PEP-FEST FRIDAY NIGHT IN ARMORY

Torchlight Parade Through City Streets After Program at the University.

Schulte Will Speak

Members of Notre Dame Team Will Await Students on Balcony of Lincoln Hotel.

Three thousand loyal Cornhuskers will join hands Friday evening in the biggest parade and torchlight procession ever staged by the students at Nebraska University. At 7:30, University students will meet at the Armory for a big rally and yell-fest before the parade. These celebrations will mark the eve before the Homecoming game with Notre Dame Saturday on Nebraska Field.

The rally and yell-fest will commence promptly at 7:30 in the Armory. The University band will be present to play the familiar Cornhusker tunes, and to help in the rendition of Nebraska's plaintive chant.

Members of the Husker team will occupy places on the platform. Short speeches will be given by Coaches Schulte and Schissler and Captain "Bill" Day. Several members of the team will also give short talks.

Parade Forms in Front of Armory.

The torchlight procession will form on Twelfth street near the Armory and lead by the band the line of flame will go down Q street to Sixteenth south to O and then to Ninth, ending up at the Lincoln Hotel. The members of the Indiana aggregation will be waiting on the hotel balcony for the welcoming flash of torches. The captain and coach of the Notre Dame team have consented to give short speeches from the balcony.

Friday has been declared a closed night by University authorities. Sections of the parade have been reserved for co-eds and the University men.

For the torchlight parade a large number of oil torches have been secured. It is expected that a small deposit will be made when each student checks out his torch. This deposit will be refunded when the torch is returned to the Armory after the procession, if the last year's plan is carried out.

AVIATORS WILL FLY COLORS OF NEBRASKA UNIVERSITY

Three Government Planes Come from Ft. Leavenworth to See Football Battle.

Three government aeroplanes flaunting streamers of Scarlet and Cream in homage to Nebraska University will fly to Lincoln Saturday for the big clash with Notre Dame, according to letters received from W. W. Vanderschmidt of the Alpha Nu chapter of Beta Theta Pi at the University of Kansas.

The planes will make exhibition flights over the field before the game. They will leave Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas, Saturday morning and intend to arrive in Lincoln about noon. Vanderschmidt writes that they wish to land at the most convenient field near the University campus.

The planes will contain four pilots, one passenger and a mechanic. That the pilots will be "strong" for Nebraska is evidenced by the closing sentence of the letter, which says: "We will fly Nebraska colors and are with you strong for a victorious team."

There are to be no scraps between individuals or groups representing the Freshmen and Sophomore classes before Saturday, the day of the Olympics. Drastic measures will be taken by the executive dean against students who attempt to kidnap contestants or individuals of either class. The Olympics were instituted to do away with hazing and class scraps which used to be the custom at the University in days gone by. Such customs are not to be revived this year. The fight between the Freshmen and Sophomores must be confined to Saturday's Olympics is the definite stand taken by the executive dean.

Director Luehring Addresses Freshmen

F. W. Luehring, director of the physical education department of the University, addressed the members of the Freshman lecture class yesterday morning on the subject of "Recreation and Health." Mr. Luehring emphasized the need of physical education for the students and outlined the program of all work in that line given in the University. He will repeat his lecture before the Thursday lecture class, Thursday afternoon.

FIRST YEAR CLASS MEETS IN TEMPLE

Officers for Coming Semester Elected
—Trimble, Vice-President; Egan, Secretary-Treasurer.

Three hundred fifty enthusiastic Freshmen filled the Temple Theater yesterday morning for their first meeting of the year. President Craig called the meeting to order and lost no time in perfecting the plans for the greatest defeat ever dealt a Sophomore class.

Class elections were carried on in a very orderly manner. For vice-president there were only two candidates, Gordon Trimble and Harry Dunker. Four candidates were nominated for the secretary-treasurer: Asa Waters, Ethel Upton, Margaret Hagar and Arthur Egan. Three of the huskiest men of the class were nominated for sergeant-at-arms, Foster Farrell, Ross McGlasson and Garrett Burt. After the ballots had been counted the results were as follows:

Vice-president—Gordon Trimble, 202; Harry Dunker, 130.
Secretary-treasurer—Arthur Egan, 152; Margaret Hagar, 31; Asa Waters, 59; Ethel Upton, 77.
Sergeant-at-arms—Garrett Burt, 89; Foster Farrell, 115; Ross McGlasson, 100.

