CORNHUSKERS LOSE

Nebraska had no entry in the broad jump and McMahon didn't run in either the 220-yard dash or the half mile relay. Coach Stewart didn't plan on entering this relay but at the urgent request of the Grinnell coach he allowed Wright, Fuchs, Gibbs and Henry to run. This new combination put up a real fight and lost by about eight feet. The absence of Ed. Smith was keenly felt and it is hoped he can get in shape in time for the three contests ahead. In case Smith is unable to make it, the coach has four fast quarter milers in Bryans, Stephens, Henry and Stromer to choose from.

Saturday the squad will go to Minnesota to see what the Gophers have in the way of track material and the following week, May 24, will participate in the Valley meet at Ames. May 31 will find the relay team at Cambridge if the campaign for funds is successful. The season will close with the Western Intercollegiate contest at Chicago, June 7.

OMAHA BOY IS COOK AT HOSTESS HOUSE ABROAD

Tecumseh, Mich. They have to go to the rail head at 8 every morning with a great truck, and stand in line with all the mess sergeants from the army of occupation—the only women in the long line waiting for provisions. A detail of Germans usually do the loading for the "lady mess sergeants" who stand by and direct. The Y. W. C. A. usually carries away about 600 pounds of meat at each visit and about 12 sacks of potatoes. From the rail head the mess sergeants go to the U. S. bakery which is on the outskirts of the city, and here the "woman's portion" is 300 loaves every day.

"The girls always stand by and check up on the number of loaves they're getting. None of the boys ever do that," was the baker's comment on these "lady mess sergeants."
