team will stop off in Lincoln for that day on its way to the Atlantic Coast, according to Provost Lees. This will furnish a long desired opportunity for an exciting game with the Huskers.

Later in the afternoon students, faculty and alumni will make the customary expedition to Capital Beach. Then will come the tapping of the Innocents, and the masquing of the Black Masques.

Harold Gerhart is chairman of the general Senior committee for Ivy Day. Hans P. Gravengaard, of Marquette, will deliver the Ivy Day oration.

The Ivy Day Committee for the Senior Class includes the following members: Helen Giltner, Ruth Wilson, Ralph Brehm, Harold Lewis, Alice Sedgwick, Herbert Gustafson, and Margaret Perry.

Thursday's Committee meeting to make definite Ivy Day plans was postponed until Tuesday morning, March 23, at eleven o'clock in University Hall 206.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Berlin, March 20.—Germany yielded to an agreement which includes a formation of new labor with the workmen represented. This ends the strike but many believe that it signifies the weakening of leaders and government.

Lincoln, March 20.—Governor McKelvie, with several other gubernatorial candidates, have agreed among themselves to elect some one of their group to run the race and the remainder of them to withdraw. As yet they have not decided who shall do the running. Another conference is scheduled for next Wednesday and all aspirants hold high hopes of gaining the place.
