COUNCIL OF DEFENSE TO HAVE WOMEN SPEAKERS

State Chairman Announces Opportunities for University Co-Eds to Aid Program

A speakers' bureau has been organized by the women's committee of the State Council of Defense through which speakers are supplied to meet the state demand for conservation lecturers. Mrs. May Field, 544 South Seventeenth Street is president of the organization.
It is the work of this bureau to see that speakers are supplied for conservation meetings. This requires a large number of lectures and Prof. Sarka Hrbkova, chairman of the women's committee stated that volunteer's from among the University women would probably be able to get work along this line during the summer. From ten to twenty capable women will be needed to carry on this work.
