FARMERS' FAIR TO BE A HUMMER

Annual Carnival Full of Spice and Surprises—Big Event of Year.

FEATURES LARGE PARADE

Parade Half Mile Long Will
Initiate Activities at 11 O'clock.

The Farmers' Fair will start at 11 a. m. tomorrow. The parade will leave the Farm campus at that time and will pass from 26th and O streets west to 9th, then north to P street, east to 11th, north to R, and east to 17th, terminating at the Farm. The parade will be over half a mile in length and will be led by the University Cadet Band.

Clowns, a pushmobile, a mulemobile and the much talked of "motorized baby carriage," which has been seen only by those in the "Ag" College, and then only upon the promise of strictest secrecy, will add spice and variety to the parade. "The Striker," combating the high cost of clothing, will present his argument before the crowds in an interesting manner. "Different ways of going through college," "How our fathers came to Nebraska," and several others will be especially interesting floats.

The grounds will open at 12:30 and all the shows will be in operation. There are twenty-five sideshows—all of the very latest in freakish stunts and the best that science can produce. Shooting galleries, doll stands, roulette wheels, and up-to-date gambling devices will be there.

The "Yellow Dog Saloon," under the management of Byron McMahon, will offer a choice of rare drinks with some real kick.

The "Scorpium" with real snappy vaudeville will be a good place to drop in while you are resting. A special Hawaiian dance and character songs will be features of this show.

The Home Economics Club has a Japanese tea garden where refreshments will be served and music and dancing will be enjoyed. Fair Gypsy maidens will tell your past and future. Three dance halls will be in operation in the Horse Barn. The floors are good and the music will be snappy.

A steer riding contest, a mounted potato race, a greased pig contest, and various other entertainments will be staged in the afternoon.

Admission to the sideshows and dances will be five cents. The Scorpium, the highest class entertainment, will cost fifteen cents.

ARGUMENTATIVE CLINIC INSTITUTED

Class Criticises Speeches of Presidential Aspirants.

A new kind of laboratory work—a "clinic" in applied logic was running at the University during the primary campaign in connection with English 12. Professor Fogg's course in argumentative composition. The students were sent to the auditorium to study the workmanship of political arguers. They studied in particular the work of Senator Hiram Johnson and of Senator Gilbert Hitchcock, and submitted written criticisms of them—of their use of the arguments of generalization, resemblance and causal relationship; of fallacies, if any; and of the effectiveness of persuasive appeals and of hetorical style. These reports were read in class and subjected to criticism by the instructor and other students.

PROFESSOR FOGG JUDGES DEBATE

Professor Fogg was called to Burke, South Dakota, Thursday evening, to act as sole judge of the final debate in the South Dakota High School Debating League. He will return Saturday evening. Several weeks ago he was in South Dakota to serve as sole judge of the Gregory-Burke debate at Gregory and to speak of training through argumentative discourse.

RECEPTION FOR SENIOR GIRLS MAY 24

Dean Heppner Will Entertain Fourth Year Students Saturday.

Invitations have been sent out by Dean Heppner to all Senior girls to attend a reception in Woman's Hall from two to six Saturday afternoon, April 24. A few faculty members who have been associated with the Senior girls for the past four years have been invited. A program beginning at three-thirty will be given by the organizations of Silver Serpent, Xi Delta and Mystic Fish. The nature of the program has not been disclosed, but it promises to be a surprise. In case any Senior girl fails to receive an invitation, she is urged to attend anyway.

CO-ED FEATURE ISSUE MAKES BOW TO CAMPUS

The April number of the Awgwan is out, and it's a good one—the co-ed feature number. The cover of orange and dull blue, was designed by Mildred McFarland, '20, and represents a modish co-ed perusing the pages of the Awgwan—as all good co-eds should!

In this number, Old Man Awgwan offers for the approval of his many readers a larger number of cartoons than usual. Several newly-discovered artists make their bow to collegiate world in this issue.

On the editorial page of this number appear four well directed articles and a nineteen twenty toast to Husker co-eds. Gayle Vincent Grub has written a poem dealing with masculine perplexity at the intricacies of feminine personality and a heart-rending account of the struggles of "Leander or the Alfalfa Warbler." These, and many jokes, limericks, and dissertations on subjects of interest such as "Her First Formal" and "Some Members of Any Senior Class" make the April Awgwan one of the best of the year.

