UNIVERSITY PRESS CLUB ORGANIZES

Over Hundred News Writers Out at Meeting Called to Form Organization.

To Foster Journalism

Committee Selected to Draw Up Constitution and Rules for New Association.

A University of Nebraska Press Club was formed Tuesday evening at a meeting of 130 students of journalism and others interested in the newspaper field, in room 101 of the Law building. Oswald Black, '22, and Story Harding, '22, were elected temporary president and secretary of the organization. Ninety-five persons signed the papers which declared them charter members of the club.

Oswald Black acted as chairman during the meeting. It was decided that the purpose of the society will be to foster and promote work and interest in the field of journalism at the University of Nebraska.

Committee on Constitution Formed.

A committee consisting of Story Harding, Frank Patty and Jack Austin was elected from the floor to draw up a constitution and by-laws and to decide how members should be received.

This committee will report at the next meeting of the club which will be held in Law 101, Tuesday evening, December 14.

Chandler Trimble of the Department of English, with whom the idea for the club originated, was present at the meeting and explained the object of the organization. He also spoke of the relation of journalism as a profession to the legal profession and told why the formation of a society for the promotion of journalistic interests was as necessary as the formation of a society to foster legal interests.

Speeches by Lawrence and Fogg. James E. Lawrence, city editor of the Lincoln Daily Star, and instructor of journalism in the University, in a few words heartily endorsed the plan of forming such a club. He expressed the desire that the club should have an 100 per cent enrollment of newspaper workers in Lincoln and others interested in journalism in the University. He said that every university and college should have such a club.

Prof. M. M. Fogg of the School of Journalism at the University, said: "This stirs up the old memories of my connection with journalism at the University of Nebraska. We had a press club, limited in membership, before the war, but it died. I'm glad we're about to form another organization of similar character." Professor Fogg is the father of Theta Sigma Phi, women's honorary journalistic fraternity, at Nebraska.

Permanent officers will be elected at the second meeting of the club, December 14, when constitution and by-laws will be submitted for ratification by the committee.

Sigma Delta Chi Active. Sigma Delta Chi, men's honorary journalistic fraternity, sponsored the formation of the Press Club. Outside speakers of national prominence from among the members of the Nebraska Press Association will be asked to address the club when that group of state editors meets in Lincoln during the first of next year. Theta Sigma Phi is expected to throw its influence toward making the club a vital organization in the life of the school.

Alyne O'Laughlin, president of that society, said yesterday: "Theta Sigma Phi will back the club to a member." The press clubs at Columbia, Princeton, Wisconsin, Missouri and Oklahoma are among the most active professional societies in those schools.

One thousand Rotarians will witness the University of Nebraska-Michigan Aggie game next Saturday on Nebraska field. The Rotarians will be the guests of the Lincoln Rotary Club at the meeting of the state organizations of the clubs. The Kiwanis and Knife and Fork Club will assist the Rotarians.

At 2 o'clock the guests will be met by representatives of the club and sent to the Chamber of Commerce. A parade will form and march to Nebraska field.

Church Affiliation Sunday this Week

Sunday, November 21, is church affiliation Sunday. The observance of the Sunday before Thanksgiving, as Go-to-Church Sunday, has become an annual custom at the University of Nebraska. Every student of the University is invited and urged to attend the church of his choice.

At many of the churches, opportunity will be given for students to unite with the church, either as regular members, or affiliate members.

Chancellor Avery says: "It is one of the fine customs that may well become an all-University tradition, and every student is urged to help make it such."

The "Committee of 200" has done much to further this movement and they want all the students to accept his invitation.

HENDRICKS INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Chemistry Professor Struck by Car and Seriously Hurt Tuesday.

Instructor Was on Way to Attend Chemistry Society Meeting.

Prof. B. C. Hendricks of the Chemistry Department, is in the Lincoln sanitarium in a serious condition as a result of an accident Tuesday evening. He was running to catch a street car near Twenty-seventh and Goldrege streets, on his way to the University to attend a meeting of the Chemical Society, when he was injured.

Professor Hendricks does not know what happened to him. He was kicked up in an unconscious condition in the street and was rushed to the Lincoln sanitarium where he is reported to be still in a serious condition. An operation will be performed this morning, according to the authorities at the hospital.

Mrs. Hendricks and the professor's mother are at Rochester, Minn., where his mother is undergoing medical treatment. A sister of Professor Hendricks' was at his home and looking after his two little children.

