RALLY FOR KANSAS GAME TONIGHT

CHAPEL WILL BE SCENE OF MONSTER YELL FEST

Yesterday's Rally Was Postponed Due to Conflicting Announcements

Meeting at Seven O'clock This Evening the Last Before Syracuse Game

The simple announcement that Coach Schulte, Dr. Maxey of the Law College, Professor Cochran, Captain Dobson and Professor Scott will speak at the football rally this evening should be enough to draw a big crowd—of the "co-eds" at any rate.

The band will be there. Due to conflicting announcements as to the place and hour of meeting, the rally has been postponed until Friday evening November 14th, at 7 o'clock in the armory. Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock many "rooters" were on hand to take part in the enthusiastic yell-session, but the speakers and band, were neither of them on hand because of many incorrect reports which were circulated on the campus in regard to the time and place of the yell-fest.

This will be the last football rally until the Syracuse game. Tonight all colleges will unite in cheering for Nebraska. The committee and innocents have un-corked their best rally material, and indications point to a warning to the Jayhawks which will long be remembered by football enthusiasts and admirers of the Scarlet and the Cream.

It will be a short, snappy rally. The band will play, the cheerleaders will direct the yelling, and the speakers mentioned above will awaken the dormant "pep" of Nebraska, noticeably exhibited at the Ames game. Many of the alumni will have returned to their Alma Mater by this evening, and every Cornhusker should be there in the chapel to show them that Nebraska has as much or more football "snap" than when they were in school.

Every Cornhusker should attend this "pep-meeting" at the chapel tonight. This is absolutely essential to a victory Saturday afternoon—which in turn is absolutely necessary in order to have the requisite amount of energy displayed at the Home-coming Party Saturday evening.

FINAL FRESHMAN MEETING TO PLAN SATURDAY'S SCRAP

The freshman class will hold a final Olympics preparation meeting at 11:50 o'clock Friday morning in Law 101. Every loyal man and woman in the freshman class is expected to attend. The meeting is held at this hour so that all can come.

President Tefft and Olympics chairman Lynch will give final instructions and directions for the fight. No man or woman not a freshman is to be allowed in the meeting for secret plans which have been jealously guarded since the last freshman meeting are to be divulged.

Explicit directions as to clothing to be worn, equipment, and identification will be given. Contestants in the special events will be given adequate protection following this meeting in case of possible "rough work" on the part of the sophomores.

Every man and woman in the class should be on hand as early as possible for preliminary matters of importance will be discussed in the few minutes preceding 11:50 o'clock.

CLASSICAL CLUB MEETS FIRST TIME THIS YEAR

The Classical Club held its first large meeting of the year Wednesday evening, when new members were received. A program, "The Book of Classical Times," was enjoyed by all the guests, of which there were about forty-five. The following numbers were given:

The Kinds of Books, and How Books were Published—Helen Lewis. Transmission of Books and the Keeping of Manuscripts—Agnes Lawritson. Errors in Books—Janet Maitland. Illustrated talk on Manuscripts—Professor Rice.

After the program refreshments were served, and it was decided to hold the next meeting the second Wednesday in December.

FRIDAY and SATURDAY HELLO DAYS Everybody Says Hello

CO-EDS PLAN ANNUAL FOOTBALL LUNCHEON FOR SATURDAY NOON

University of Nebraska "co-eds" will attend en masse the ninth annual girls' football luncheon which will be given under the auspices of the W. S. G. A. at 12:15 p. m. Saturday, November 14th, at the Windsor Hotel.

The girls are going to answer the varsity's call to come out and root for Nebraska. Plates will be laid for 300 guests. True Jack will act as toastmistress and "Football" will be carried out as the theme for all the responses. Lucille Cline will sing Nebraska's rally song "The Cornhusker" and a period of yelling for the team will be led by the University cheerleaders.

Sorority houses will not serve luncheon Saturday. All remaining tickets and money should be turned in Friday at the student activities office.

STUDENT MEETING SUNDAY WILL END WEEK OF PRAYER

The week from November 9 to 16, inclusive, has been set aside by the international committee of the Y. M. C. A. as a week for prayer on behalf of the young men and young women of Canada and the United States. The objects of intercession are six in number: That churches and associations may provide intelligent and sympathetic guidance to young men and women in the period following the war; that the religious side of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. work may have complete right of way; that the international convention to be held at Detroit on November 19th to 23rd may be successful in every way; that the work of the commissions of the convention and the international committee may afford guidance and leadership for the associations during the coming year; that responsible leaders may be supplied for positions of responsibility in the work; that the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. may contribute.

