It has been said that those who can, do; that those who can't, preach.

A lot of the so-called "student activities" seem to be about one per cent "student" and 99 per cent "faculty."

THE FORUM

An unsigned letter for the Forum was received yesterday. It is necessary that we have the names of the writers for this Forum column whether the names are published or not. The Daily Nebraskan wishes to invite contributions to the Forum. Pan-Hellenic council is desirous of regulating sorority dances in accordance with the wish of the student body as the council realizes that more than the sorority dances themselves will be effected. If the council decides that 10:30 is the best closing hour for University parties it will sorority women to leave all parties at mean that the council will expect the council expect sorority women to leave all parties at that hour. Student who wish the dances to close then or who wish the dances to close later should express their opinions as Pan-Hellenic expects to see that whatever measures it passes are enforced. If the writer of the article yesterday will hand in his name the letter will be published.

KEEPING UP WITH LIZZIE

I know a girl from my home town who came to school this year; but like the wooden Indian, she don't know me down here. I used to go with her at home; she seemed to like me there; but here at old K. U. its quite a different affair. Seems funny how some girls forget the pals they used to know; its policy to drop the guy who's not a "social" beau. Of course she'll take a date with me for a two-dollar show; you can't blame her so very much, she wants a way to go, but when it comes to Friday night, about nine times in ten, she'd like to go so well, you know, but she don't see how she can. And Saturday and Sunday too (or any other time) she really has to finish up that history outline: I didn't realize how studious she really is; she'll be a female Socrates, a regular Gee-whiz. I know how much I'm in her road because she's set her eye on making a sorority, the Eta Beta Pi; I'm not what's termed a "social guy" and won't do her much good in showing off what style she's got; I know I never could. I rather think she's keeping me to be the last resort, in case he fails to make the "Greek" and needs a man escort. Here's to her; and Jove grant she makes the Eta Beta Pies; it wouldn't do much good, I guess, to wish it otherwise; but if she thinks I'll stick around and wait a month or two, she's got her wires badly crossed, for its just what I won't do. She's nice and cute and pretty, but I'll get along without her; I'm not looking for leftovers at K. U.'s bargain counter.—Daily Kansan.

David City and Steele City played a game much closer than the score would indicate, David City 5, and Steele City 13. From the start the game was close, and it was not until the latter part of the last half that it became apparent who the winner would be.

Sidney clearly outplayed the Tobias team in the last game of the evening, winning by a score of 22 to 9. The Sidney five will no doubt play in the finals of Class E, and will make a strong bid for first place. The team is made up of strong steady players, and shows a rare brand of team work, when once it gets a start on the opposing team. The Tobias team fought the winners with a great show of pluck and fight, but were forced out of the running early in the first half.
