TRACK MEN TRAIN FOR KANSAS MEET

private decoration for one of his sprinting ability. Several other freshmen look promising and Lyman and Gerhart can be relied upon later to cause other valley teams some trouble in the weights and pole vault. Dr. Stewart has scheduled contests with Grinnell, Minnesota, and Iowa besides the usual Drake relays, the Missouri valley conference meet and the western conference meet in Chicago. On account of the poor track facilities here all of these events are to be away from home. This should be a further incentive to induce more candidates for the team to come out to support their alma mater. The season has not advanced enough yet but that any one who aspires in this direction can have a good chance to get into condition before the big meets later on, especially in the broad jump or high jump. Every afternoon Dr. Stewart will be on the field with the squad working out and things will soon begin to hum.

FINNEY BACK FROM FRANCE

Mike Finney, peerless hurdler of the Missouri valley last season, just back from France the day before, came out on the field during the try-outs to watch his team work. It is his team, in a way, for down in Missouri last spring after the conference meet he was elected to captain this year's team. He went into the army shortly after so Byron McMahon is now acting captain in his stead. Finney does not intend to enter school this spring, however.

HAND GRENADES

Inside Dope
"Write a story today or lose your job." So read the pleasant little note which we found waiting for us in the "Rag" office this morning. Now, all of this sort of worried us, for it would be nothing short of a tragedy to lose this fine job.

In the first place, we would be financially undone. Last semester, nearly three dollars came into our treasury, as a result of much gnashing of teeth and tearing of hair, to concoct little ditties intended to stimulate the sense of humor. With this source of income cut off, we are at a loss to know how we would ever be able to pay our many and mighty bills.

Then, too, we would lose all of the glory which is connected with working on the paper. That would be sad indeed! We could hardly get along without editors with U-boat dispositions, reminding us that the subscription list of the paper is rapidly diminishing because of our pointless stories, and in the same breath, reminding us that our next story must be finished in five minutes. Then the criticisms of our friends who do not know that we are guilty for certain stories, are indispensable to our happiness.

Taking all of these things into consideration, we decided that it behooved us to write a story, but genius refused to burn. We simply could not write a word. We resurrected all of the old Rhetoric themes which had collected during the past ages, but they were all written on such thrilling subjects as "The Proper Uses of Shall and Will," etc., and were far too radical for such a conservative paper as the "Rag" to publish. Our despair deepened as we came to realize that our moments on the staff of The Daily Nebraskan were numbered, but consolation came to us in the form of two well-known quotations. "Money is the root of all evil," and "The paths of glory lead but to the grave," so perhaps it is just as well that we are to have none of either.

Vespers
Vespers will be held Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Woman's Hall. The subject of the meeting will be "What is the Church." Several university girls will give short speeches. Genevieve Freeman will preside. There will be special music.

Le Nemo Dennis.
Emily Nystrom.
Beatrice Schenck.
Bernice Mitchell.
Verna Buchta.
Myra Bishop.
Helen Giffner.
Ruth Shekton.
Mrs. Royce.
