STATE FARM WILL HAVE NEW WATER SUPPLY SOON

The construction of a new water supply for the State Farm is rapidly progressing and the work is almost finished. A 40 horse-power electric motor will be installed, which will be directly connected with a two-stage centrifugal pump. It is expected that this will furnish 40 to 500 gallons a minute under a 160 foot head. This machinery is expected at any time, as it has been ordered for several months past.

TIMELY TALKS FEATURE VOCATIONAL MEETINGS

Speakers Lecture on Varied Subjects in Wednesday's Guidance Program.

Addresses on vocational subjects to groups of students from the various colleges were given by special speakers Wednesday. Dr. Kurtz, one of the "After College—What?" speakers, made his last speech at a meeting in the Temple Theatre Tuesday evening. Miss Mary Corbett spoke both there and at Vespers Tuesday and at a special Freshman convocation Wednesday.

Judge Dean, of the State Supreme Court, lectured to the Law students on "The Lawyer in the New Order." He pointed to the unrest of the present time and urged the Law students to prepare to meet it. The lawyer as an individual, he said, is more powerful than the organization of which he is a part.

Hervey F. Smith, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A., told a group of College of Agriculture students of the vocational opportunities in the Y. M. C. A. He stressed the need of rural secretaries of the Y. M. C. A.

The students of the College of Business Administration were addressed.

SENIOR PLAY SET FOR IVY DAY EVE

"If I Were King" to Be Presented May 18 in High School Auditorium.

Try-Outs for Twenty-Nine Characters Held Tonight in Temple.

"If I Were King," chosen for the Senior play for the class of 1920, will be presented at the High School auditorium on the evening of May 18, the night before Ivy Day and the Senior festivities.

The High School stage was second choice only to the Orpheum which it was impossible to obtain on any date that could be used under present University rulings. The seating capacity of the theatre there is great enough to accommodate all of the University, who care to see the Senior production, and the people of Lincoln and visiting alumni and friends as well.

Work on the necessary scenery to stage the production, which has elaborate settings and several scenic effects, has already begun. Special scenery will be made where necessary and altered to fit the demands of the play. The High School stage is very wide and high, although shallow, and consequently offers excellent opportunity for the staging of the out-door acts.

FRESHMAN INJURED IN MOTORCYCLE ACCIDENT

Willis Barnes, '23 of Tecumseh, received painful injuries about the head and face shortly after noon Wednesday, when the motorcycle which he was riding got caught in the street car track at the corner of Sixteenth and K streets and threw him to the pavement.

A street car was bearing down upon him and in an effort to get out of the way, the wheels of his machine got stuck in the groove along the track and lost its equilibrium, hurling machine and rider to the street.

The street car stopped in time to avoid hitting the student.

The accident happened in front of the A. T. O. house of which fraternity Barnes is a member. The injured man was rushed to the Lincoln Sanitarium, but his condition is not reported serious.

SORORITY LAMPS PAY VISIT TO FRAT ROW

Early morning prowlers are again in evidence along Fraternity Row. Sorority piano lamps are again wandering aimlessly down Lincoln streets and depositing themselves on fraternity piazzas. Not content with carrying these luxurious furnishings to nearby fraternity abodes, the marauders and "riders of the morning" have smashed the lamp globes to bits, and have dragged cord and wall-plug in the dirt until they are almost beyond identification.

These kindergarten methods are producing many hearty laughs among the more-serious minded students at the University. There are many good arguments for and against these acts of rowdiness. It is, of course, conceded that sorority houses should not be entered in the wee hours of the morning and ransacked. But on the other hand, it has been suggested that sorority houses should keep their front doors locked during the night, and up until morning, at least.

CORNELL "WIDOW" GETS LOVING CUP

Ithaca Publication Receives 123 Points in Judge College Wits Contest.

AWGWAN SCORES 9 MARKERS

The Cornell "Widow," published by the students at Cornell University at Ithaca, N. Y., copped the silver loving cup for the best collection of contributions to the College Wits Contest Number of Judge, published March 13, with 123 points to spare over her nearest competitor, the Columbia "Jester" which finished with 58 points.

