OTHERWISE NO CREDIT TO THOSE IN SCHOOL

All cadets who are in school must continue to report for drill until the end of the year in order to secure their credit, according to a statement by Commandant Parker. The record books will be kept as usual up until that time and students registered in the University who have not been drilling will be reported delinquent. Drill for the last week has been conducted with all of the men in one or two companies. Nearly all of the officers of the cadet battalion have applied for Fort Snelling and are intending to leave as soon as the call comes. It is very likely that Captain Parker and Sergeants Sullivan and Wirth will leave before May 14, and Sergeant Allen will be left here to continue the work.

GIVES WARNING ON WITHDRAWALS

STUDENTS EXPECTED TO KEEP UP WORK UNTIL DEPARTURE

Dean Engberg Says Credit for Semester Lost Unless Work Is Kept Up

A warning to students who have withdrawn from college but who have not yet entered upon the work for which they withdrew was issued by Executive Dean C. C. Engberg yesterday.

Students who have sent in applications for withdrawal and who are still in Lincoln are advised to see their instructors immediately in regard to their work.

Many withdrew to go to Fort Snelling a week ago. They are expected to keep up their class work until called to camp. If they have failed to do this, or have confined the work they have done to one department and neglected others, they will find themselves in danger of losing their credits, the dean said.

Students who withdrew upon their qualification for the training camp, if they do not receive orders to report, will be expected to continue in school for the semester, unless they make application for other work service.

Withdrawal from school to go to Fort Snelling is not a legitimate withdrawal for farm work.

DRAMATIC CURTAIN WILL DROP TONIGHT

"ALIAS JIMMY VALENTINE" WILL CLOSE YEAR'S WORK

With Original Successful Cast and Good Ticket Sale, Farewell Production Should Be Memorable

Final rehearsals and a good ticket sale have made the presentation of "Alias Jimmy Valentine" tonight an assured success, according to the management.

The popularity of the members of the cast in University dramatic circles and the knowledge that it is the last time many of them will appear in college performances has added to the interest and made the production a real farewell to the players from the University and to the University from many of the players.

Clark and Miss Schaviland Lead

Maurice Clark, who has built the leading character part into a likable, life-like man trying to make good under the most trying circumstances, and Louise Schaviland as the girl for whom all the efforts to lead a straight life are made and who recognizes no drawbacks for a man of real worth, are both artists with the work and will undoubtedly win much favorable comment.

Spray Gardner and Howard Wilson leave shortly and their appearance tonight will be a farewell production for them. Both have worked in these parts through nine performances and will give an interpretation of the detective Doyle and the warden that will rank high as character work from the opening lines of the show.

Played in Temple

The play is presented in the Temple theatre in an effort to conform with the general idea in the country now of economy and is approved in this by the executive officers of the school. The price has been made the same for all tickets and is as low as a royalty play can be put on for. Tickets are being sold on the campus and at the College Book Store. The management is making a point of the

SMALL TEAM TO MEET GOPHERS

ONLY 12 MAKE TRIP TO MINNEAPOLIS FOR MEET SATURDAY

Minnesota Will Have 20 to 30 Points Advantage From Husker Lack of Entries

When the Cornhusker track team leaves for Minneapolis tonight it will be minus the services of several of the men who made the trip to Ames. No more than twelve men will be taken and it is probable that there will not be that many.

Edson Shaw, who holds the Nebraska shot put record, will be missing from the lineup as will Spencer Flint, high and broad jumper and hurdler. No pole vaulter nor hammer thrower will be taken along. All these missing men will give the Gophers a lead of anywhere from 20 to 30 points which they will not have to work for at all.

Gophers Have Class

Minnesota has some very good men in the races as well as in the field events. They held a inter-department track meet last Saturday and made a good many records that surpassed those Nebraska has hung up in the same events. Many of the men who were on the team that drubbed the Cornhuskers so hard last year will compete Saturday.

