"The Cornhusker" song was written by Prof. Robert W. Stevens, of the University School of Music, and was officially adopted by the students in 1909 as the official Nebraska football song. Custom requires that every student rise and sing when the band plays "The Cornhusker." There is probably not a student who does not recognize "The Cornhusker" when it is played, but it is quite evident that the majority of Nebraska men and women do not know the words. For the benefit of those who do not know "The Cornhusker" we are printing it with the hope that every loyal Husker learn the song before the Notre Dame game. If you do not have the time to learn the football song clip the following and bring it with you to the game.

THE CORNHUSKER.

First Verse.

Come a-running boys,
Don't you hear that noise,
Like the thunder in the skies
How it rolls along
In a good old song
For the sons of Nebraski.
Now its coming near,
With a rousing cheer
That will sweep all foes away.
So with all our vim
We are bound to win
And we're going to win today.

Chorus.

For Nebraska and the Scarlet,
For Nebraska and the Cream,
Though we go through many battles
Our old colors still are seen,
So throughout the gruelling contest
We will wave them for the team,
And 'twill always stir
A Cornhusker
Our old Scarlet and the Cream.

KEYNOTE TO ACCOMPLISHMENT AND SUCCESS.

There never has been a time when business education and training for efficient service in business, were more essential nor so valuable to the possessor. The war has taught many lessons of efficiency, economy, co-operation, concentration of effort, short cuts, and many other things which tend to expedite business. These are being incorporated in business methods and procedure of the present and for the future. Such marvelous changes have taken place in business and social life during the past few months as could hardly have been dreamed of, and wise are the young people who adjust their view to and prepare themselves for the new order of things. The most thoughtless person can readily understand that education, training, personal ability and individual efficiency must be demanded.

Business efficiency has ever been at a premium, but it is more than that now; it is an absolute necessity. No business can prosper without efficient service. Service means efficient effort, and efficient effort comes from educated minds, trained hands and willing hearts.

In the prosecution of the war we looked to trained men to lead trained armies to victory; to men trained in engineering skill to prepare the way. It is left to men trained in statesmanship to solve the great problems which came with victory. Trained business men must be depended upon for the development of our resources and the maintenance of our commercial supremacy. It is training all down the line, from the highest position of state to the most humble service to be performed, that makes our country the greatest and its people the happiest and most prosperous in the world.

Nothing worth while is expected of ignorance, and nothing comes from it except misery and failure. Training is the keynote to accomplishment and success.

LEARN NEBRASKA YELLS.

The University authorities request that all members of fraternities, sororities, rooming houses, and dormitories learn Nebraska yells before the big game Saturday, October 16.

I Say:

Henry says that is enough
To make one say vivid green
And red swears to wait for Ages and ages right in the
Theta parlor with a dozen other
Men who are also waiting for
Their dates to refinish their
Noses again and have the room-mate
Sift in to tell you right there
Before the whole darn room that
Marie has suddenly become very
Ill indeed and is mighty sorry
That she can't go to the Lincoln
With him but she does want him
To come back again and like his Attitude very much because of the Way he took it and one tears
Up one's one sixty-five ticket
And discovers that he is fifteen
Minutes late for the Rialto second Show and amuses himself saying—inexpressibles.

—Matilda Jane.

Stratford Clothes

Take a lesson in clothes buying

SEE for yourself that style is not the only glory of Stratford Clothes. Just drop into our store for a few minutes some day this week. You won't be urged to buy or obligated to spend a penny—but you will learn how to judge a suit of clothes!

We'll show you some vast differences between Stratford tailoring and the ordinary. We'll do more than touch upon fabric and sewing. We'll go into the Stratford method of inner construction.

You'll observe that Stratford sacks have no linings to crack, rip and wear out. None to twist the coat out of shape. You'll note that the fabric of the suit itself is used as the inside trim, with seams beautifully satin-piped. You'll see, too, that Stratford trousers are double-crotched to give double strength and wear.

You'll mark many other excellencies that will show you wherein real value lies in a suit of clothes.