O. J. FEE ADDRESSES COMMERCIAL CLUB

At one of the largest meetings of the University Commercial club since its organization, O. J. Fee, manager of the Evans Laundry, made an address which contained many practical hints for future business men. Mr. Fee was graduated from the University of Nebraska with the class of 1903.

It was one of the first large mass meetings which the club has held this year in the new social science building. This speech is the first of a series of talks which will be presented by various prominent Lincoln business men to the society during the year.

M. STREET PARK OLYMPIC SCENE

Freshman - Sophomore Annual Scrap Will Be Staged Today

Both Sides Express Utmost Confidence of Winning a Decisive Victory

Tomorrow is the big day for sophomores, freshmen and the whole school. The M Street Ball Park will be the scene of the battle. Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock the most exciting contest ever presented to the school in the way of Olympics will be staged.

Both sides express utmost confidence in their ability to secure a decisive victory. The combat this year promises to be one that will long be remembered in Olympic annals, both classes having spent weeks of training and preparation to be in fit shape to vanquish the enemy.

Both classes are holding last-minute rallies before the big scrap.

Complete arrangements have been made for the program. The events will include:

- Pole rush ..... 25 points
- Chain rush ..... 15 points
- Relay ..... 10 points
- Tug-of-war ..... 10 points
- Wrestling—
  - 135 lb. class ..... 5 points
  - 150 lb. class ..... 5 points
  - 175 lb. class ..... 5 points
  - Heavyweight class ..... 5 points

  - 150 lb. class ..... 5 points
  - 175 lb. class ..... 5 points
  - Heavyweight class ..... 5 points

100 points
The free-for-all pole-rush is the event in which the real test for supremacy will be made and bears all (Continued on Page Three)

EXTENSION COURSE FOR BOY SCOUT LEADERS

The Department of University Extension is co-operating with the Omaha local council of the Boy Scouts of America in conducting a Scout Leaders' training course. This course continues from November 11th to December 4th, and is intended to help acquaint the scout leaders of the Omaha council with various features in the training of boy scouts.

Several professors at the university are taking part in the course, which is being managed by Professor A. A. Reed head of the Extension department. Professor G. D. Sweezy will demonstrate certain matters in connection with practical astronomy. Professor C. W. Taylor will deliver a lecture on "Boy Leaders and How to Make Them," Professor R. E. Cochran will lecture on "What Boy Scouts can do for Social Unrest," and Dr. R. J. Pool will conduct a nature study hike with the boy scouts on Sunday, November 15th.

SOPHOMORES TAKE HEART AT TRYOUTS

Wealth of Good Material Uncovered Thursday Night Brightens Prospects for Saturday

Sophomore men have proved that sophomore "pep" has not been lost. This was decisively shown at the initial sophomore Olympic tryouts and "pep" meeting which was held Thursday evening a 7:30 in the Armory. One hundred men watched two of the most keenly fought boxing matches ever witnessed on the armory floor.

Immediately after the tryouts a short class meeting was held at which Chairman Lawlor and Al Cushman made short talks to the assembled second-year men, now keyed up to a fighting mood. Paynter and Carman staged a bloody boxing contest during the evening, which would have given the freshmen a shudder had they been there to watch one mighty sweep off-set another.

After two unsuccessful attempts to get sophomore men together, the Olympic committee widely advertised for amateur pugilists and boxers to represent their class in the annual battle. Applications in these particular departments had been scarce, and the committee, confident that the sophomores will be able to hold their own against the freshmen in the other events, were very anxious to strengthen their chances in boxing and wrestling.

Definite plans of action were decided upon by the class and all men were (Continued on Page Four.)

