Acacia entertained at its fifteenth banquet Friday night in the garden room of the Lincoln. Gold and black, the fraternity colors, were used in decoration. Ferns and carnations formed the table decorations. James B. Harvey of Omaha, acted as toastmaster. The following men were called upon to respond: Glen H. Foe, Mr. David C. Hilton, Roy V. Pepperburg, Dr. Edward Maxey, Jack Matthews, and William A. Robertson of Plattsmouth. Fraternity and university songs were sung at intervals during the evening. Charles Wiles played a solo on the xylophone accompanied by Thad Epps. The following out-of-town alumni were present: James B. Harvey, Omaha; Varro Tyler, Nebraska City; Carl Ganz, Alvo; William Robertson, Plattsmouth; Leslie Ellis, Wayne; Harold Muffley, University Place; J. A. Elwell, Springfield; James Kinsinger, Alvo; James Ferris of the Missouri chapter; and Don Elbert of the Kansas State Agricultural chapter.

Alpha Xi Delta entertained seventy-five couples at a formal party held at the Commercial Club rooms. Pink roses and pink shaded lamps formed the decorations. Chaperons were Dean Amanda Heppner, Prof. and Mrs. P. M. Buck, Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Wright and Mrs. Blakely. Out-of-town guests were Alta Kibler, Kearney; Louise Sheard, Ft. Dodge, Ia.; Jane Beechler, Omaha.

Ninety couples attended the formal party of Delta Chi at the Lincoln Hotel. Buff and red, the fraternity colors, were used in decoration. Refreshments were served in the dining room where entertainment was furnished. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hare, Aurora; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cattlin of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson, and Mrs. C. J. Clark of Fairbury. Out-of-town guests were Helen Sturges, Helen Detweiler, Katharine Newbranch, Howard Douglas, Roy Noble, J.