NEBRASKA LOSES GAME IN SOUTH

Huskers Drop First Baseball
Tilt to Oklahoma Sooners
by Score of 7-2.

PICKETT FANS SIXTEEN

NORMAN, Okla., April 22.—The Nebraska Cornhusker inaugurated their Oklahoma tour yesterday by dropping a baseball game to the University of Oklahoma. The score was 7 to 2. Although Captain Pickett fanned sixteen Oklahoma batters and the Cornhuskers had a substantial margin in the base hit column, Nebraska errors at critical moments made the victory comparatively easy for the Sooner club. The Oklahoma infield played brilliant baseball, executing two double plays and fielding perfectly in every pinch.

The Cornhuskers scored their two runs in the first inning on clean hitting. Bailey, the Nebraska shortstop, hit the ball in the opening frame for a home run, but was called out for failing to touch second base. Bailey, Bekins, McCrory, Graves and Pickett each pounded the ball for two hits.

PRE-MEDICS WILL VISIT OMAHA TODAY

Embryo Physicians to Make Trip of Inspection at Metropolis.

The annual trip to the Omaha Medical College by the University pre-medics will be made today. Dean Lyman will chaperone the party. At least a hundred students are expected to go.

Pre-med day, as this annual event is called, was established when the four year course was transferred to Omaha. The medical training is divided up in two years preparatory work here on this campus, and four years in Omaha. Two years are given to laboratory and two years to clinic work, in the Omaha school.

The program, this year, has many interesting features for the pre-medics. At eight o'clock in the morning they will visit the laboratories, at 10:30 they will go to the clinic, Luncheon will be had at the school. In the afternoon the visitors will be initiated into their first real knowledge of the medical world by practical observation of the clinic work. In the evening the annual banquet given by the University Club will be held.

A real benefit is derived by the students for it gives to the two divided groups a spirit of unity. This year the University has only eleven pre-medical girls. One girl is preparing for surgery, another is studying diseases of the eye, three are preparing for foreign field work, and the other six are specializing in diseases of children. The pre-medics have put out the "Pulse" this year. It has been published heretofore only on the Omaha campus.

OMAHA STUDENTS FORM CLUB THURSDAY NIGHT

Over two hundred enthusiastic Omaha students met in the Auditorium of Social Science Hall yesterday evening at seven o'clock to form the Omaha Club for the purpose of promoting a closer bond of friendship between Omaha students and furthering the interests of the University in Omaha. Chancellor Avery, Professor Cochran, and Miss Hunter gave brief talks, as well as representatives of the five Omaha High Schools. Ruth and Ruby Swenson furnished the "pep" and led in some yelling. A male quartette, consisting of James Collier, Floyd Paynter, Eugene Maxwell and Charles Samuelson, and a ladies' quartette, consisting of Gwendolyn McCoy, Francis Anderson, Zoe Schalek and Pauline Starrett furnished the harmony. Officers elected for this year were: Jesse Patty, president; Dorothy Hipple, vice-president; Ray Stryker, secretary and Harry Latowsky, treasurer.

Will Vote Monday and Tuesday in Library Entrance.

Senior girls will vote for the May Queen of 1920 Monday and Tuesday, April 26 and 27, in the entrance of the Library. The election will be conducted under the supervision of the Black Masques. A table will be placed in the Library and the name of each voter will be stricken from May Queen will be crowned on Ivy the list as she casts her ballot. The Day, which comes on May 19 this year. It is hoped that every Senior girl will vote in order that the choice of Queen be representative of the class as a whole.

DECIDE TO CANCEL OMAHA EXCURSION

Alumni in Metropolis Too Busy
Preparing Drive for Memorial Stadium.

Omaha day of the University of Nebraska, planned or May 7, has been abandoned this year by the Bureau of Publicity of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, because the Omaha alumni of the University of Nebraska are engaged on plans for a drive for a memorial stadium. The decision of the Bureau has been approved by Chancellor Avery.

"The success of the day depends on the co-operation of the University of Nebraska alumni in Omaha," said Harvey Milliken, chairman of the Bureau of Publicity. "We did not feel free to ask them to devote their time to Omaha day this year because they are already giving all their spare moments to planning for the memorial stadium drive."

