

SONGS AND IDEAS REACH COMMITTEE

Excellent Response from Students, Alumni and Others on Song Book Proposition.

Plans About Completed

H. M. Hopewell of Tekamah, Author of "The Flag," Sends Manuscript of Song.

The University song book committee, under the general chairmanship of Ward Randol, '22, announces that returns are coming in from all parts of the state in the form of material for the new book. H. M. Hopewell, famous Nebraska author and publisher, who has shops in Tekamah and Los Angeles, Calif., is among the first contributors of manuscripts. Mr. Hopewell wrote "The Flag" which swept the state by storm and which found a place in nearly every Nebraska home.

Letters in regard to the new song book have been received by the committee from Fairbury, Nebraska City and other towns throughout the state. Several Lincoln authors, poets and writers of note have submitted manuscripts and material for songs. A number of these efforts will be printed in the Daily Nebraskan early next week. Several manuscripts that have been received are models of beauty, simplicity and melody.

Book Plans Near Completion. Plans for the Cornhusker song book are fast nearing completion. The movement is receiving wide publicity throughout the state and is meeting approval at the hands of all those who have heard the plans of the committee. Already University organizations have backed the publication of the book with donations.

The Daily Nebraskan, the Lincoln and Omaha daily papers, and the members of the Innocents Society are heartily endorsing the plans for the song book. Ruth Kadel, Ruth Lindsay and Russell Bailey are in charge of the financing of the book. They have decided to ask for a guarantee fund, ten dollars of which is to be given by each organization in the University. This will insure a prompt and certain start.

As soon as each organization subscribes the amount asked for, their names will appear in the columns of the Daily Nebraskan.

Will Entertain Undergrad Co-eds

Xi Delta, Sophomore girls, honorary organization, will entertain all Freshmen and second-year co-eds at a party from 3 until 6 o'clock Friday afternoon in Ellen Smith hall.

Good music is promised and refreshments will be served during the afternoon.

Senning Will Discuss Presidential Election

Prof. John P. Senning of the University Political Science Department, will address the Y. M. C. A. Forum Thursday evening on the subject, "Observations on the Presidential Election." As Professor Senning is an instructor in the Political Science Department he is well posted on the political questions of the day. He has some interesting and valuable points that students can not afford to miss.

The Forum meetings this year have been well attended and some interesting talks and discussions have featured the programs. These meetings are a tradition of the University of Nebraska. They are held every Thursday evening at 5 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. rooms of the Temple building under the leadership of an efficient student. The leader, this year is M. R. Youngman of the city Y. M. C. A. Every University man is urged to hear these addresses of the evening and to take part in the discussions.

Candidates for Graduation.

Candidates for degrees or certificates at the close of the present semester, please report your intention to the office not later than Saturday, November 6, unless you have previously done so.

(Signed) FLORENCE I. MCGAHEY, Registrar.

Omaha Club Plans For Saturday Hike

One hundred Omaha students attended a meeting of the club held in the Temple Theatre Wednesday night. Professor R. E. Cochran and several members of the club provided entertainment.

Plans for the hike to be held Saturday morning have been changed because of the difficulty encountered in securing Electric Park. The members of the club will meet, as scheduled, at nine o'clock Saturday morning in front of the Social Science building and from there go to the Caves where the wolverine roast will be held.

Professor Cochran, although not from Omaha, appealed to the patriotism of the Omahans to support the club and boost Omaha. Last year Professor Cochran was instrumental in forming the club and this year he is backing it to the limit.

"Hobb" Turner and Kenneth Baker put on a clever skit, and the Alpha Phi quartette sang, and Rudge Norton concluded the program with a song and dance act.

RINDGE WILL ADDRESS COMMERCE CLUB TODAY

National Secretary of Industrial Service Movement to Make Three Addresses in City.

Speaker is Prominent Y. M. C. A. Worker—Has Been Termed "Human Efficiency Engineer."

