Society
Phi Gamma Delta.
 Phi Gamma Delta entertained thirty couples at a dance at the chapter house Saturday evening. The fall-party idea was carried out in decorations of autumn leaves. The fraternity colors, purple and white, were also used. The chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Brody Proctor and Mr. and Mrs. Don Bell. Out-of-town guests were Jay Burns of Omaha, Mr. Loucks of Nebraska City and Mr. Brown of Omaha.

Xi Psi Phi.
 Xi Psi Phi was host to forty-five couples at a house dance Saturday evening. The house was attractively decorated in lavender and cream; these colors were employed in the light shades. The chaperons were Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Sturdevant and Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Wildman. Dr. and Mrs. Carr of Osceola and Dr. and Mrs. McGregor of College View were out-of-town guests.

Achoth.
 Twenty-five couples attended the dance given by Achoth at the chapter house Saturday evening. The entire evening was devoted to dancing. Light refreshments were served. The chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Young, Miss Bernice Bushee of Fair field was the only out-of-town guest.

Alpha Tau Omega.
 A delightful fall party was the house dance given by Alpha Tau Omega Saturday evening. Forty couples attended. The first floor of the chapter house was converted into a veritable rustic autumn scene. Brilliantly colored leaves were scattered everywhere. Standing out among the leaves were Nebraska corn-stocks. The dancing was interrupted by a musical program rendered by E. F. Bush on the saxophone, accompanied by Mr. Powell at the piano. Light refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Reed were chaperons. Out-of-town guests were Eugene Moore of York and W. O. Johnson of Omaha.

Kappa Kappa Gamma.
 Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained about fifty couples in honor of their pledges Friday evening. Hallowe'en colors, jack o' lanterns, autumn leaves and corn stocks helped to carry out a very attractive scheme. Favors of red and blue bordered handkerchiefs for the men and blue wooden beads for the girls were given. Candied apples, doughnuts and apple cider were appropriate refreshments. Mrs. E. W. McHenry chaperoned. Miss Louise McCune of Omaha was the only out-of-town guest.

Delta Sigma Delta.
 A house dance was given by Delta Sigma Delta Friday evening in honor of the pledges. Thirty-four couples were present. The decorative scheme was in red and blue, the fraternity colors. Light refreshments were served. Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Vance, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Albrecht and Dr. and Mrs. Victor Coulter acted as chaperons.

Gamma Phi Beta.
 Gamma Phi Beta entertained forty couples at a house dance Saturday evening. The decorations were the usual Hallowe'en and fall colors. Light refreshments were served. Miss Ethel Whalen of Omaha was the only out-of-town guest. Mrs. Sam Waugh chaperoned.

Alpha Chi Omega.
 A house dance was given by Alpha Chi Omega in honor of their Freshmen Saturday evening. Red roses formed an attractive decoration. Light refreshments were served. Miss De Lama Sambert of Omaha and Miss Loraine Saleman of Culbertson were the out-of-town guests. Mrs. T. Heman chaperoned.

Phi Delta Theta.
 Phi Delta Theta entertained fifty couples Saturday evening in honor of their pledges. The fraternity colors, blue and white, were cleverly used as a feature of the party. They were carried out not only in the decorations, but in the favors and the refreshments. Out-of-town guests were Robert Anderson of Omaha, James Marshall of Fremont, Willard Lau, Jr. of Fremont, Jay Rogers of Omaha and Richard Johnson of Fremont. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ryons and Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Lay chaperoned.
