THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11.
Gamma Phi Beta.
Pi chapter of Gamma Phi Beta celebrated Founder's day Thursday with a dinner at the chapter house for active members and Lincoln alumnae. A color scheme of brown and mode, the sorority colors, was carried out in the decorations and menu. After the dinner a program was given consisting of a stunt by the Freshmen, a burlesque on Romeo and Juliet and vocal solos by Elma Dykes, Gladys

Kleinke and Ruth Hunting. Lincoln alumnae present were Mrs. Leon Decker, Mrs. Clarence Hopewell, Mrs. Edward Albright, Miss Marguerite McPhee, Ethel De Young, Bertha Helser, Iva Hayter and Elma Dykes. Gamma Phi Beta was founded November 11, 1874, at Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12.
Ag Club.
The Ag Club entertained one hundred couples at a dancing party at the Lincoln hotel Friday. Decorations were in keeping with the season. Novel refreshments were served during the evening. Members of the faculty at the State Farm were invited as chaperons.

University Commercial Club.
One hundred couples attended the dance given by the University Commercial Club Friday night. The party was in the form of a carnival; whistles and serpentine were given as favors. The dance was held at the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce and was chaperoned by Dean and Mrs. Le Rossignol and Prof. and Mrs. Ivey. Decorations were carried out in the Commercial Club colors.

Mystic Fish.
Mystic Fish entertained at a party at Ellen Smith Hall Friday from 8 to 6 for Freshman girls. A program was given the first part of the afternoon, and part of the afternoon was spent in dancing. Refreshments were served.