After the elections had been completed, President Craig made a short introductory speech in which he stated the urgent need for every loyal Freshman to be on hand Saturday for the big scrap. He also stated that Dean Engberg has requested that the Freshmen refrain from starting any fights before the day of the Olympics. Edgar Shoemaker and Francis Coryell added a little more pep to the meeting by leading a few yells.

Olympics Enthusiasm.

George Maguire, representing the Innocents at the meeting, told the first year students about the different events and what they were to do in the way of organizing for the different matches. He announced that there would be no tryouts for the relay but that any man who could run should come out for the relay. The tryouts for the wrestling and boxing matches will be held in the Armory tomorrow night at 7 o'clock. He also made it clear to the Freshmen that no shoes were to be worn that had spikes or cleats on, such as football or golf shoes.

Russell Bailey next gave a short talk on the necessity of having an organized body to go against the Sophomores. He laid special stress on the fact that when the big torchlight parade is to be held Friday night both classes should forget about the Olympics for the time being and make the parade one to be proud of.

Dick Giller, chairman of the Olympics, gave the Fresh a stirring speech in regard to the battle Saturday and what the different committees were doing. The Freshmen have adopted the slogan, "Win the Olympics," and Giller inspired every one to do their best. A meeting place for the Freshmen will be announced in the Daily Nebraskan in a few days.

All girls who are taking courses at the State Farm, whether they are registered in the College of Agriculture or not, will be welcome at this tea. This has been planned as an opportunity for students to become better acquainted with the faculty and with each other. All classes in Home Economics will be dismissed in order that as many girls as possible may attend the tea.

DELINQUENCY REPORTS TO FAILING STUDENTS

New Plan Inaugurated to Send Notices Four Times Each Semester—First Friday.

Reports of all delinquencies and incompletes will be sent to Dean Engberg by the faculty each quarter semester, according to the new plan. The first report is due at the end of this week. Before this reports have been made only twice a semester.

All grades below 60 per cent are considered delinquent. The members of the faculty are permitted to send in reports of all students whose scholarship needs attention. For instance, they might find it advisable to report a student whose grades were constantly becoming lower even though his average was above 60. Notices will be sent to delinquent students soon after the reports are made.

An organized effort is being made to improve the scholarship of University students. War and post-war conditions made it necessary for the faculty to be somewhat lenient, but now that normal conditions have been restored higher scholarship will be expected.

Cornhusker Luncheon Instills School Spirit In Uni. Co-Eds

No co-ed will leave the Cornhusker luncheon until she is able to sing the "Scarlet and the Cream" and give Nebraska's yells, according to those in charge of this affair.

The girls are back of the team of course, but if they don't yell, how is the team going to know they are backed? Every girl must learn Nebraska's yells.

The Cornhusker luncheon, one of the University's oldest traditions, is held every year on Homecoming Day. The W. S. G. A. is always in charge of the affair. The luncheon will be held this year on October 16 at the Lindell Hotel at 12 o'clock. A very unique program is being worked out by the committee in charge: Ruth Lindsay, Mary Redgwick and Lois Melton. There will be short peppy speeches and other entertainment, which will be kept secret until the big event. Favors will be given which will be used later at the game to help show the pep that the Nebraska co-eds have.

The program is going to be short enough so that there will be plenty of time for the girls to go in a body to the game.

The Varsity cheer leaders, Lois Melton, Isabel Pearsall, Margaret Henderson and Harriet Ford, will be in charge of the yells and cheering. Every co-ed is invited to come out and back the oldest tradition and get some co-ed pep.

The tickets are 85 cents and will be on sale at the Student Activities office Thursday morning. There will also be a few girls selling tickets. Tickets should be procured early for only 350 will be validated.

Annual Class Fight At M Street Ball Park

The annual battle between the Freshmen and Sophomores will take place at the M street ball park. The committee in charge has requested that the members of both classes be there by 9 o'clock at the latest as the events will start promptly at that time. There will be a notice in the paper announcing the meeting place of both classes for Saturday morning so there should be no delay in getting to the park.

George Maguire, Representing Innocents, Explains Olympics Events Homecoming Morning.

The Sophomore class got away to a flying start at the first meeting of the year held Tuesday morning. Officers were elected to fill the position of vice-president, secretary and treasurer and plans were laid for turning the coming Olympics into an overwhelming Sophomore victory.

The result of the voting shows the alarming extent to which the suffrage spirit has taken hold of the second-year class. Margaret Stidworthy was elected vice-president over Joe Ryons, the other competitor for the honor, by the vote of 122 to 52. Pauline Moore, the only candidate for the secretary office received a large complimentary vote. Louise Tucker triumphed over H. J. Atkinson in the race for treasurer position, 92 to 60.

