Commercial Club Elects Officers for New Term

The University Commercial club held a business meeting last night, to make arrangements and lay plans for the new semester. The following officers were selected: President, C. E.

Hinds; vice-president, M. L. Springer; secretary, Fred N. Hellner; treasurer, Wilson Bryans.

The club also laid out an active and extensive program to be followed for the new term. Definite plans for this work will be completed and the actual work will be commenced as soon as possible.