Fred H. Rindge, national secretary of the Industrial Service Movement, will speak today before the University Commercial Club at 11 o'clock, at 12 before the Knife and Fork Club at the Lincoln hotel, and before an audience of University students tonight at 7 o'clock in the general lecture room of the Temple theater. Mr. Rindge comes to Lincoln under the auspices of the Engineering societies, the University Club, and the Committee of Two Hundred.

The general lecture tonight is open to all University men and women. The speaker's popularity is readily discerned by the fact that he is scheduled to speak three times in Lincoln today. He will address students of five different colleges and departments in the University, besides making somewhat hurried survey of the industrial plants in Lincoln.

CROSS-COUNTRY TRY-OUTS WERE FINISHED YESTERDAY

Coach Announces Honor Roll of Fifteen Men—Huskers to Enter Valley Meet.

In the first cross-country tryouts for Nebraska men held Wednesday afternoon, C. A. Bochkora finished in thirty minutes, at least two blocks ahead of the thirty-three men who began the five-mile race. The cross-country honor roll of men who finished the race has been announced for this week by Coach McMaster. This roll will be run in the columns of the Daily Nebraskan each week and it promises to vary considerably when each week's results are tabulated.

The fifteen men who finished first in the Wednesday race in the order in which they crossed the ribbon are as follows:

Honor Roll.

1. C. A. Bochkora.
2. Oscar Bowman.
3. A. L. Hyde.
4. R. E. Weir.
5. J. W. Nielsen.
6. W. K. Anderson.
7. C. Case.
8. T. G. Bowman.
9. G. A. Kittle.
10. G. L. Klawitter.
11. G. Haskell.
12. C. G. Weakley.
13. H. B. Sprague.
14. M. M. Miles.
15. Carlton Zink.

The second honor roll will be published next Wednesday. Coach McMaster reported yesterday afternoon that it has been decided that Nebraska will enter the Missouri Valley cross-country meet to be held at Drake University, Des Moines, Ia. To compete for Trophy Turkey Day, Nebraska cross-country runners will also compete in the race the Lincoln (Continued on Page Four)

Features of "Yearly Shuck" Cried by Venerable Newsboys

"Faculty on strike! Mob attempts to raze U Hall! Big sensation of the year! Red Cross called upon to succor starving families of the strikers," shouted the newsboy, Chancellor Samuel Avery. "Dr. Condra makes trip to Mars," roared Frank Woods in an attempt to drown the voices of the other newsboys. They were C. M. Skiles, '92, Dr. Ira Atkinson, '91, Charles Warner, '99, and G. E. Hager, '98. All were selling the big November 2 edition of "The Yearly Shuck" to the two hundred seventy-five people at the First Annual Frolic of the Lincoln Alumni Club in the Chamber of Commerce building.

Hardly had the shouts that followed the distribution of "The Yearly Shuck" subsided when Guy E. Reed announced the latest election results. Prof. Harry E. Bradford led the banqueters in a chorus of rousing songs. Again and again the echoes of "Far Away" rang through the hall. Squawkers and serpentine were distributed and mob violence reined. Bald-headed professors daringly took revenge on their worst enemies by lassoing them in the most spectacular manner. The room became a sea of seething humanity and serpentine from which arose the confused shrieking of a Bingville carnival. Civilized conduct was restored only at the intervals when Mr. Reed announced election returns.

When the results of the Rutgers game were announced it was enthusiastically voted to telegraph congratulations to the team.

The most serious part of the program was immediately after the banquet when President Warren G. Harding delivered a front-porch speech on "Why Everybody Voted for Me." "Let's be done with the wiggle shimmy," he shouted and then proceeded to affirm the report that he has colored blood in his veins. He stated that his blood is red. For emphasis he punctuated his speech here and there with an enthusiastic "Hooray!" He said that he had always been dry and felt very dry just then. A chorus of "How Dry I Am" arose from the audience.