Following is a list of the men who will go and the events they will take part in: Overman, mile; Grau, half-mile; Graf, 2-mile; Werner, 100, 220, high and broad jumps; Owen, 100, 440 and mile relay; Fuchs, 440 and mile relay; Finney, high and low hurdles; Reese, shot and discus; Riddell, javelin; Townsend, mile relay; Jackson, mile relay. Bryans will probably be taken for relief man.

fact that practically nothing in the social line is planned for the week end and that "fussers" and "gadabouts" and all those interested in a clever play well produced will find this the chief item of amusement in the University calendar for the month.

DRUG AUTHORITY WILL SPEAK TODAY

DR. SCHNEIDER TO ADDRESS PHARMACY CONVOCAION

The Convocation this morning in Memorial hall at 11 o'clock will be a special pharmacy program, as a part of the "Pharmacy Week."

Dr. Albert Schneider, an expert and a national authority in his subject, will lecture upon "The War and Vegetable Drugs." This is of especial interest to the Nebraska University students, because of the exceptionally fine drug plan garden that the University has had for the past two years, and which has yielded drug plans for most of the work of the pre-meds and the pharmacy students, as well as means for valuable experimental work on the part of the University.

Tonight Dr. Schneider will address a meeting of Sigma Xi, the honorary professional fraternity, speaking upon "A Newer Conception of Cytology." This lecture will be given in M. A. 102. It is open not only to members of the Sigma Xi society, but to students and everyone desiring to attend.

DR. LYMAN ATTENDS TESTIMONIAL DINNER FOR MINNESOTA DEAN

Dr. Lyman returned early in the week from Minneapolis, where he attended a testimonial dinner in honor of Dean Frederick R. Wulling of the University of Minnesota. It was given in honor of his twenty-fifth anniversary of service three and was attended by four hundred druggists of the state as well as by deans from four other state universities. Dr. Lyman was on the toast list, and spoke as representative of the American conference of pharmaceutical faculties, of which he is president, and for the University of Nebraska.

HIKE TO PEN WOODS BY CO-EDS THIS AFTERNOON

A hike to the Pen woods is planned for this afternoon by the University Girls' club. The hikers will leave the Y. W. C. A. about 5 o'clock reaching the woods at 6 o'clock, and picnicking there.

PROFESSOR GRUMMANN RESUMES POSITION ON STAFF OF POET LORE

Prof. Paul H. Grumann, director of the school of fine arts, has again become a member of the editorial staff of Poet Lore, a Boston magazine. Professor Grumann was formerly a member of the staff of this paper, but was obliged to resign, owing to his other work. He will have charge of the German literature which is used in the magazine.

NO UNI. MEN GET ORDERS TO CAMP

FIRST SCATTERING CALL FAILS TO REACH UNIVERSITY

Captain Parker Believes Some Will Come Today—28 Pass Examinations Yesterday

Up to a late hour last night Captain Parker had not been advised of any orders reaching University men to report to Fort Snelling. He said, however, that he was confident the first notifications will reach a number of students today and that it is very probable that many would come by telegraph because of the short time in which the men have to report.

The men who reside nearest to Fort Snelling will receive their notices first, Captain Parker believes, but all of the rest will be notified in time to reach camp by May 14. All of the applications will be arranged according to the grade and the highest graded will be called irrespective of the distance from the fort.

28 Qualify Yesterday

Twenty-eight candidates were found physically and mentally fit as a result of the examinations yesterday, making an even 500 who have been passed up to the present time. Sixty-seven are yet to be examined and 94 have been disqualified in the examinations. About 120 applicants have been accepted at Omaha, according to Captain Parker, and 30 at Kearney and perhaps 50 at other points over the state, making a total of some 800 candidates accepted over the state. Nebraska will be allowed nearly 415 places in the training camp as her share of the 2,500 apportioned to the five states, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Iowa and Nebraska, in the opinion of army officers here.

More than 200,000 men, five times as many as can be accommodated, have applied for admission to the sixteen officers' training camps which opened yesterday to begin developing the men who will lead new American armies to be raised within the next four months. About 60,000 have been certified as qualified for admission, and from these 40,000 will be selected and placed under intensive instruction within the next ten days.