The Olympics clash was the center of attention in the meeting. George Maguire, who is representing the Innocents in the Olympics, explained the events and urged the class to get in active preparation at once. The Olympics this year are being held a month earlier than usual, he said, and with such a short time remaining it would be necessary for the class to choose their own men for the different events. Turnouts for the wrestling and boxing tryouts have been so poorly attended that little work could be done. Few men have tried out for the relay team. Experienced men must come out if the class is to win the Saturday morning scrap. Maguire urged the Sophomore men to let the Freshmen alone on Friday night and turn out en masse for the big torchlight parade that is to be held on the eve of the Notre Dame game.

President Philbrick stated that there were more men in the Freshmen class last year than there are men and women in the Yearling class this fall. For the first time in many years the Sophomores will enter the scrap outnumbering the Freshmen. "It should be a matter of personal pride with each man of the class to see that the Sophomores win," Philbrick said.

A committee headed by Kinsey was appointed by the class president to see Dean Engberg in regard to releasing all Sophomore men from Saturday morning classes so that they may take part in the scrap.

President Philbrick announced the following committee for the Olympics: William Lawlor, chairman; Weymuller, Fouts, Lewis, Ellis and Warren.

Record Enrollment at Dartmouth
Nearly 2,000 students were matriculated in Dartmouth College when it opened for its 152nd academic year. The college office reports the largest enrollment in history, over 1,500, and living accommodations are stretched to the limit. Topliff Hall, constructed to accommodate the anticipated heavy enrollment, is already filled with students, although workmen are not yet finished with the interior work.—Columbia Spectator.

Social Meeting Held By Palladian Society

Between ninety and one hundred students attended the open meeting of the Palladian Literary Society Saturday evening. The plan of a Junior chautauqua was carried out in the entertainment. Contests between the two sides took the form of relays, original stunts and yells. Light refreshments were served. The following program was given: Vocal solo, Alverta Buchta; humorous reading, Philip Page; piano solo, Chesta Fisher; magic and slight-of-hand, John Cheney; musical comedy, Wilbur Lewis and James Wilson; take-off on country jazz band, several girls.

NEBRASKA READY FOR NOTRE DAME

Hubka Hurts Shoulder in Scrimmage—Will Be Able to Play in Saturday's Game.

Will Use New Plays

Freshmen Beat Wesleyan, 53-0—Are Successful When Using Notre Dame Plays.

When Nebraska and Notre Dame meet next Saturday on Nebraska Field, followers of the Cornhuskers will be treated to the greatest game of football in the Middle-West. Notre Dame has, without a doubt, the strongest team this year that ever represented that school. Nebraska may not have such stars in their lineup today as Rutherford and Chamberlain but the same fighting spirit still exists on the team as was exhibited in the time of these men.

Notre Dame is without the services of the wonderful Bergman who shot Assistant Coach Schissler reports that tereed Nebraska's hopes last year but they have just as good men to fill his place and he is not missed in the least. This means that Coach Schulte's warriors are going to fight harder than ever this year to bring victory to Nebraska.

Fight Till Last Ditch.

Notre Dame has been playing secondary schools so far this year and Nebraska will be the first test of their real strength. Coach Schulte is not making any promises for the game Saturday but wants the people to know that the men are going to fight until the last whistle blows. Secret practice is being given the team every night this week. Many new formations are on the list of plays the team is learning and there is a surprise in store for the followers of Schulte's proteges Saturday.

Nebraska and Notre Dame have participated in five games up to the present season with honors even for each team. Nebraska has been the victor twice as has Notre Dame with one battle resulting in a tie. The game Saturday will be in the nature of a supreme test for each team, since the team that wins Saturday will have one more victory to their credit than will the other and the percentage score will read higher for the victor.

The Varsity is being put through some stiff work every night by Coach Schulte, they are battling with the Freshman team which uses Notre Dame plays and getting in good shape for the biggest game of the season.

Squad in Fairly Good Shape.

Coach Schulte reports that the squad is in fairly good shape for the game Saturday. Ernie Hubka suffered a slight injury to his shoulder but is sure to be in fighting trim by Saturday. With the exceptions of a few "charley-horses" and colds, the squad is as good as could be hoped for.

The Freshmen who have not been heard much of lately journeyed out to University Place last evening and took the measure of the Coyotes by the one-sided score of 53 to 0. Schissler's men used Notre Dame formations which seemed to work very successfully against Wesleyan. The Frosh had a large number of penalties tacked on them or there would have possibly been a larger score. The Freshmen will spend the rest of the week battling with the Varsity.