HUSKERS AND JAYHAWKERS WILL STAGE FINAL BATTLE

Saturday's Game Will Mark the End of Athletic Relations Between Nebraska and School From Sunflower State

Schulte Has Two Sets of Backfield Men in Prime Condition for Saturday's Game—Kansas Followers Express Optimism

Two sets of backfield men will be the strong point of Coach Schulte's attack on the invading Jayhawkers tomorrow. It is possible that the same quartet which defeated the Missouri Tigers will start the Kansas game but it is more probable that a mixture of the two sets will prance onto the field to clash with the Kansas. Newman, Henry, Russell, and Dale comprise the combination that fooled Missouri. If they are used and fail to repeat, Schulte will have at his disposal the old regular backfield, consisting of McGlasson, Dobson, Schellenberg, and Wright or Hubka. It does not often happen in the gridiron world that a coach has two equally strong and reliable sets of backfield artists to rely on, but such is the case with the 1919 Cornhuskers.

No matter which set is used, a powerful scoring machine is assured. In either case the Huskers will be supreme in the kicking department. Dobson and Russell can both outpunt any Kansas booter. Dale and Hubka or Wright can smash the opposing line to the satisfaction of any critic and Dobson, Schellenberg, and Henry are all brilliant end runners. In regard to the pilot position, both Newman and McGlasson are able generals and can be depended upon to direct a strategic attack.

A HUSKY KANSAS GUARD

Roland "Tiny" Ruble, 200 pound guard who has been playing a stellar game throughout the season with Coach Leon McCarty's Jayhawkers. Ruble is a brother of Mirl Ruble, who played a half position in 1917, and promises to become even a greater star than his brother. "Tiny" is being mentioned in Valley circles as a likely candidate for the all-Valley team.

AWGWANS OUT TOMORROW

The November number of Awgwan will be ready for distribution tomorrow afternoon. Get your copy, and if you haven't subscribed, do so at once.

In years gone by Nebraska has had a decided advantage over the Sunflower state in gridiron battles. Out of twenty-five skirmishes since 1890 Nebraska has been victorious in sixteen, while Kansas can claim only nine. Below are the tabulated results of previous Kansas-Nebraska games:

Year—Scores.	Nebraska	Kansas
1890—Nebraska, 0.	0	12
1893—Nebraska, 0.	0	12
1894—Nebraska, 18.	18	6
1895—Nebraska, 4.	4	8
1896—Nebraska, 4.	4	18
1897—Nebraska, 10.	10	5
1898—Nebraska, 13.	13	6
1899—Nebraska, 20.	20	36
1900—Nebraska, 12.	12	0
1901—Nebraska, 29.	29	5
1902—Nebraska, 16.	16	0
1903—Nebraska, 6.	6	9
1906—Nebraska, 6.	6	8
1907—Nebraska, 16.	16	6
1908—Nebraska, 5.	5	20
1909—Nebraska, 0.	0	6
1910—Nebraska, 6.	6	0
1911—Nebraska, 28.	28	0
1912—Nebraska, 14.	14	3
1913—Nebraska, 9.	9	0
1914—Nebraska, 35.	35	0
1915—Nebraska, 33.	33	0
1916—Nebraska, 2.	2	7
1917—Nebraska, 13.	13	3
1918—Nebraska, 20.	20	0

Total points—Nebraska, 319; Kansas, 161.
Total victories—Nebraska, 16; Kansas, 9.

The 1919 Home-Coming Day will witness the twenty-sixth battle of the Kansas-Nebraska war, a war that has covered a period of twenty-nine years. Now a truce has been declared and the two teams will no longer meet in rivalry for gridiron honors. Tomorrow will see the final clash between the Jayhawkers and the Cornhuskers. Throughout the past years these teams have been keen enemies and their annual meeting on the gridiron has been the big event of the season at both schools. The Cornhuskers will get their last crack at Kansas tomorrow and every blow must tell. The 1919 Huskers must carry the fight to a finish that will reflect glory and honor on those who fought the Jayhawks in years past. Kansas, too, realizes that this is the final engagement between the ancient enemies and is determined to finish the struggle by registering her tenth victory. The teams will be evenly matched in all respects and the outcome is awaited with interest. Cornhusker fans do not seem willing to risk their money on a team that has only chalked up one victory this season.

While Schulte has not hinted the lineup that will face the Jayhawkers when the starting whistle sounds, the following is offered as a likely choice:

- Swanson—left end.
- Lyman—left tackle.
- W. Munn—left guard.
- Day—center.
- Young—right guard.
- Wilder—right tackle.
- Dana—right end.
- Newman—quarter back.
- Schellenberg—left half back.
- Dobson—right half back.
- Dale—full back.
