DRAKE FIVE TO VISIT
HUSKER CAMP NEXT WEEK

"Bulldogs" Will Cross Over Line for Valley Game

DOPE IS FAVORABLE

Nebraska Quintet Looking Forward to Series of Victories in Conference Circles Remainder of Season

All is well in the Cornhusker camp. With a double victory honorably won over ancient and formidable rivals serving as an appetizer, Coach Stewart's gang of basket tossers is now edging into form for a short conference with the drak Bulldogs who will cross the line into the Cornhusker territory next week. The game with the Iowa quintet will be another of the valley series and one which the Husker crew will need to win in order to maintain a respectable standing in conference circles this year.
From the showing put up by the Nebraska men in the two bouts with Wesleyan Doc Stewart seemed able to deduct more than a fair possibility of copying a victory from the Des Moines aggregation next week. The Coyotes have been the chief obstacle of fear for Nebraska ever since the beginning of the year and with that team so favorably disposed of the dope is inclined to promise the Cornhuskers an almost clear slate for the remaining of the season unless Sir Ima Jinx makes a return trip to our camp.
Drake Loses to "Aggies"
Drake dropped a game to the Kansas "Aggies" last week and although the "Aggies" put up a fast game they are not considered generally to equal the Nebraska five. Whether the Iowans are planning some freak or surprise attack for the contest next week is a matter of speculation, but it is hoped in Husker circles that the Nebraskans will be able to play a strong enough defensive to offset any odds which may appear against them from such a source.
Stewart's men have not only developed a strong defensive system but in addition have shown more than their usual ability at the goal. Thomas made some particularly good shots from near the center of the floor in the last game with Wesleyan while in the first of the series every man on the team credited himself with a point.

Breaks Keen Sight Record
Columbia University, N. Y. — Improving the assertion that college men have poor eyesight, A. F. Benziger, '20, of Columbia made an unusual record for keenness of vision in the physical examinations in Dr. Elliott's office last week. Standing at the distance of twenty feet from the chart, the eagle-eyed Soph actually accomplished the reading of the ninth row with but one slight mistake. Dr. Elliott stated that he did not recall a like feat in his years of experience at Columbia.

McINTYRE AND HEATH—ORPHEUM WEDNESDAY
Topping the bill are our old friends, McIntyre and Heath in the same old blackface work garbed in new words. That they are just as welcome as a two-inc brain in Southern California right now was evidenced at the opening performance yesterday. There is a hearty laugh in every line of their chatter and they got full measure out of their audience. It was not at all sickly like the tomato they talked about.—Los Angeles Herald. Adv
