

NEW CAPTAINS ARE APPOINTED

Adjutant 2nd Battalion—Captain E. Babcock, Jr.
Commanding Company "E"—Captain F. C. Richards.
Commanding Company "F"—Captain J. Ryons.
Commanding Company "G"—Captain S. J. Lewis, Jr.
Commanding Company "H"—Captain E. Babcock, Jr. (attached).
Cadet lieutenants are so far as signed as follows:

To Company "E"—Lieutenant B. E. Putman.
To Company "G"—Lieutenant E. F. Schafer.
To Company "H"—Lieutenant J. G. Noh.
There are a number of cadet lieutenants who have reported for duty and whose assignments have not yet been made. All lieutenants should report to 202 Nebraska Hall to be assigned to companies.
A number of reductions in cadet rank have been made all of them with the cheerful acquiescence of the individuals reduced. Godwin was a major last year, and this year takes a captaincy so that he can command the Farm company. Other men, who were not reduced, expressed a willingness to take reduction, even to the grade of private, if their action would help to make the regiment a more efficient organization. The spirit shown by these students is the best possible sign for a prosperous year. The same spirit, shown by all men taking military instruction, will make this the best year in the history of the University.

CHARLES CHALLICE, JR.,
1st Lieut., Q. M. C.,
Adjutant.

FIRST AWGWAN MAKES APPEARANCE TODAY

One of the cleverest editions of the Awgwan is now at hand. It can be safely said to those who were inclined to be skeptical that it is even far better than expectations. With its snappy cover, its witty verses and illustrations it is easily on a par with the more widely known contemporaries "Life" and "Judge." The cuts are especially clever, displaying the rather exceptional talent of one of our local artists.

PLACE LIMIT ON NUMBER FOR SWIMMING CLASSES

The exact date for opening swimming classes for University girls is undecided because the high school swimming pool is being remodeled. As soon as the pool is ready classes will begin. Notice will be posted on the bulletin board in the Armory. The swimming classes will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings and not on Saturday afternoon, also, as was first announced. The authorities have decided to use Saturday for cleaning the pool.

Girls who desire to take swimming should first have a medical examination by Dr. Philbrick and take a report to the gymnasium office. Only eighty tickets will be sold.

DAILY WORKOUT GIVEN TO FIRST-YEAR MEN

what the Varsity is going up against tomorrow.

Stiff Practice Thursday.
The "Frosh" were put through a stiff practice last evening, scrimmage commencing at four and letting up at six, then they were brought to the Varsity field where they worked until dark. Only one accident has been reported this season. Oliver, the only colored candidate for a place on the team had the ligaments of his leg torn and his knee thrown out of place. There have been other minor injuries but none that amounted to anything.
So far the squad has been working very satisfactorily considering the handicap of the coach not knowing any of the men and having to find each man his individual position. The men are quite green but are willing to "fight" and expect to put up a creditable showing. Coach Schissler states that the squad will be cut considerable in the next few days. Those men who fail to appear regularly for practice will also be dropped from the squad. Every one who is able should get out and boost for a winning team this year and a good way to start is by attending the game Saturday. An admittance fee of twenty-five cents will be charged for the purpose of helping to pay for new equipment.

MISS LAURA PFEIFFER RETURNS FROM TRIP

Rheims, Soissons, Chateau Thierry. The destruction one finds in these cities is far beyond any description one can give. In Rheims, not only the cathedral, but nearly every house has been more or less destroyed. The unfortunate people are trying to live in one corner of ruined houses or in temporary shacks built for them, in some cases in German dug-outs. The same is true of Soissons, where the cathedral is ruined. The people are without shelter for the winter. The conditions of living are so difficult for these people that the joy has gone out of life for them. Many of the old are reduced to beggary.
Sees American Graves.

Miss Pfeiffer rode many miles over devastated areas where she saw trenches, shell holes, barb-wire entanglements, giving a picture of utter desolation. Many of the villages are totally destroyed, leaving only standing walls of a few buildings. In the midst of all this are cemeteries after cemeteries in which are buried American, French, Canadian, English and German soldiers. She also saw cemeteries where only Americans are buried. She says it is a great mistake to want to bring back the dead, because where they rest is the greatest monument that a man can have that has fallen in battle. The French have chosen beautiful places and are beautifying these places.

She says to see the American flag waving over these graves gives one a "real thrill."

Miss Pfeiffer pays great tribute to the French people. She finds them patient, courageous, industrious, making every effort to rebuild their unfortunate and unhappy country.

COMMITTEE OF 200 EXPLAINS ITS WORK

sentation on the group by organizing and presenting a request for a place on the Executive Council of the Committee. The Committee of Two Hundred and Executive Council are composed entirely of students.

There is a great need for religious work on the campus and the religious organizations have answered back to the challenge of this need, by presenting a united and unified front, in the Committee of Two Hundred. The offices of the Committee are in the Y. M. C. A. rooms of the Temple Building.

LOST—Silver captain's insignia, double bar. Return to S. A. office. Amy L. Martin, 1220 R street.

Theatre Reviews

Orpheum.

Headed by Frank Dobson and his thirteen sirens and Percy Brenson and Winnie Baldwin in their presentation of "Visions of 1970," one of the costliest bills of the season is now running riot at the Orpheum. Anita Diaz' Monkeys are the openers in a Darwinian demonstration of fun while John Hardner and Marie Hartman present their eccentric version of "Before and After Marriage." Will Mahoney, a one-man show, fairly makes one ask "Why Be Serious?" The boy is clever. Francis Yates and Gus Reed do some double crossing and the Haystake Brothers do some hair-raising stunts in Japanese style. "Topics of the Day." Kinograms and Babe Ruth sporting extra round out a well-balanced bill of unusual merit.

"What's Your Hurry?"—Lasky.

Another one of Wallace Reid's peppy, racing pictures is "What's Your Hurry?" which is playing at the Rialto this week-end. The fable of the tortoise and the hare is the foundation for the story of how the humble plodding truck conquered the high-powered speedster in a fight against death and destruction. The Christie comedy which precedes the feature is rather clever also. An accomplished Phillipino pianist and the usual fine music of the Rialto Orchestra provide an excellent support for the pictures.

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch"—Famous-Lasky.

Alice Hegan Rice's delightful little Lovey Mary has provided an entirely new wrole for Marguerite Clark who plays at the Sun today in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." The scenario follows the original plot with little variation and is so well interpreted that the picture is even more fascinating than the book, which has been such a favorite for several years. The story is "just a page out of the book of life," with all its laughter and tears, and very enjoyable.
