Do You Know What W. S. G. A. Is Doing For University Women?

Many are the queries raised as to the meaning of the very prominent letters "W. S. G. A." These terms are more familiar to the women than to the men, for this organization, the Womens Self-Government Association, is composed of some thousand "co-eds" whose duty it is to uphold the rights and welfare of the university women. The officers are:

True Jack President
Fae Breese Vice-President
Mary Brownell Secretary
Katherine Willis Treasurer
Board Members: Helen Fischer, Helen Giltner, Martha Hellner, Ruth Lindsay, Marjory Barstow, Florence Wilcox, Lois Melton, Mary Sheldon and Elizabeth Scribner.

The business of the W. S. G. A., an outgrowth of the girls' club, is carried on by the W. S. G. A. council, which is composed of members from each sorority and rooming house, as well as the presidents of all the girls' organizations in the university. The organization is sort of a senate and executive combined. It makes and enforces the laws by which the university society is governed. The W.

S. G. A. devises the house rules for all university girls. A discipline council is composed of the officers and three members from the W. S. G. A. council.

The W. S. G. A. is giving a grand piano to the Woman's hall, 14th and R streets. Many of the pictures which hang upon the walls came from this association and a tax has been levied upon the members for this.

The W. S. G. A. has legislated for their landladies, requiring them to provide a parlor, properly lighted and heated on Friday, Saturday and Sunday or two of these evenings, until 10:30. In all houses in which women reside there is a proctor who is chairman of the house committee which regulates all house entertaining and social engagements. The member of the house who is the W. S. G. A. member is this proctor.

The responsibility for the many other rules and regulations which are enforced at the university can be placed with the W. S. G. A. These legislative measures and the regulations concerning the women's athletics give the "co-eds" of Nebraska a chance to show their qualifications as voters and lawmakers.

GRACE COPPOCK HERE NEXT WEEK

General Y. W. C. A. Secretary in China to Continue Social Enterprise Launched in 1907.

The nineteen hundred dollars which the university Y. W. C. A. plans to raise next week to support Grace Coppock, an alumna of this university, who is the general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. in China, will help continue a social enterprise which was launched in 1907 when the Y. W. C. A. was organized in China.

In this work the value of physical health receives full recognition. An article in "The Widening Circle," a magazine devoted to the Y. W. C. A. in China, reads as follows:

"Peking and Tientsin members have half-day schools for poor children where teaching is done by volunteers, and cleanliness, aided by soap and new garments, is one of the chief studies. Canton Association women are trying to rectify conditions as well as to teach Christianity in the women's prisons.

"Shanghai hopes to make an annual affair of its Social Service Institute. A class in home nursing and hygiene, and lectures on the opium problem. (Continued on page 3)

SHANTUNG PROBLEM TO BE AIRED AT FORUM

Henry Chung, '17, Author of Books on Oriental and Korean Questions, Will Speak.

Henry Chung, '17, will speak at the Forum this afternoon at five o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. room on the subject "The Shantung Problem." He was appointed a representative of Korea to the peace conference and in addition has published two books, one on Korea treaties and one on the Oriental policies of the United States, both of which receive the highest praise from critics in this country.

In the university Mr. Chung was considered an exceptionally brilliant student. He received his masters' degree from this university in 1917 and was appointed to a fellowship in the department of economics at Northwestern University. Mr. Chung recently addressed the Commonwealth Club of San Francisco, the most influential club of the city which has been addressed by such men as Secretary Daniels, Ex-President Taft, Sir Edward Grey, and Theodore Roosevelt, Junior.

PICTURES WILL FEATURE ANNUAL

New Year-Book to Contain Photographs of Fraternity Houses and Crests in Colors.

The 1920 Cornhusker is to be larger than ever before. On account of the university returning to its pre-war basis and the adding of new organizations and activities this past year, the Cornhusker has been enlarged, until it now is a volume of over five hundred pages.

This year's Cornhusker will contain pictures of more than ninety-five per cent of the entire student body. Every organization on the campus has responded to the Cornhusker call and their pictures will appear in the 1920 Annual.

The new features of the fraternity and sorority sections are pictures of the fraternity houses and the fraternity crests run in colors.