C. W. Pugsley, president of the Lincoln Alumni Club, discovered that the announcement of Harding's election was premature and that Cox had been elected. Fortunately President James M. Cox was at hand to justify the actions of himself and the democratic party in a speech on "Why I Am Elected." He denied the foul report that the democratic party did not collect more than a five thousand (Continued on Page Four)

DIRECTORY SALES WILL BREAK FORMER RECORDS

Sixteen Hundred Sold in Two Days—Today is Last Chance to Purchase.

The campaign for the sale of student directories continued in full force Wednesday, with the result that nearly sixteen hundred books were sold to students during the first two days of the drive. This record exceeds the mark set last year by a considerable margin, according to John Burley, editor of the 1920-21 pamphlet.

Because only a limited number of copies of the directory were printed this year, the publishers announce that the sale of the books will close on the campus today. Pamphlets may be secured until 3 o'clock this afternoon at University hall, Social Science hall, the College Book Store, in the west entrance to the Armory, and at the Aggie Book Store on the Farm campus.

The reason for the printing of only a limited number of directories can be explained by the fact that the price of print paper, materials and workmanship, is more than that of any other year, and prices are increasing. The price of the directory is fifty cents and because it is a valuable hand-book to refer to when information about students, faculty members, fraternities and sororities, organizations and student activities is desired, students are advised to purchase the remaining copies at once.

The new directory made its debut somewhat earlier than the 1919-1920 pamphlet, which was ready for distribution November 24.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Bryan Predicted Defeat. LINCOLN.—Before leaving this city Wm. J. Bryan in an interview stated that a democratic defeat was inevitable and the blame is easily placed. The president laid the foundations for the disaster and Governor Cox completed the structure. The president attempted to drive out of public life every democrat who dared to differ from him even in minute details, while he made no effort to strengthen the democrats who made him the keeper of their conscience. Governor Cox, instead of repairing the injury done by the president, aggravated the situation by the manner in which he avoided domestic issues and misrepresented the position of the republican party on the league issue which he declared to be paramount.

Cox Sends Congratulations. DAYTON, O.—Governor James M. Cox today formally conceded defeat by sending a message of congratulation to Senator Warren G. Harding. The message read: "I'm the spirit of America I accept the decision of the majority, tender as the defeated candidate my congratulations, and

CORNHUSKER TO BE "NEBRASKA ANNUAL"

Not "Victory Annual" or "Service Book," Says Staff—Student Body to Help Choose Material.

The days of "Victory Annuals," "Service Books" and all those things has passed. That is why this year the managers of the big 1921 Cornhusker have chosen to call their book the "Nebraska Annual."

But to leave the book with merely a name is not the plan of the Cornhusker staff. The "Nebraska Annual" in fact as well as in name is going to be deserving of the title that the managers have given it.

Not satisfied with trusting to their own judgment as to what towns would be representative towns of Nebraska, the editor and business manager have decided to let every student in the University or rather every loyal Cornhusker a chance to get in on the big game of choosing the material for the annual.

Daily Nebraskan to Help. In order to insure a representative vote of students on this matter, the co-operation of the Daily Nebraskan has been obtained to assist in getting the vote. In one edition of the Daily Nebraskan next week, a coupon will be published which students can clip and use as a ballot.

Each subscriber of the Nebraskan will in this way get one vote on the matter. Each student will vote for the town or city that the wants represented in the Cornhusker. The votes will be deposited in ballot boxes on various places on the campus.

After the votes have been counted, the twenty-five towns and cities receiving the highest number of votes (Continued on Page Four)

Green Goblins To Give Scholarship

The Green Goblins, Freshmen honorary society, are planning a benefit dance in the near future for the purpose of obtaining funds to present a scholarship prize for the man and co-ed who stand highest in scholarship in the Freshman class this semester.

The date for the dance, which will be open to all University students, has not been determined, but will be announced later. The prize has not yet been announced but will be on exhibition before long. This party is only a part of the program being conducted by the Green Goblins to further the best interests of the entering Freshman class.

