ART EXHIBIT OF MUCH INTEREST

Several of Best Pictures Ever Shown at Nebraska

SPECIAL LECTURE TODAY

Prof. Blanche Grant Will Talk on the Collection at 2 O'Clock and at 8 O'Clock Today

The Art Exhibit now being held in the Library is one of the most important that has been held at the University. Although the pictures are not framed in the heavy frames used in the winter exhibit they are nevertheless some of the best possible to obtain. Number 52, "Moonlight in the Adirondacks," is one of four paintings by W. S. Buckley. Mr. Buckley is particularly known for his use of high harmonious colors. Number 44, "Autumn Sunset," another of his pictures shows a high rich light in the distance. His other two paintings being exhibited are "Iridescent Stream" and "Edge of a Stream." Number 51, "After the Bath," by Berroneau is in the soft dim light typical of the style of Monet, the great French painter.

Number 50, "Steady," is by Asthaus, the famous American painter of dogs. Number 52, "Now for a Double," is also a famous picture of dogs. The painter is Rosseau whose pictures are hung in nearly every American gallery.

"At Monterey," "The High Tide," "The Whaler," and "Breezy Day" are four of William Ritschel's earlier pictures. Visitors to the gallery will recall his "Iridescent Stream" shown at the winter exhibit.

Number 22, "Euchalyptus," is by Ralph Davis Miller, son of Joquin Miller, the poet.

Number 24, "In Ambush," is painted by Irving Couse, foremost painter of Indian life. Examples of his work have been shown here before.

"The Hampshire Hills" by Leonard Auchtman, is also being exhibited. The Nebraska Art Association owns one of Mr. Auchtman's earlier paintings.

Five paintings and one water color by Eugene Mullert are exhibited. Mullert is a pupil of the French masters and has also studied under Israels. His paintings deal primarily with the life of the Hollanders.

Of considerable interest to the art students are seven uncatalogued pictures dealing with the story feature of the old type of human interest story.

Two pictures and three water colors by Arthur Fendel will be of interest to those who have seen his work in former exhibits.

Matilda Browne's "Midsummer" is a striking example of good nature study.

HUSKER ELIMINATED AFTER FIRST ROUND

Troendley, Lightweight Grappler, Has Hard Luck at Chicago Meet

H. P. Troendley, who went as Nebraska's representative to the national amateur wrestling tournament which was held at Chicago last Friday, met with a lot of hard luck in the affair, and was eliminated after but one contest. Troendley drew a bye in the first round and in the second round was matched against a Greek by the name of Fellons from the Greek Athletic club of Chicago. The match was fast and well-fought and Fellons won only by a decision after ten minutes of hard work. That Troendley was not matched against an easy man is evidenced by the fact that his opponent won second place in the tournament in the 125 pound class, and was only defeated by a man named Mohelsel, who is considered a whirlwind of a wrestler. Troendley went from Chicago to Gary, Ind., where he is inspecting the steel factories and smelters, and is expected to return to Lincoln within a day or so.

National Secretary to Talk at Men's Meeting

W. H. Tinker, a man of national reputation will talk at the men's meeting in the Y. M. C. A. rooms in the Temple. Mr. Tinker is a man full of messages for men. It is hoped that there will be a large turnout to this meeting tonight at 7 o'clock.

This meeting comes as the climax of the many meetings held in the Y. M. C. A. this year. Although many students have not realized what they have been missing by not attending these meetings, on the other hand there are many who do realize their worth and are regular attendants. This opportunity may never come again to this school. It is hoped to make this meeting not only the biggest in numbers but the best in pep and interest. The slogan for these meetings is "Come and Bring a Pal."

KAPPA SIGMA TAKES THIRD IN TOURNEY

Wins Over Phi Kappa Psi in Close Game Yesterday Afternoon 11 to 10

Kappa Sigma won third place in the inter-fraternity baseball tournament yesterday, by defeating Phi Kappa Psi, by the score of 11-10. The Phi Psi's led up to the last half of the seventh, when Hanson tied the score by putting up a high brand of base stealing. He stole second, third and home, a feat very seldom accomplished.

Phi Kappa Psi started off with a rush and pushed two scores over the plate, when Thorpe singled and Kellogg chased him in, by knocking a home run into deep center. The Kappa Sig's located Wright in the third inning and pounded him to all corners of the lot. Toole, Bright, and Oir walked, filling the bases, and Hanson cleaned the bags with a Texas homer to the bleachers. Before the Kappa Sig advance had been halted, they had annexed seven runs. The Phi Psi's came right back and pounded out eight runs and the lead, which they maintained, until the unlucky seventh. In the last half of the ninth, Oir walked and Brown brought him home, with a smashing double, for the winning score of the game.

Batteries: Kappa Sigma—Brown and Hanson, Phi Kappa Psi—Wright and Thorpe.

SAYS FREE PRESS IS MENACED BY GERMANS

Journal Editor Speaks at Convocation—Explains Associated Press System

We should be willing to fight this war if for no other reason than that if we don't, Germany will destroy our free press as she has her own. The German press is ruled by the Krupps and the government, and disseminates much that is both false and poisonous. This was the message of Mr. Will Owen Jones, editor of the Nebraska State Journal at Convocation yesterday morning.

Mr. Jones explained the workings of the Associated Press. He illustrated the various steps and the immense staff required to accomplish this monstrous work with stereotypical views.

The Associated Press is not a commercial undertaking as was the United Press, but is run on a co-operative plan by which all of the members send in all of the news in their territory and receive all of interest from the other territories. All of the expenses of the association are paid by the papers on a scale according to their circulation and the population. It is obvious that the news received and sent out will be in accordance with the wishes of the reading public.

