MIDSEMER REPORTS ARE DUE NEXT TUESDAY

Football men who expect to take the trip east with the squad will be benefited by the change because it will give them a longer time to prepare for examinations. It is rumored that the grid men will take their books with them, and that supervised study will be the order of the day enroute.

Episcopal Club Holds Dinner Tuesday Eve

The Episcopal club held a dinner Tuesday, October 26, at 6 o'clock at the Holy Trinity church. About fifty students were present. The room was attractively decorated in Halloween colors. At the close of the dinner the president gave a talk in which he told the purpose and aims of the club. Dr. Hays, the rector of the church, made an address to the club which was followed by talks by Dr. McFayden and Dr. Pratt, both of whom are sponsors for the club.

with Penn State a little on top. Penn State has won all her games this year and has sent many strong eastern aggregations to defeat, among them Dartmouth. If the Huskers defeat these two teams the eastern football critics will recognize Nebraska as one of the strongest squads in the country.

The Newspapers are Not Making Men's Clothing

BUT WE ARE GIVING

LOW 1921 PRICES NOW

—the newspapers have given you a great deal to think about—reports from "Tom, Dick and Harry" have been full of hope and promise.

—Clothing does not come from Washington, nor is it manufactured by the newspapers. The manufacturers in Chicago and New York pay the cost of woolsens and the wages of the garment workers—they know how much it costs to produce a GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES.

If you should make a list of all that goes into the making of a suit, you would wonder how it has been possible to keep the price of Good Clothing down as low as it is; you would find that most everything in the making of men's clothing has increased 300 per cent. However, in the face of false propaganda which has misconstrued the price situation to the public during the past few weeks, we wish to make this statement, and are mighty proud of it:
