

CONVOCAATION AUDIENCE ENJOYS CELLO RECITAL

Sonata by Raff Rendered by Miss Lillian Eiche Yesterday Morning

A cello recital by Miss Lillian Eiche, accredited instructor of the cello here at the University, was given yesterday morning at 11 o'clock convocation in Memorial hall. Miss LaRue Shire accompanied Miss Eiche with the piano.

Miss Eiche played Sonata op. 185 by Raff. There are three movements in this Sonata, Allegro, Andante, and Vivace. The audience asked for an encore when the Sonata was played and Miss Eiche played "The Swan."

TRIXIE FRIGANZA'S BULL FIDDLE HAT BOX — ORPHEUM TODAY
Headliner par excellence is Trixie Friganza, queen of hearts and the footlights as well, who brings a brand new working partner. This time it's a nice big round fat "bull fiddle" and a short chubby bow. It should be a joy to every efficiency expert, and was undoubtedly contrived to eliminate need of wardrobe trunks, and excess baggage charges. It serves not only as a "melody" box, but as a hat box as well, and if the melody is sometimes slightly warped in getting out, the hat doesn't suffer a bit. — Los Angeles Examiner. Adv.

Douglas Fairbanks in a Fairbanks comedy produced by the Fairbanks company in typical Fairbanks style is what the Magnet theatre will offer as its big attraction Friday and Saturday when "In Again-Out Again" makes its appearance here. "Doug" is known to be the best medium for the removal of wrinkles the country has ever known which means that he is a tonic for young and old alike. His latest screen effort, the first Fairbanks release of the Arcraft Pictures Corporation, is fifty reels of joy boiled down into six.—Adv.

All Souls' Church

A CHURCH WITH THE UNIVERSITY IDEAL IN RELIGION

This organization maintains the modern scientific attitude toward religion. It appeals to many University students, for whom the old conceptions of religion have become inadequate. Its purpose is not to tear down any young man's or young woman's faith, but rather to build it upon a solid and enduring foundation.
