded the present-day outfielders in making assists. The best record for the number of assists made in one season in the majors in recent years, or since 1900, was stacked up by Harry Niles with the St. Louis Browns in 1906. Harry nailed 39 men from the outfield, getting them at different bases.

Mike Mitchell, while playing with the Cincinnati team, equaled the mark set by Niles, heading off 39 men by his power to shoot a ball from the farthest corner of the outfield with sufficient accuracy and speed to get his man. Ty Cobb, Joe Birmingham, Tris Speaker, Joe Jackson and Clyde Milan of Washington all have made especially good records in this direction, and lead their respective teams in throwing out base-runners from the remote corners of the outer garden. In his day Fielder Jones was a past master in pegging the ball from the outfield, and nipped many runners.

In the National league since 1900 Murray of the Giants has the most consistent record of the old league outfielders in making assists, he leading the league in four different seasons, Ellis, who used to be with the Cards was good at making long throws, and had an average of 25 a season. Thus Bates, Cravath and Snodgrass have good marks for accurate throwing from the outfield.

But the old boys back in the halcyon days of the eighties made some astonishing records in throwing out base runners from afar off. Jimmy Fogarty of the Phillies averaged an assist from the outfield every third game he played in. Sam Thompson of the old Detroit and Phillies was a mighty thrower in his day.

SELECTION OF CHEER LEADER

University of Chicago Takes Job Away From Captains of the Several Athletic Teams.

Acting on the theory that a good athlete makes a poor cheer leader, the undergraduate council of the University of Chicago has abolished the rule making captains of the several athletic teams cheer leaders during the dual season in their particular branch of sport. Hereafter cheer leaders will be chosen by vocal competition.

Bowdoin Demands Athletic Students.

At a conference of officers of the United States Golf association it was decided to hold this year's national amateur championship contests on the grounds of the Oakmont club, at Pittsburgh, Pa. The meet will be held the latter part of August.

SOME TITLE

In a recent issue of the Battalion it is announced that a new book is to appear in the latter part of February entitled "Innocents Abroad, or the Texas U. Basketball Team in College Station." We admit that is some title but the College Stationites would feel sort of funny if the book turned out to be, "Bearded in Their Den, or the Sad Fate of the Farmers."—Ex.

TURN YOUR SHIRT-TAILS INTO DRAWERS

OLUS

IN OLUS the outside shirt and underdrawers are one garment.

This means that the shirt can't work out of the trousers, that there are no shirt tails to bunch in seat, that the drawers "stay put," to say nothing of the comfort and economy of having a garment. OLUS is coat cut, opens all the way down—closed crotch, closed back. See illustration.

For golf, tennis and field wear, we recommend the special attached collar OLUS with regular or short sleeves. Extra sizes for very tall or stout men. All shirt fabrics, in smart designs, including silks—$1.50 to $10.00.

OLUS one-piece PAJAMAS for lounging, resting and comfortable sleep. Made on the same principle as OLUS shirts—coat cut, closed back, closed crotch. No strings to tighten or come loose. $1.50 to $3.50. Ask your dealer for OLUS. Booklet on request.