The Pennsylvania "Punch Bowl," perpetrated at Pennsylvania University, followed in third place with 50 points; the Michigan "Cargyle" came next with 47; the Dartmouth "Jack 'O Lantern" in fifth place with 33 markers, and the Princeton "Tiger" was sixth with 32 points.

The Nebraska "Awgwan" trailed somewhere in the wake of the leaders with 9 points to its credit, but there were twenty-five or more other magazines that got a good view of the "Awgwan's" back in the race.

Charles Baskerville, art editor of the Cornell "Widow," carried off the individual trophy for submitting the best drawing. His cover design, entitled, "Bosom Friends," gave the professional artists on the Judge staff "an awful shock" according to their

DELTA TAU AND ACACIA BOWLERS WIN WEDNESDAY

Inter-Greek Tourny Games Marked by Low Scores—Interest Increases.

The Delta Tau's and the Acacia's battled their way into the second round of the Inter-Fraternity bowling tournament by defeating the Delta Chi's and Phi Delt's respectively, by overwhelming scores.

The Delta Chi's were no match for the Delt's and were defeated by 188 pins. Munger was high man for the Delt's, turning in a 486, while Carpenter of the Delta Chi's rolled the high game of the day, knocking off 529 pins.

Acacia drubbed the Phi Delt's to the tune of 208 counters. Garey was high man for Acacia with 514. Seymour rolled 435 for the Phi Delt's. Acacia started off with a lead in the first contest and were never headed.

WESLEYAN OPENS BASEBALL GAMES

Diamond Practice Assuming More Business-Like Aspect—Candidates Number Forty.

Eight Hurlers Show Marked Ability in Pitching Box.

With the first game but three weeks distant, baseball in the Cornhusker camp is assuming a more business-like aspect and the squad is settling down to the task of grinding out a well-trained nine that can emerge successfully from a season of stiff games. On April 16 and 17 the Huskers meet their first opponents when they cross bats with the Nebraska Wesleyan team at the M street park. The Methodists have attained the reputation of always turning out an excellent diamond squad and the first battles of the season will give the Huskers a real test.

The Varsity squad has now simmered down to about forty candidates. Of these forty, only one is a letter man. The task of building a strong team when the lack of veterans is so evident is indeed difficult. The one strong department of the Husker outfit will be the pitching staff. At present Coach Schissler has about eight hurlers all of whom show ability. Among these are Pickett, the only "N" man on the squad, Kline, Peterson, Smith, Williams, McCrory and Lamb. Several of these are experienced pitchers and will no doubt help greatly in defending the Scarlet and Cream. In the catching department Schissler has at his disposal Hubka, Smith, Cerny and Swanson.

The squad includes a large number of infielders from which Schissler will no doubt be able to select an air-tight Varsity infield. Some of the shining lights now playing at infield positions are: Lynn, Bailey, Russell, Howarth, Swanson, Graves, Bekins, Williams, Higgins, Smith, Reavis and Ernst. Among these are several who have had considerable baseball experience and are capable of stacking up against the best material in the Missouri Valley. In the outfield there is plenty of material. Wythers, Crandall, Hubka, Norton, Hopkins, Pickett, McCrory and others can all qualify for garden positions.

Coach Schissler has recently closed negotiations whereby the Huskers will make a four-game invasion of Oklahoma. On April 21 and 22 they will clash with the Sooners at Norman and then journey to Stillwater for a brace of games with Oklahoma A. & M. School on April 23 and 24.

Y. W. C. A. NOMINEES ANNOUNCED WEDNESDAY

Election to Be Held Friday—Florence Wilcox and Ada Stidworthy for President.

Election of Y. W. C. A. officers will be held Friday, March 26, from 9:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m., in the Library. All members of the University Y. W. C. A. are eligible to vote.

This open election marks the inauguration of a more democratic control of the University Y. W. C. A. Before this the officers have been chosen by a nominating committee from candidates nominated by a free ballot. But several weeks ago the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, relying upon the interest of the members, decided to hold a public election. Two nominees have been named for each office by the committee, to be voted upon Friday. The nominees are:

President: Ada Stidworthy, Florence Wilcox.
Vice-President: Fae Curry, Hattie Hepperly.
Secretary: Olive Hartley, Grace Lufkin.
Treasurer: Marian Mote, Janet Maitland.
Undergraduate Field Representative: Grace Stuff, Mary Sheldon.
