NATIONAL CONGREGATIONAL SECRETARY TO SPEAK HERE

ring, national secretary of the Congregational church, will deliver the address. Chancellor Avery will preside.

Dr. Herring is in Lincoln to take part in the inaugural ceremonies of Dr. J. A. Holmes of the First Congregational church.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the visit to Lincoln, in connection with the inauguration of Dr. John Andrew Holmes at the First Church, of the two men who during the last two years have occupied the two highest offices in the gift of the denomination.

Hon. Henry M. Beardsley, who since the arrangements were made for the inauguration has retired as national moderator, was formerly mayor of Kansas City, and is perhaps the most widely known layman in his own church in the entire country. He made a notable record as a level-headed reform mayor of the metropolis of the southwest. He will speak not only for the denomination as a whole at the inauguration, but also for the church in Champaign-Urbana, Ill., of which Mr. Holmes has been pastor for nearly ten years. Dr. Beardsley was for a number of years a member of that church, and his mother and sister are still connected with it.

Dr. Hubert C. Herring of Boston is the national secretary of the Congregational church, and gives his entire time to the active supervision of the work throughout the country. He is the only secretary the Congregationalists have had since they adopted their present plan of a more unified church, and it is probable he will continue in his present position for a long time to come, so strong is he in the esteem of the churches east and west. Before he was called to the general service of the denomination, he was for a number of years pastor of the First Church of Omaha.

A program of unusual interest to University students will be given at the regular convocation in Memorial hall Tuesday morning by Adrian Newens, speaker and reader of national fame, and newly-elected director of the University school of music. It will be the first chance the University has had to hear Dr. Newens, whose interpretation of "A Message from Mars" has brought him recognition far and wide.

"BANDBOX REVUE" AT THE ORPHEUM TODAY

Gus Edwards' "Bandbox Revue" is a fresh, sprightly number, clearly entitled to headline honors. It introduces the author's two famous proteges, Georgie Price and Cuddles Edwards, also a chunky youngster, Vincent O'Donnell, who has a remarkable boy-tenor voice. These principles are well supported by half a score of talented juvenile beauty buds, who sing and dance with fine spirit and grace, and who display bewildering changes of costume. A patriotic finale, with Uncle Sam looming large among the youngsters, is afforded in the military drill accompanying Georgie's solo. THE UKULELE

THE languorous charm of the Hawaiian native instruments—so moving in appeal, so observably in vogue—is strikingly characteristic of the Ukulele. Its tone possesses that curiously beautiful timbre, that exotic charm of tonal quality which has made these instruments so sensation-ally popular.

The Ukulele has a pleasing grace of form. The finer models are made of genuine Hawaiian Koa wood. It is much in request today among the smarter college and other musical organizations.

It is easy to learn. Its price includes an Instruction Book.

Hawaiian Steel Guitar

Every chord struck upon this typically representative Hawaiian instrument is marked by a weird, plaintive harmony and strangely beautiful qualities of tone. It brings, to any music, qualities full of vivid color and varied charm.

Price $8.00 and upwards, including Steel and Set of Three Tuners for playing, and Instruction Book.

Catalogs on application.
