I Say:

For plain old-fashioned Confidence in one's Own absolute supremacy And for that Super Conceit that enables A humble Frosh to dash Into the classroom with An I-come-I-see-I-conquer Air give us the individual Who is the acknowledged Leader in some petrified Two-by-four little burg That would make Havelock Look like the World's Fair.

GIRLS' TENNIS TOURNAMENT PLANNED FOR AUTUMN

A girls tennis tournament will be held this fall under the auspices of the W. A. A. It is thought that a tournament this fall will be very successful as the courts are in excellent condition and the weather good. Bad weather usually interferes with a spring tournament and the players lose interest if it drags along. There are usually a large number of girls in school who are interested in tennis. Last fall over sixty aspirants for tennis honors were entered in the tournament. A poster will be put up soon on the W. A. A. bulletin board which those who will enter the tournament should sign. W. A. A. points are given to the winners. Ruth DuBois, W. A. A. tennis leader, will have charge of the tournament.

CORRECTION IN REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF 200

H. B. Porterfield, chairman of Banquet Committee of the Committee of Two Hundred, wishes to correct the statement made in the Daily Nebraskan Wednesday about the joint banquet announced for October 4. This banquet is to be given October 12, and is under the auspices of the Committee of Two Hundred.

Dr. John Timothy Stone, of Chicago, is to be the principal speaker. He is an orator of nation-wide prominence and cancelled two previous engagements to attend the meetings at the University of Nebraska.

FORMER STUDENT DIES SUDDENLY AT SUPERIOR

Mrs. Oswin Keifer, nee Helen Kendall, '19, died suddenly at her home in Superior, Wednesday, September 22. Mrs. Keifer was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kendall. She was born April 29,

1898. Her career at the University of Nebraska began in 1914 and she was graduated from the College of Arts and Sciences with the class of 1919. Mrs. Keifer was very well known on the campus as a student and promoter of University activities. W. S. G. A. and Y. W. C. A. work claimed her attention. She was a member of the Nu chapter of Alpha Phi and had been "tapped" for Black Masque, Senior honorary society in 1918. The funeral will be held at ten o'clock today in Superior at the Episcopal church. A representative group from Alpha Phi sorority will attend.
