NEWS FROM CAMP

The following letter received by Prof. J. E. LeRossignol, of the economics department from Arthur Schade, assistant in the department last year, pictures a number of new phases of the life of the men in training at Camp Funston.

October 29, 1917—I am in the medical department of the 89th Division. So are all the Lincoln men from Divisions 1 and 2 who are here with me. We are in two ambulance companies.

I am very well satisfied with army life, though I get lonesome and bored with the constant routine. We work hard, but we are nicely treated by our officers—due to the fact that they are reserve officers just coming out of civilian life. We are well fed, but I would hesitate to say that the American army is the best-fed army in the world. Men in certain companies are raising quite a kick over their rations, and they are quite right when you hear them recite their bill of fare.

We are to be whipped into shape by January 25th, then we move to I know not where. Probably France. Quite a few University men are here—Ozro Woods, Glen Everts, Stanley Henry, G. O. Cast, Partridge Hanke, and several others.

The Y. M. C. A. football teams, and the canteen offer us quite a bit of recreation. We wash our own clothes, mop our own floors, wash our own dishes, in fact, keep house.

I expect to be able to get a pass on one of the holidays. If I succeed I'll be in Lincoln for a day or so.

I must close. Mess call is sounding now. We never wish to be late to meals. Really get hungry, a sensation I seldom experienced during the past year.

Wishing you continued success, I am,

Respectfully yours,
ARTHUR SCHADE,
Ambulance Co. 356.

ALUMNI NEWS

Arthur L. Hill, a graduate student here last year, is in Ambulance Co. 356 at Camp Funston. Hill was superintendent of schools at Beaver Crossing for several years.

OLUS SHIRTS
COAT CUT

TURN YOUR SHIRT-TAILS INTO DRAWERS
What good is a Shirt-tail anyway?

IN OLUS the outside shirt and underdrawers are one garment.

This means that the shirt can't work out of the trousers, that there are no shirt tails to bunch in seat, that the drawers "stay put," to say nothing of the comfort and economy of saving a garment. OLUS is coat cut, opens all the way down—closed crotch, closed back. See illustration.

For golf, tennis and field wear, we recommend the special attached collar OLUS with regular or short sleeves. Extra sizes for very tall or stout men. All shirt fabrics, in smart designs, including silks—$1.50 to $10.00.

OLUS one-piece PAJAMAS for lounging, resting and comfortable sleep. Made on the same principle as OLUS Shirts—coat cut, closed back, closed crotch. No strings to tighten or come loose. $1.50 to $6.50.

Ask your dealer for OLUS. Booklet on request.

ACHIEVEMENT

Twenty-five years ago the General Electric Company was founded. It has set free the spirit of research. It has given tangible form to invention, in apparatus of infinite precision and gigantic power.

Since then, electricity has sent its thrill through the whole structure of life. And it has gone forth, co-operating with every industry, to command this unseen, force and fetch it far to serve all people.

Eager to turn wheels, to lift and carry, to banish dark, to gather heat, to hurl voices and thoughts across space, to give the world new tools for its work—electricity has bent to man's will.

By the achievements which this company has already recorded may best be judged the greater ends its future shall attain, the deeper mysteries it yet shall solve in electrifying more and more of the world's work.

Throughout this period the General Electric Company has held the great responsibilities and high ideals of leadership.
