WEDDINGS.

Ertle-Ashton.
The marriage of Bess Ertle to Ashton took place at Geneva last Wednesday at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. It was a simple home wedding, the immediate relatives being the only witnesses of the ceremony. Mrs. Ashton was a member of Delta Zeta. She was graduated from the University School of Music in 1919.

Sommer-Baker.

The marriage of Miss Elsa Sommer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sommer, to Gordon M. Baker of Charleston, S. C., took place Tuesday in Casper, Wyo. Mrs. Baker attended the University of Nebraska for the past three years where she was a member of Alpha Xi Delta. Mr. Baker attended Georgia Technical College. Mr. and Mrs. Baker will make their home in Casper.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5.

Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained at their annual fall party in the ball room of the Lincoln hotel Friday evening. Decorations suggestive of the autumn season were used. Chaperons were Prof. and Mrs. Roy E. Cochran, Prof. and Mrs. W. F. Dann, Mrs. McHenry and Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Jones. Out-of-town guests were Nancy Mulst, Polly Richey, Pauline Coad, Mildred Weston, Lois Thompson and Dorothy Cavanaugh, all of Omaha; Hallie Minor, Hastings; Bessie Yort, Gladys Lovelace, Falls City; Katherine Colwell, Pawnee City; Helen Cook, Cook; Mae Regan, Grand Island; Myrtle Olsen, Weeping Water, and Adele Plumer, Council Bluffs. Dorothy Rogers of Lincoln, was also a guest.

Kappa Alpha Theta.

The Freshmen of Kappa Alpha Theta entertained the upperclassmen at a dancing party Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Farrens. Black and gold, the sorority colors were used throughout the house as the color scheme in the decorations. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Farrens, Mrs. Ida Hill, and Mrs. Burt of Omaha.

Xi Delta.

Xi Delta entertained Friday afternoon from 3 to 6 at Ellen Smith Hall for Freshmen and Sophomore girls. The early part of the afternoon was spent in dancing and later a program was given. Refreshments were served.

Phi Kappa Psi.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hays of Lincoln, entertained fifteen members of the active chapter of Phi Kappa Psi at a dinner dance in the chapter house. The rooms were decorated with crimson and green streamers and jardiniere of chrysanthemums. Small tables, upon which were placed candle-labras of red and green, were scattered throughout the house, giving the rooms the appearance of a roof garden. Corsage bouquets of roses and violets were given to the girls. A seven-course dinner was served. During intermission punch was served in the dining room. Continuous orchestra music was furnished throughout the evening. An informal luncheon after the party was given by the host and hostess at the Brown Betty tea room. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harnsbarger of Ashland.

Acacia.

Acacia was host to twenty couples at a house dance. The rooms were decorated in black and gold, the fraternity colors. Lamps shined with these colors blended with the decorations. Serpentine paper was given out to the guests during the evening. Each girl was given a red rose as a favor. Punch was served during the intermission.

Alpha Theta Chi.

Alpha Theta Chi entertained thirty couples at a house dance. Decorations were of moss green and old gold. Refreshments were served. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hinds. Out-of-town guests were Miss Margaret Todd and H. J. Weith, both of Omaha.

Pi Kappa Phi.

About thirty couples were present at the Pi Kappa Phi dance at Ellen Smith Hall Friday evening. The affair was given by the Freshmen of that fraternity. The chaperons were Prof. and Mrs. Paul H. Grummann and Dean and Mrs. W. A. Seavey. An act from the Liberty furnished entertainment during the intermission.

when the refreshments, cake and ice cream, carrying out the fraternity colors, yellow and white, were served.

Art Club Circus.

The Art Club entertained all new students in the art class Friday evening. The evening commenced with a circus parade. Side shows were held and the participants appeared almost as good as professionals. Impromptu stunts were given and were announced in order of their appearance by the circus manager. Every one wore a costume fitting the occasion. The chaperons were Miss Gertrude Moore and Hermine Stellar, art instructors. The idea of the circus was carried out also in the refreshments. Ice cream cones, pink lemonade and popcorn balls were served.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6.

Phi Delta Theta.

Phi Delta Theta entertained ninety couples at a dance given at the Lincoln hotel ballroom. Palms and ferns served as decorations. The chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lau, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ryans, and Prof. and Mrs. R. D. Scott. The out-of-town guests were Charles Peterson, Brooks Vance, Crawford Follmer, Robert Wallace, Monroe Gleason, James Ingwerson, Ward Kelly and James Pollard, all from Omaha.

Phi Gamma Delta.

Phi Gamma Delta gave an Armistice dance Saturday evening. Fifty couples attended. The house was decorated with flags and the patriotic color scheme was carried out.

Delta Zeta.

Delta Zeta upperclassmen were the guests of Ruth Siefken and Naomi Buck at Harvard over the week-end. Various social affairs were planned in their honor. They returned to Lincoln Sunday afternoon.

The Delta Zeta pledges gave a dance at the chapter house Saturday night. It was an informal affair; they made fudge and toasted marshmallows.

Block and Bridle Club.

About one hundred and fifty couples attended the dance given by the Block and Bridle Club Saturday night. The party was held at Antelope park. The proceeds are to send Nebraska men to the annual international stock judging contest about November 20. The chaperons for the party were Dean and Mrs. Burnett, Prof. and Mrs. Sieven and Prof. and Mrs. Gramlich.

Chi Omega.

The Freshmen of Chi Omega entertained their upperclassmen Saturday night at the chapter house. It was a costume party representing the Greenwich Village. The house was artistically decorated in posters to carry out the idea of the village. Whistles were given as favors. Prof. and Mrs. Senning, Miss Mauette Anderson and Mrs. Koehler acted as chaperons.

W. A. A.

About seventy-five co-eds attended the annual W. A. A. hard-times party Saturday afternoon. The party was an entirely informal affair. A clever program was given, consisting of a dancing number by Ruth Ellsworth and Dorothy Seacrest, a reading by Irma McGowan and a skit by Adelle Dettman and Betty Clark. After the program the afternoon was spent in playing games and dancing. The refreshments were served informally, consisting of apples and cider.

Girls Cornhusker Party in December

The annual girls' Cornhusker Party has been scheduled for Friday, December 3, in the Armory. Definite plans have not yet been completed for the program. It has been announced, however, that only eight societies or organizations will be allowed to give skits this year. The first eight groups that apply will be permitted to present stunts. Weird and fantastic sketches featured the party of last year when nearly one thousand Nebraska co-eds helped to make the affair a success.

Mystic Fish Plans All-Freshman Mixer

The new members of Mystic Fish, honorary Freshmen girls' organization, are planning an all-Freshman mixer for first-year co-eds to be held in Ilen Smith Hall on November 16. Definite plans for the party will be announced soon. Members of the society for this year are: Ruth Miller, president; Myrtle Boulden, Inez Coppon, Willa Perkins, Margaret Wattles, Harriett Boggus, Alice Bacock, Dorothea Thomas, Elva Ohlson, Jean Roerts, Kathleen Stitt, Nellie Starboard, Florence Garutt, Margaret Hager, Neze Pergory, Myra Lunner, and Opa Shick.

"Strife, there has been, and dissection and turmoil, but to eyes that see the broad outlines, the Great Master of Ceremonies has been carrying on his program with a sure hand."
