

PERSONALS

Helen Doty, '19, who is teaching in the public schools of Havelock this year spent Sunday at the Delta Gamma house.

Harriet Ford, '22, is ill with an attack of influenza at the Alpha Omicron Pi house.

Ernestine Shayler, '21, will leave tomorrow for her home in Omaha, where she will spend the week-end.

Kathryn Kiefer, ex-'19, who for the last month has been visiting in Lincoln will leave some time this week for New York, where she will continue the voice lessons she has taken this year.

Helen Kirschman, '22, and Lorene Hendricks, '21, returned yesterday from Wahoo, where they had spent the week-end.

William Wright, '23, is ill with influenza at the Phi Kappa Psi house.

Jesse Wagner, '21, is ill with the grip at the Alpha Xi Delta house.

Vivian Virgin Crawford, ex-'20, of Utica, who for the last few weeks has been visiting in California is a guest of Lucile Clarke at the Delta Gamma house.

Delta Chi entertained the active and alumni members at a smoker given at the chapter house Monday night, when about fifty guests were present.

Bird Phells, of Iowa State University was a guest at the Alpha Tau Omega house for the beginning of this week.

Frances Atkins, '21, who for the last week has been ill at her home at Ravenna returned to school yesterday.

There will be reception for the Nebraska Press Association Wednesday evening at the Commercial Club. Miss Howell's Dramatic class will present a farce and music will be furnished by the University orchestra.

Society

Saturday

Delta Gamma entertained one hundred couples at a formal dancing party at the Lincoln hotel Saturday evening. The ball room was prettily decorated with ferns and palms, and floor lamps, with dark blue shades. Little baskets of cherries and whipped cream, and small cakes were served for refreshments.

Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hovland, Prof. and Mrs. Paul Grummann and Governor and Mrs. McKelvie.

Out-of-town guests were Laela Samish, Katherine Howey, and Louise Stahl, of Beatrice, and Margaret Walker of Fremont.

Eighty-five active and alumnae members of Alpha Phi attended the annual banquet held in the garden room of the Lincoln hotel Saturday evening. The rainbow colors were carried out in the decorations. Desden baskets filled with spring flower shaped pots were used on the tables. Boxes of candy tied with ribbons in the fraternity colors were given as dinner favors. The menus were of gay polo cloth cut in the form of a door, with Alpha Phi lettered in red.

Vivienne Holland O'Brien was toastmistress, the subject chosen for the toast was "The Wedding of Alpha Phi." The following responded: Ruth Johnson, "Parental Home," Annis Robbins, "Courtship," Margaret Minor, "Honeymoon," Helen Wahl, "Awakening," Genevieve Loeb, "Our House."

Out of town guests were Jane Blanchard McMonies, Ruth Thompson, Margaret Thompson Murphy, Kathleen Kinnaman, Josephine Davis, Elsa Haarman, Bety Sturdevant Nichola, Katherine Sturdevant, Mary Hailer, Marian Norris Nelson, Bernice Nelson, Katherine Newbranch, and Rita Sullivan, all of Omaha; Ruth Nichol Johnson, Fairbury; Ruth Grievish Jones, Chicago; Golden Rule Ehlers, Scribner; Helen Drake Prouty, Beatrice; Hazel Sabin, Beatrice; Myrna Henninger, Garland; Mary Eastham Westrand, Red Oak, Iowa; Florence Bishop, Central City. The fourth annual edition of the "Alpha Flea Scratch," tied with the colors of Alpha Phi, were at each place.

Phi Kappa Psi entertained at its annual Founders' Day Banquet Saturday evening at the chapter house. About sixty alumni and active mem-

—"QUALITY IS ECONOMY"—
Featuring Fashions For YOUNG MEN

The young man who prefers, and most young men do, styles that are a perfect blend of novelty and refinement has long since learned the special competency of this store.

Our Style experts; HART SCHAFFNER & MARX; are men of keen insight, quick to perceive and understand original ideas that embody good taste.

New Spring Suits

Quite a number of men's spring suits have arrived—The models are a little different—the coats are a trifle longer—fitting closely at the waist—either double or single breasted.

We will be mighty glad to show them to you.

ARMSTRONG CLOTHING COMPANY

Nebraska's Largest Exclusive Men's and Boy's Store

bers were present. Clark H. Oberlies, '95, acted as toastmaster, and called for toasts from the following: W. A. Selleck, '82, J. J. Ledwith, '07, Perry W. Branch, '16, Earl L. Coryell, '18, and Harlan V. Boyer, '20.

Delta Upsilon entertained thirty-five couples at a house dance Saturday evening. Blue and gold, the fraternity colors were used in the decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Holland, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Waugh acted as chaperons. Charles Corb of West Point was an out-of-town guest.

The alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta met at the Lincoln hotel for luncheon Saturday at 1 o'clock. Luncheon was served in the English room. The table decorations were in red, white and blue with red nut cups and colonial place cards. An out of town guest was Miss Ruth Irwin who is a teacher in the Omaha public schools.

Miss Helen Dayton entertained sixteen guests at luncheon Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The decorations for the table were in red and white. Red tulips formed the centerpiece and colonial place cards were used in honor of George Washington's birthday. The guest of honor was Miss Dorothy Eason of Watertown, New York. The afternoon was spent informally.

Riggs-Williams Wedding

Joy Alma Riggs and Jay Irving Williams, former university students, were married at eleven o'clock last Tuesday at Raymond. After a short wedding trip to the western part of the state they will make their home in this city.

Sunday

Theta Sigma Phi entertained at dinner at the Lincoln hotel at 5:30 Sunday evening, in honor of its initiates. A centerpiece of violets in a crystal bowl was used for the table, together with green candles in crystal sticks tied with lavender tulle, which was at each place. Each initiate was requested to read the assignment that she has been requested to prepare. The initiates are as follows: Katherine Brenke, Dorothy Barkley, Eleanor Hinman, Marian Mote, Jessie Watson, and two honorary members, Miss Sarah Muir, and Miss Amy Armstrong.

During the Week

Mu Phi Epsilon, national honorary musical sorority, entertained at a series of parties the past week.

Wednesday afternoon a Japanese fete was held at the chapter house. The rooms were cleverly decorated with Japanese lanterns and parasols. Miss Vera Upton dressed in costume, sang a group of Japanese songs, accompanied by Miss Mabel Klaus. Refreshments were served during the afternoon by girls dressed as Japanese. Small fans and parasols were given to the guests as favors.

Friday evening the sorority members entertained at an Indian party. Indian relics from the collection of Thulow Lieurance were used in the decoration of the house. A group of his songs were sung by Mrs. Emma Wissler, accompanied by Miss Helen Cherney, pianist, and Miss Faye Stevens violinist. Miss Stevens also played a violin solo by the same composer. Name favors were given to the guests. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening and were carried out in the color motif of purple and white, the sorority colors.

Saturday afternoon, at the home of Miss Grace Pierce, 3246 S street, the sorority gave a colonial dansant. The decorations throughout the house were in keeping with George Washington's birthday. The grand march was led by Misses Dorothy Fleeth and Mildred Schwake dressed as Martha and George Washington. During the afternoon they favored the guests with an interpretation of the minuet, and of the dancing doll. Miss Mary Frances McReynolds met the guests at the door. Punch and wafers were served.

Mrs. Adrian Newens, Mrs. H. O. Ferguson, Mrs. Homer Compton, and Mrs. Stevens, house mother, acted as chaperons.

KOMO KOAL

And others:

Rock Springs
Maitland
Lehigh (hard)
Now on hand

WHITEBREAST COAL
AND LUMBER CO.
107 No. 11th St.

COLONIAL

Tuesday to Thursday

"BACK TO GOD'S COUNTRY"

SEE IT!

Shows at—1, 3, 5, 7 and 9

Opheum

2:20—Wed, Thur, Fri, Sat.—8:20

GUS EDWARDS

(Himself)
Supported by Vincent O'Donnell
(The Kid McCormack) and Alice
and Hazel Furness

JAMES DUTTON AND CO.

BILLY McDERMOTT

TRAVERS & DOUGLAS

HUDLER, STEIN & PHILLIPS

BLACK AND O'DONNELL

ARNAUT BROTHERS

Kinograms—Topics of the Day

Mat. 25c & 50c; Eve. 25c to 75c

RIALTO

MON, TUES, AND WED.

Norma Talmadge

A rollicking comedy-drama with Normal Talmadge in the most pleasing role of her career.

"SHE LOVES AND LIES"

Pathe's World News—Christie
Comedy—Pathe Review—
"Topics of the Day"

FLAVIA WATERS AND GIRLS

RIALTO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Jean L. Schaefer, Conductor
Shows Start at—1, 3, 5, 7 and 9
Mat.—20c; Night—30c

LYRIC

One Week Starting Monday

Matinee

THOS. H. INCE

Presents

ROBERT BOSWORTH

In

"BEHIND THE DOOR"

Extra Attraction

"THE EXPLOITS OF THE GERMAN SUBMARINE U-35"

THE PEERLESS TRIO

Vocal and Instrumental Entertainers

Prof. Arnold's Lyric Orchestra

Shows Start at—1, 3, 5, 7, and 9
Mats.—20c; Night—30c

University

Fraternity

Sorority

Society

Club

Pins

HALLETT

Uni Jeweler
Estab. 1871 1143 O St.