Delta Gamma

Kappa chapter of Delta Gamma held its annual banquet in the Garden room of the Lincoln Hotel. One hundred members of the fraternity were present. The decorations skillfully arranged gave an effect of Egypt by using throughout the color scheme of burnt orange and sepi brown. At one end of the room were three Egyptian palms. The long tables were decorated with crystal candle sticks with shades of brown parchment on which were painted copies of Egyptian drawings and hieroglyphics. Square flower boxes of parchment corresponding to the candle-shades, holding gold and orange California poppies were placed between the candles. Place cards, represented Egyptian dancing girls and miniature jewel caskets were placed at each cover. Between two of the courses the annual paper, Delta Slammer, was distributed. Marian Watkins, as toastmistress, called upon the following toasts:

- "Sand".....Nelle Cochran Woods
 - "Hieroglyphics".....Dorothy Wright
 - "The Sphinx".....Frances Colton
 - "Cleopatra".....Sara Schwab Deutsch
 - "Pyramids".....Sadie E. Finch
