Now All together Three Cheers for 100 Reversible Leather Coats

JUST UNPACKED

They're the new reversible sort, worn by both men and women.

Gaberdine, Scotch Tweed, Iridescent and Genuine Calf Leather on the other side.

These popular coats are here in both short and long styles. They're wonderful coats for car owners; strap sleeves, and belted to keep the wind from creeping up.

Young men and women have taken a fancy to them because they take the place of a coat and are zestful styles.

We like to talk prices because they offer to any pair of eyes more real value than any other garment.

$40, $50, $60
and up to $75

WALTER BLUNK '19 SENDS LETTER FROM HARVARD

In the advanced courses he travels along at a good lively rate also, but as we have said, he hasn't mentioned anything yet that we cannot see into, at least.

"But as a whole I can see how this course is a fine continuation of our beginning at Nebraska. I like particularly their emphasis on the practical side of things. They say they do not intend it for teachers, but rather for business men. But then by seeing this college, which is supposed to be the best in the United States, I can see how far advanced the college of business is at Nebraska. It covers the field they have here in a wonderfully fine and efficient way. I will be doubly strong in recommending men to go there after this. I have yet to meet men here from other schools who have a better preparation than we. In fact, with the former instructor of accounting at Chicago, we are the only ones permitted to take these advanced courses, without first taking the principles.

"As for the east, I don't like Boston, but enjoyed my visit in New York very much. Boston is too enthusiastic about its past to progress much, but even at that, it seems to me that in many respects the west is a little more alive. This may be due to the large number of foreigners here. But I am enjoying it all very much. It affords a man an excellent opportunity to study it all."

Yours sincerely,
Walter C. Blunk,
1727 Cambridge St.,
Cambridge, Mass.