The way in which the story from the first "flash" to the bulletin and finally the complete story is sent over leased wires to all parts of the continent in a very short time made a fascinating story.

LIBRARY CLOSING EARLY FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Six O'Clock New Hour Since Force Reduced—Provision Made for Reserve Books

The University Library has undergone the encounter with war results, four of the members of the staff have left for service, and for the rest of the college year it has been found necessary to close at 6 o'clock on Friday and Saturday evening instead of at 10 o'clock. Reserve books may be taken out after 5:30 o'clock on these days.

This is the first time since the library was started that it has been necessary to adopt an early closing hour, but because the increasing difficulty in obtaining help of any kind and the short time remaining until the end of the year it was thought best to make the change. One of the members of the library force is leaving this week for government service at Washington.

CO-EDS MAY ENTER COURSE IN MORSE

Twenty Women are Enrolled in Telegraphy School Preparing to Meet Need

Nebraska University has added to the school of telegraphy a class in Morse telegraphy for women. There is a serious shortage of telegraph operators in commercial lines, greatly increased by the constant demand for these artisans in any line of service.

The woman's class has an enrollment of twenty students. The class is proceeding exceptionally well and at the close of the school year almost all of these students will have qualifications, to enter commercial work. The women taking the course are: Mrs. B. Epperson, Mrs. Nellie Russell, Helen Downing, May Moritz, Mrs. Ruth John, Iris M. Williams, Ruth L. Hefley, Bartha Kulper, Gladys George, Lea Booth, Helen Sanford, Esther Murphey, Susie Antrim, Josefa Seeley, Mabel Estes, Janet Jacobson, Naomi Robbins, Mabel Robbins, Aetna Eakin and Mrs. Grace Thomas.

FORMER NEBRASKA STUDENT OVERSEAS WITH Y. M. C. A.

The National War Work Council of the Young Men's Christian Association has sent overseas since June 25 of last year over fifteen hundred men. They have gone for service with the American and allied armies in France. Since the government has placed in its hands entire charge of the post exchange, as the army canteen is now called, the demand of the Association abroad for men is more insistent.

Wilbur F. Hawthorne, 202 Aubin avenue, Louisville, Ky., will serve as a physical director. Mr. Hawthorne was public school supervisor of physical training at Louisville, Ky., and has had twelve years' experience in physical education. He studied two years at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Nebraska.

REGENTS BEGIN PROBE OF PHYS. ED. DEPARTMENT

Faculty Members State Views Before Committee—Mrs. J. B. Lee May Appear

In response to the petition to the board of regents signed by over 600 University women asking for an investigation of the state of affairs in the physical education department the executive committee of the board met last evening to take the first steps in the examination.

Dr. R. G. Clapp, Miss Young, Dean Amanda Heppner and Executive Dean C. C. Engberg appeared before the committee and told what they knew of the condition of the department and of the controversy which had arisen. The committee voted to allow Mrs. J. B. Lee, former director of girls' athletic, to appear before them and state her side of the case if she so desired. The date will be set later if she desires to appear.

Mrs. Lee, it will be remembered, resigned last week after a dispute with Dr. R. G. Clapp concerning the number of delegates which the Women's Athletic association should send to their convention. The resignation was accepted by the regents, although a petition signed by over 600 co-eds asking the refusal to grant was presented to them.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR DRAKE MEET

Competition Keen for Every Place on Team

STILL NEED FOR MILERS

McMahon the Choice for Hundred Yard Dash—Finney, Grau, Graf, Townsend and Kretzler in Trim

Nebraska's cinder path artists staged the final tryouts yesterday afternoon for the team which will make the trip the Des Moines this week. A large number of men were out to contest for the places on the various relay teams, and the competition in each event was of the keenest sort. No records were broken, however, and the men seemed content to win and save all of their surplus energy for the crucial test next Saturday. Harold McMahon, who is to enter the invitation 100-yard dash against some of the classiest sprinters of the country, did not run in any but the century run, and even there did not overdo himself, winning with a 10:2-5 time. Finney was an easy victor in the 220 dash, while Grau won in the 400-yard run making the distance in 47 seconds flat. Bryon McMahon, who is considered the best quarter miler that Nebraska has, was not out last night and will have to run against time tonight in order to qualify for that race.

In the mile the question of who will be the fourth man on the team is still somewhat a matter of conjecture. B. McMahon, Graf and Kretzler are certain of places, but what to do for the other man has been a matter that has given Coach Stewart considerable worry for the last few weeks. There are several men who are out for the place, but unless a man is able to make the mile in something better than 4:50 there is little use in sending a four mile relay team to Des Moines. Ellerbach and Davis are both showing up pretty well, and Hansen is also a possible candidate for the position, but as yet Dr. Stewart has not announced whether or not any of these men would be sent.

Freshmen Showing Up Well

The freshmen out on the track squad are making a very respectable showing this year and if they are all here for next season Nebraska should turn out a mighty good track team. Danforth, who was the star of the Omaha high school team last year, is making a nespacially good showing and if it were not for the eligibility rule which forbids the running of freshmen, he would undoubtedly make the varsity team this year.

A summary of the results of yesterday's tryouts follows:

100-yard dash. Time—20.2 seconds. H. McMahon, first; Danforth, second; Meegan, L. H. S., third; Rhodes, fourth.
220-yard dash. Time—24 seconds. Finney, first; Townsend, second; Grau, third; Schellenberg, fourth.
400-yard dash. Time—47 seconds. Grau, first; Townsend, second; Yort, third; Bryans, fourth.
1 mile run.—Time—4 minutes, 44 seconds.
Graf, first; Kretzler, second; Ellerbach, third; Davis, fourth.
