The fresh-from-France man stood on a corner in the home town waiting for a trolley car. Beside him stood a dusky, silver chevroned doughboy, resplendent in brand new leather bar-track shoes.

The fresh-from-France man, still in his hob-nails, regarded the shoes earnestly and enviously.

"Issue?" he inquired politely.

"Huh?" replied the dark one.

"Issue?"

"Wayyamean, man? Is I wot?" — Home Sector.

A CORRECTION

Through an error, the former address of the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity appeared in the list of fraternities published in the Daily Nebraskan something ago. The correct address is 2530 Q street, and the telephone number is B1509.

When Theodore Roosevelt was police commissioner of New York he asked an applicant for a position on the force: "If you were ordered to disperse a mob what would you do?" "Pass around the hat, sir," was the reply.

During the examination at the close of school, the fourth-grade teacher asked her history class to name the five most important men of the recent war. One boy, in all seriousness, answered the question: "General Pershing, President Wilson, General Foch, my big brother Tom, and Andy Sullivan's brother Pat."

The daughter of the house was engaged in a desperate endeavor to drag conversation from the silent young man, when the pianola in the lounge began to play an air from one of Meyerbeer's operas. "Don't you love Meyerbeer?" she asked hopefully. "I have never touched intoxicants in my life," replied the young man coldly.

LE ROSSIGNOL WILL ATTEND CONFERENCE AT HARVARD COLLEGE will attend the sessions, and the fact that Nebraska will be represented will enable the college of business administration to be brought before the attention of other colleges of rank throughout the country. Dean Le Rossignol will be gone the entire week and will probably have a part on the program.

COURT DECIDES THAT PET DOG BELONGS TO DIERS

It took a discerning and scrutinizing eye to tell the difference between "Jim," the prize bull dog of Francis Diers, a university student, and the lost brother of a $1,000 pit fighter, belonging to Emmett Murphy, of Burwell.

The dog was the subject matter of a replevin suit in Justice Stevens court last week by which Murphy represented by L. B. Cummins, a Lincoln dog fancier, attempted to secure the possession of Diers' dog, which he believed belonged to his friend at Burwell. The description of the lost dog which was first furnished by Murphy fitted Diers' dog in every respect. After the action was filed Murphy sent a more detailed description of his dog to Cummins and it was then decided that "Jim" was not the missing brother of the $1,000 fighter.

Murphy's second description tallied exactly with "Jim" with but one exception. His missing pup had a small brown spot on the top of his head. The dog which Diers claimed was not so marked. Every other marking, however, was identical with that of the Murphy dog.

The replevin suit was dismissed by Justice Stevens with costs to the plaintiff.
