Saturday, April 24
Silver Lynx

Silver Lynx entertained thirty couples Saturday evening at a dinner at the chapter house. Old rose and silver streamers hung from the chandelier to each corner of the room. Dinner was served at small tables which were daintily appointed in rose and silver. Rose shaded candles in silver sticks furnished a soft light in the room. Spring flowers formed the centerpieces, and dancing enjoyed between the courses. Those invited as chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Leon M. Decker, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Rein, Mrs. W. E. Lowe, of Deadwood, So. Dak., and Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Poteet. Guests from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Nelson, Omaha; William Kavan and Dorothy Mariani, of Omaha; Mrs. U. D. Stone, Pawnee City, and Mrs. W. E. Lowe, of Deadwood, So. Dak.

Kappa Delta Phi

Thirty couples were entertained informally at a house dance given by Kappa Delta Phi. Brown and gold, the fraternity colors, was the color scheme used throughout the rooms. Baskets of sweet peas and American beauty roses further decorating the rooms were later given to the guests as favors. Dean and Mrs. J. E. Le Rossignol were invited as chaperons. H. I. Winchester, of Knox College, Galesburg, Illinois, was an out of town guest.

Theta Sigma Phi

One of the most attractive and original parties this year was given by Theta Sigma Phi, woman's honorary journalistic fraternity, at the Woman's Hall. Carrying out the idea of a "Bill Board Ball" flaring and well known posters were fastened on to streamers of old rose and green which were suspended from the ceiling. Newspapers, cut into narrow shreds, were draped above the arched doors leading from one room to another.

Professor and Mrs. M. M. Fogg were invited as chaperons.

Alpha Chi Omega

The thirtieth annual banquet of Xi chapter of Alpha Chi Omega was held in the Garden room of the Lincoln Hotel. The three long tables were decorated with centerpieces of red roses. Green candles in crystal candle-sticks tied with scarlet tulle bows were placed at intervals along the tables. Marietta Wemple Brittenham presiding as "The Gardener" in "Our Rose Garden" called upon the following responses:
 "Roots".....Frances Whitmore
 "Stems".....Jean Holtz
 "Group of Songs".....Georgia Sandusky
 "Leaves".....Vivian Hanson
 "Buds".....Helen Holtz
 "Blossoms".....Doris Arnold