LAWS AND ENGINEERS TO TANGLE SATURDAY

Barristers and Mechanics Will Lock Horns in First Inter-College Game of the Season.

Varsity Men and Freshmen Barred from Both Elevens—Large Crowd Expected.

The Laws and Engineers tangle horns Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock on Nebraska field in the first inter-college grid game of the season. Members of both colleges have been practicing for weeks and the struggle promises to be closely contested. Twenty-five cents will be charged at the gate. The winning team plans to give a feast to the members of the opposing squad with the proceeds of the battle.

The University band will be on the Athletic field to help inject pep into the game. Sections will be especially reserved for students from both the Law and Engineering College. Each group will be led in yells by its own cheer leaders.

Varsity and Freshmen Barred. All members of the Varsity and Freshman squads who are registered either in the Law or Engineering College will be ineligible to play Saturday. Glen Baldrige and "Lum" Doyle will officiate at the game.

The Laws have had three teams out for practice several afternoons and some excellent grid material has shown on the horizon. From forty to fifty Engineers have been reporting for practice on the field north of the Social Science building each day. (Continued on Page Four)

PLAN FOR BIG PARADE ON ARMISTICE DAY

American Legion Prepares for Holiday Celebration—All Ex-Service Men Urged to Participate.

At a meeting of the University Post of the American Legion, plans were almost completed for the University section of the parade on Armistice Day. It has been especially emphasized that all ex-service men in the University take part in this parade. The men are to be grouped according to the rank they held in the army. Dean Buck, chairman of the committee on the University parts of this parade, said in his speech last night before the meeting that the success of the parade depended upon personal enthusiasm and personal canvass. Every man must make a special effort to see that every man eligible for the parade takes part.

Half Holiday Declared. The University has declared a holiday on the afternoon of November 11. The parade will form at 2 o'clock and will be led by the University cadet band. Other plans have not been completed yet.

Later during the meeting F. L. Fassett gave a talk on the formation of an association of veterans of the past wars.

Registration in Law College this Week

In order that case books may be ordered and programs perfected for the second semester, an informal registration will be conducted in the Law College this week, according to an announcement made by Dean Warren A. Seavey Wednesday.

Second and third-year men in the college are asked to consult the Dean before Saturday night in regard to plans for the second term.

PENN STATE NEXT ON HUSKER LIST

PENN STATE NEXT—Schulte's Tribe Leaves New York to Invade Quaker Territory Where Gridiron Classic Will Be Played.

Morale Very High

Nebraskans Can Defeat Bezedek's Team, Say Eastern Experts—Squad in Excellent Physical Shape.

The Husker football party journeyed from New York to State College, Pa., yesterday where they will battle with the Penn State aggregation on Saturday. The entire party was in high spirits after their very successful showing against the Rutgers eleven, whom they defeated, 28 to 0, on Tuesday. Rutgers was defeated by a larger score than any of the Husker enthusiasts expected and the fourteen point money on Penn State, which was so plentiful before the Rutgers contest, has entirely disappeared. Eastern experts say they expect Nebraska to give the Quakers a good drubbing and all the Husker followers have high hopes that their warriors will play the same style of football that they displayed in the Polo Grounds battle.

All-American Possibilities.

Several of Coach Schulte's proteges showed a class of football Tuesday that may put them on the all-American team. Probably the most brilliant star of the game was Wright, the speedy Husker halfback. He made repeated gains of from five to fifty yards and was largely instrumental in taking the ball within scoring distance for Nebraska. Wright is the fastest man in the Husker back field and great things are expected of him in the Penn State game. Pucelik, Hartley and Swanson also showed great form. Pucelik blocked several of the Rutgers' punts and played a stellar defensive game. Hartley smashed the Rutgers line and skirted the ends for repeated gains. Swanson made two of Nebraska's four touchdowns and when the Huskers punted, downed the Rutgers pilot in his tracks without fail.

Notre Dame vs. Penn State.

There has been some rumor of matching Notre Dame and Penn State in a post-season game for the undisputed (Continued on Page Four)