Photographs of each fraternity and sorority house were taken by a commercial photographer with a grafex camera and the cuts are unusually clear and distinct. The best views possible were obtained of each house. These cuts were vignettted by the engraver, and although this process doubles the cost of the cuts, still the improvement brought about by this process was more than worth the increased cost. The printer and engraver have consented to work out the fraternity crests in a novel color scheme, which will make this section very attractive.

ELLSWORTH WAS PERSONAL FRIEND OF ROOSEVELT

William W. Ellsworth who will give his famous lecture on "Theodore Roosevelt, American" for the Lincoln Lecture League, on Thursday, February 26, at the First Christian church, was connected with the Century Company, publishers, for nearly forty years and as such was a personal friend of Mr. Roosevelt, closely associated with him during the publication of his earlier books, "Ranch Life and the Hunting Trail," "The Strenuous Life," etc. This lecture, however, is a good deal more than a friend's recollection. It is the complete story of Mr. Roosevelt's life, from his boyhood in New York to the end at Sycamore Hill—illustrated by the stereopticon with the most interesting collection of pictures ever made in connection with the subject. All of the publishers of Mr. Roosevelt's books helped Mr. Ellsworth in his search for material. The reproductions of Frederick Remington's fine illustrations for "Ranch Life" is one of the most interesting features of the lecture.

BASKETBALL SEASON IS SUCCESS FINANCIALLY

Expenditures Total $3,000 and Department Has Taken in $2,900 to Date.

According to announcement made by the athletic department yesterday, basketball will be a financial success at Nebraska for the first time in the history of the school. This is quite remarkable, considering the fact that the 1920 schedule is the most expensive that has ever been attempted by the Cornhusker school.

Coach Schissler estimates the expenses of the season at $3000.00. Of this amount, $2500.00 was for guarantees and $500.00 for equipment. Up to date something over $2900.00 has been taken in by the department. This includes guarantees and gate receipts. With two more games to be played at home during the week of the state high school tournament the total can easily be swelled over the $3000.00 mark. In previous years the basketball budget has never exceeded $850.00, and never before has Nebraska faced the class of teams she has met this year. The 1920 basketball season is a great success, financially and every other way.

HUSKERS CRUSH MAROONS 50-12

Nebraska Fighters Shoot Field Goals at Will While Sioux Boys Gasp With Fear.

PATTY MADE 12 POINTS

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Feb. 25.—(Special to Nebraskan).—Schissler's victorious Huskers piled up fifty points to Morningside's dozen yesterday afternoon, and literally smothered the Maroons in an avalanche of pretty field goals at the end of a series of fast passes.

Time after time, the Ponies would take the ball at the tip-off and run their plays through to the goal without a hitch. Although Morningside led 3 to 0 for five minutes, they were helpless over the Nebraska machine when it began its strategic teamwork. The floor work of the entire Nebraska team was again the feature of the game. Nicholson starred for Morningside.

INTER-FRAT BOWLING ENTRIES

All fraternities who wish to enter the inter-Greek bowling tournament, file with Secretary, Farley Young of the Inter-fraternity Athletic Association at once.

INTER-GREEKS FINISH FIRST TOURNEY ROUND

Yesterday's Victors Were Delta Tau Delta, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Alpha Sigma Phi and Phi Kappa Psi.

Yesterday's play in the inter-fraternity tourney completed the first round. Only eight teams are now left in the running and they will battle tomorrow, the winners entering the semi-finals. The five victorious so far are: Phi Delta Theta, Beta Theta Pi, Delta Upsilon, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Delta Tau Delta, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Alpha Sigma Phi and Phi Kappa Psi.

Delta Tau Delta defeated Kappa Sigma in a fast and furious battle. Practically no personal fouls were called by Referee Jackson and both teams ran wild. At the end of the first half the Deltas were leading 8-5. Another spurt in the final period put the Kappa Sigs out of the running and the Deltas won 28-11. Haverly and Weinkoop starred for the victors. Albrecht and Warren were the chief scorers for the losers.

The Sig Eps had little difficulty in defeating Silver Lynx to the tune of 29-11. They rolled up twenty points in the first half of the game while Silver Lynx could account for but three. Carmer was the shining light of the game, making twenty-one of his team's score. McDonald registered seven points for the Silver Lynx. Fred Dale was removed from the game by Referee Riddell.
