High School Students Win High Awards for Work in Contest at Farm.

Trophies for winning high school students and teams in the state high school livestock judging contests were awarded recently at the annual Beef Producers' Day at the College of Agriculture.

The Nebraska Livestock Breeders' Association awarded a trophy to the Waverly team, winner of first place, Clyde Walker, a member of the Waverly team, received a prize from the Serum Company of Sioux City, Iowa, as the best individual judge of the contest. The Block and Bridle Club gave Harley Thrapp of Steele City an award for being the best judge of horses. John Barney of Friend was first in hog judging, and received a trophy from W. M. Putnam, Johnson county breeder. Clay Robinson Company presented Glenn Wright of Aurora with a prize for the best work in sheep judging. Clayton Wicker of Springview was given a cup by the same company for being top man in judging cattle.

Ribbons were given the five high men in each kind of stock as follows: Cattle—Clayton Wicker, Springview; Roy Paris, Tecumseh; Chester Beins, Aurora; Joe Kuska, Milligan; Lynn Scott, Filley.

Horses—Harley Thrapp, Steele City; Glenn Wright, Aurora; Roy Day, Barnston; Leo Hughes, Fairbury; Roy Paris, Tecumseh.

Hogs—John Barney, Friend; Chester Beins, Aurora; Emerson Hogue, Fairfield; Clyde Walker, Waverly; William Hay, Laurel.

Sheep—Glenn Wright, Aurora; Clyde Walker, Waverly; Harold Sapp, Tecumseh; Ernest Norris, Nehawka; Donald Hulbert, Waverly.

Twenty-one high schools and sixty-three students competed, making the largest contest of its kind in the United States. Most of the contestants live on farms or have had farm experience and are now students of high schools teaching agriculture.

The company will drill every Thursday evening at seven o'clock at the campus. A list of members which was published in the Nebraskan a few weeks ago, will be placed on the military bulletin board east of the Armory and all men are requested to come out if their name is on the list. The first regular drill will be held a week from tonight, Thursday, May 6.

SENIOR COUNCIL MEMBERS ELECTED FOR NEXT YEAR

At a meeting of the Student Council held recently the representatives from the Junior Class elected last year were re-appointed as Senior members for next year. They are Donna Gustin, Janet Maitland, Paul Cook and Dana Harper. Other Student Council members will be nominated at a mass meeting Thursday, May 6, and then voted on by the students at large Thursday, May 13.

Each college member will vote for the Council member from that college. Before either the nominations and elections are held, the students will have the opportunity to express their opinions on the new Constitution as revised, by either voting "yes" or "no."

SOUTH DAKOTA COLLEGE PRESIDENT DONS DENIM

Bib Overalls Adorn Several Male Faculty Members and Hundreds of Students.

MITCHELL, S. D., April 28.—Bib overalls adorned the person of Dr. W. D. Schermerhorn, president of Dakota Wesleyan University here this morning, when several male faculty members headed the first public parade of the campus overall club, made up of over one hundred members of the student body. Dean M. J. Holmes, former chaplain of the Rainbow division, appeared at the morning assembly in a swagger outfit of denims of a pronounced bed-ticking stripe.

Despite the cold, damp air, many of the students wore their uniforms both old and new over abbreviated summer underwear, rather than permit the extravagance of an interlayer of warm trousers, it was said.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., April 28.—About 250 adults here have pledged themselves to wear overalls at all times, except "when in bed and attending church." A fine of $5 has been fixed for any member of the club violating the pledge.

A school club being organized has enrolled 200 children, and the membership is said to be increasing rapidly. A fine of 25 cents a day must be paid by any member not keeping the pledge to wear "jeans" at all times. School girls have adopted gingham dresses for class rooms.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Headquarters for the organization of a mammoth overall parade, which will invade the clothing manufacturers' district Saturday, were opened today by the cheese club, local leader of the back-to-overalls movement.

It was announced that persons who preferred to wear old, patched clothing instead of committing the "extravagance" of buying new overalls would be welcome in the line of march.

DE BAUFRE WILL ADDRESS ST. LOUIS CONVENTION

The American Society of Mechanical Engineers will hold their spring meeting at St. Louis from May 24 to 27. Professor De Baufre, head of the Mechanical Engineering Department of the University will attend the convention and deliver an address on An excursion to the Mississippi Power Plant Company at Keokuk, Iowa, a trip to the Tulsa oil fields, and visits to points of interest in St. Louis will be features of the sessions.

ATHLETES LEAVE FOR PENN MEET

(Continued from Page One) team composed of Captain McMahon, Owens, Stromer and Gibbs will compete against the best mile relay teams of the country, Graf will run the three mile, and Dale is entered to throw the discus and shot Saturday afternoon.

Nebraska's relay team is classed in championship class A and is out for the American championship. The dope looks as though Nebraska and Illinois will fight it out with Nebraska's chances good provided the men are in good trim. Coach Schulte is taking a first class group of athletes back with him and they should show up well among the stars of the country.

DEBATERS OFF FOR IOWA CITY

The Innocents Society has been working hard on the business end of the home debate and it is desired that the Temple be crowded to the doors when the first speaker begins to present his argument.

A feature of the debates will be the Open Forum period that will follow the discussion, at which time persons in the audience may ask any questions that may have presented themselves while the argument was going on.

HASKELL INDIANS OUT AFTER SCALPS

Those who have been following the game here know what a hard task it has been to develop the aggregation that Schissler has now and they realize that the material is there and all it needs is rounding into shape. The season is young yet and Nebraska is just getting a good start. With some of Old Sol's help, the Husker ball tossers will be in shape to give the Indians a run for their money and every red-blooded Husker fan should be out in the M street stands urging the fellows on. Games start at 3:30 p. m. The admission is fifty cents. Lineups will be given out later, as Schissler has not fully decided which men he will send against the Haskell.
