ALUMNI NEWS

Archie R. Kautz, '15, has retired from his position as geologist for the Empire Gas & Fuel Company and is now in the Third Engineer's Reserve Training Camp at Camp Lee, Va.

Lowell L. Walker, '16, who attended the first officers' training camp at Ft. Snelling, is now second lieutenant in the depot brigade at Camp Dodge, Des Moines, Ia.

Leon C. Hart, '14, is now in the Forest service at Missoula, Mont.

Robert N. Baister, '17, of Udca, Nebr., registered at the alumni office Wednesday. He has been farming but is now in Lincoln making arrangements to go into the county agent work.

The February issue of the Power Plant Engineering, a semi-monthly magazine published at Chicago, contains a very good article by Ralph E. Turner, '06 B. S. in E. E., on simple rapid logarithmic charts. He explains the chart very thoroughly and states that it serves the purpose of the slide rule with equal accuracy and great rapidity.

THE ANATOMY OF SUCCESS
 GET UP on your toes.
 Put the best foot forward.
 Stiffen your backbone.
 Throw back your shoulders.
 Get abreast of the times.
 Hold up your chin.
 Keep a stiff upper lip.
 Keep your eyes and ears open—
 And your mouth shut.
 Use your head.
 Go ahead.
 And get ahead. —Judge.

The laundry they got from me
 Was marked quite plainly—C. R. B.
 They sent it back; I wore that day
 A collar owned by—R. A. J.

It went again; I had to try
 To wear the shirts of—M. S. I.
 Once more they took it off and so
 I wear the things of—M. B. O.

Again, I wear, I confess
 Pajamas, meant for—C. G. S.
 The last just broke this heart of mine
 I can't wear things marked—Angeline.

Freshman Class Meeting
 There will be a meeting of the freshman class in Law 101 on Thursday, March 7, at 11 o'clock. There will be an election of the minor class officers as well as some other business that must be transacted.

EIGHTH ANNUAL BASKETBALL TOURNEY

 last night by a score of 22 to 11. The Fremont lads showed up well on the floor and went about with a pace that made their rivals resort to holding and other fouls to prevent them from taking to great a lead. The line up for this game follows:

Fremont 22, Harvard 11
 Gardner Canfield
 McKennan Hartley
 Fitzsimmons Yort
 Trumbell Higgins
 Christensen Smith
 Substitutes—Welsh for Christensen for McKennan.
 Referee—Healy.

The second game for the evening was scheduled to be between Kearney and Gothenburg, but when the Gothenburg boys showed up on the floor their opponents failed to appear and the game was therefore forfeited. Upon Kearney's failure to appear the floor was taken by the Omaha and the School of Agriculture. These two teams, although putting up a game scrap seemed to lack the ability to locate the basket. The first half which ended 6-1 was full of excitement for the spectators, probably because of the unexpected defense which the "Ag" boys put up. In the second half Omaha took a decided lead gaining a lead of 20 to 6, although they were given plenty of opportunities for a greater score.

Omaha 20, School of Agriculture 6
 Maxwell Kimball
 Smith Morrison
 Paynter Horrington
 T. Logan Bolling
 A. Logan Laemy
 Substitutes for Omaha—Russell for Maxwell, Koneke for T. Logan.
 Referee—Healy.

The last game of the evening was that between Newman Grove and Norfolk. Newman Grove had one of the best prospective teams on the floor during the whole of the evening series in the Class A games, and made a showing that has marked them for one of the contenders in the final round. The final score was 32 to 16 in favor of Newman Grove. The line-ups:

Newman Grove 32, Norfolk 16
 Hinman Best
 Peterson Weber
 Eksiron Kreuch
 Johnson Ballentine
 Robunson Willey
 Substitutes for Norfolk—Rosenthal for Weber.
 Referee—Jones.