Chancellor Avery writes: "We receive the suggestion of abandoning our day in Omaha with a spirit of regret on account of the attractive features of the day and the fine entertainment afforded us in Omaha. On the other hand, it is exceedingly difficult to do all the things that we wish to do. The end of the school year is extremely crowded. The Omaha alumni is lining up for the memorial proposition and it seems to me that the Bureau of Publicity has taken a wise view. Life is so short and there are so many things that we are called upon to do that it is constantly a question of deciding which one of the large number of desirable things should take precedence. I hope that the abandoning of the day for this year will not cause any lessening of the interest which we feel for Omaha and which Omaha feels for the University."

The announcement of the cancellation of this year's trip comes as a surprise to many students who have been making plans to visit the Gate city. It is hoped that the trip will be resumed next year.

ADMIT ACHOTH SORORITY TO PAN-HELLENIC UNION

Achoth sorority was unanimously elected to membership in the local Pan-Hellenic Union at a meeting of the Pan-Hellenic Council Thursday. Informal talks were given by the two guests, Miss Sarah Blue, extension secretary and installing inspector of Kappa Delta, and Miss Marie Carson, district visiting delegate of Pi Beta Phi.

Fifteen sororities are now in the local Pan-Hellenic Union. All the other chapters of Achoth were already affiliated with the Pan-Hellenic organizations of their localities. In order to be taken into the national organization, it was necessary that each chapter belong to a local Pan-Hellenic Union.

Miss Blue, the representative of Kappa Delta, a chapter of which was recently installed here, spoke of the higher things that Greek letter fraternities stand for. She said that frequently the public hears nothing of the fraternity's efforts to encourage good scholarship and the school activities that are worth while, but reads about each detail of social life.

TO RAISE $800 FOR RELAY TEAM

Students Will Finance Eastern
Trip—Tag Day Next Week.

HAVE OLYMPIC MATERIAL

McMahon and Owens Out of Meet at Des Moines
Saturday.

Eight hundred dollars will be raised by popular subscription next Monday and Tuesday in order to defray expenses of the Husker relay team to the Pennsylvania meet. The athletic treasury at the present time does not warrant the expenditure of such a sum.

A tag system has been arranged by members of the Innocents and Viking societies who will inaugurate the drive on the campus. The minimum subscription is fifty cents. A call is sounded for the presidents of the following organizations to meet at the Cornhusker office Friday noon to discuss arrangements for waging the financial campaign.

Ready for Drake

In preparation for the Drake relay meet, which is to be run off at Des Moines next Saturday, April 24, Coach Schulte is putting his track men under strenuous workouts and the material is rounding into a promising looking crop of runners. Although two stars, Captain McMahon and Owens, are on the sick list, some good time is being made considering the fact that as yet the men have not been able to extend themselves on a fair track.

At both competitive tryouts the track has been very heavy and slow time has been the result. The time on paper looked good but when the condition of the field is taken into consideration it can be seen that the men would have made a much better showing had they been tried out on a dry and hard track. Coach Schulte is looking for better time and a better showing by each man during the coming meet than has been shown as yet on the Husker home yard providing the track is in condition and weather conditions favorable to a good field day.

Coach Schulte is sending three teams to Des Moines and they are expected to make a creditable showing for Nebraska. Were Captain McMahon and Owens in the lineup Nebraska would have three of the fastest teams in America, entered in the meet next Saturday. McMahon is laid up with a bad ankle and Owens (Continued on Page Four)

THETA SIGMA PHI TO GIVE BALL

University Journalistic Girls Will Stage Subscription Party.

Good jazzy music and an evening of dancing will feature the Bill-Board Ball at Woman's Hall, Saturday, April 24. This is the one big subscription party that the Theta Sigma Phi, journalistic fraternity for women, gives during the year.

Theta Sigma Phi at Kansas University gives a Bill-Board Ball annually. This will be the first at Nebraska; it is hoped to make it an annual affair. Tickets are $1.25. Nebraska University's newspaper women urge students to attend this, the first of what may become the traditional annual Bill-Board Ball. Tickets may be obtained from Marian Mote, Marian Henninger, Carolyn Reed, Alynne O'Loughlin, Ruth Snyder and Dorothy Barkley.