SURPRISE SKITS PLANNED FOR THANKSGIVING PARTY

All-University Affair Stated for November 20 in Accord with Fall Holiday.

Surprise skits and Thanksgiving stunts will feature the program for the all-University party which has been scheduled for Saturday evening, November 20, at 8:30 o'clock in the Armory. An admission fee of thirty cents will be charged. This affair will be in keeping with the fall holiday. A meeting of the Reception committee was held Tuesday evening when plans were perfected for the entertainment of more than a thousand students.

Although the committees have had only a week to prepare for the party, the results accomplished so far indicate that the affair will be a success, according to J. Wilber Wolf, general chairman of the party committee.

Committee members have had several meetings to make final arrangements for the party. "They are all working hard for the success of the party," said Chairman Wolf Tuesday.

Good Checking Facilities. F. K. Reed has been appointed chairman of the Checking committee. Other committee chairmen for the affair were announced last week.

The members of the Michigan Aggie team will be guests of honor. The party will also be given for alumni who may come to Lincoln to witness the clash with the Northerners Saturday.

At the University of Iowa the manager of the Howling 300 is having some trouble in keeping that number of men in line and dateless. Last Sunday he came out with combined "eat and plea" to the men to stay in the howling section—even though the girl must go with another man.

ARTS AND SCIENCE CONVOCATION TODAY

Students to Attend Meeting at the Temple This Morning at 11 O'clock.

Chancellor Avery and Dean Buck to Address Representative Gathering.

Classes will be dismissed today at 11 o'clock for Arts and Science students to enable them to attend the special convocation for students and faculty of that college in the Temple theater. The meeting was postponed from Tuesday morning at the same time.

The convocation will be addressed by Dean P. M. Buck, head of the Arts and Science College. Chancellor Samuel Avery will speak on "The Science of Art."

Prof. Donald McFayden of the History Department, will discuss "Humanity in Art." Some of the broader purposes and ideals of the Arts and Science College, which make it a significant force in the educational world of today in its relation to the future, will be defined by Prof. Paul H. Grummann, head of the University Fine Arts School and chairman of University convocations. He has chosen "The Fine Arts" as the subject of his talk.

This meeting marks the first college convocation to be held on the campus this year. All Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors and members of the University instructional force of the Arts College are especially urged to be present in the interests of the college. Members of Professor Fogg's class in News Writing have planned to report the speeches which will feature the convocation. This will give them practical opportunity to report speech-making in connection with work in that course.

Columbia University students who aspire to tread the slick and tricky path of creative literature are proud of the reappearance, for the first time since the war, of the Morningside Magazine. The policy of the first Morningside Magazine was "to publish stories and verses and things that are generally uninteresting. Essays and news, in fact, all wholesome bread and meat, we shall not attempt to furnish." The latest issue drew a complimentary letter from Dean W. E. Hawkes of the faculty.

'Sell Candy on Honor System,' Says Husker Fraternity Man

It is a well-known fact that the economic world is in upheaval. All the old economic theories are being torn down. New ideas are springing up and being tested. One can hardly imagine so great a movement sweeping the world and missing the fraternities in the University of Nebraska. Nor has it done this.

An innovation in the method of selling candy has recently been introduced into a certain fraternity. One of the members of that fraternity declined to go into competition with the corner drug stores. He purchases candy bars at wholesale and leaves them in a convenient place on the porch. Whenever a man wants some candy he either leaves his dime in the cash-box or charges it to himself on the charge card. Each night the man in charge checks up the sales.

The customers are absolutely on their own honor. "Honor system," you ask. You bet! That's the way to beat H. C. L.

Dairy Club to Furnish Program

Milo Sherman and H. H. Hilpert will lead the affirmative and Paul B. Bower and Elmer Clark will lead the negative in a debate of the question: Resolved that it is more practical for a dairy club member to spend his summer vacation on a dairy farm than to work as an official supervisor. Plans are to be formulated and reports from the various committees will be submitted for consideration, pertaining to the Varsity Dairy Show to be held December 4 at a business meeting at the close of the program.

LINCOLN POPULAR CITY WITH STUDENTS

Vote for Capital City Nearly Double That of Nearest Competitor Omaha.

Wakefield Draws Large Number of Ballots in Tuesday Voting.

Lincoln is the most popular city in the state with students of the University, according to the outcome of the vote for places in the Nebraska section of the 1921 Cornhusker. Most students were of the opinion that the local students would outvote those from any other place and the 211 votes indicates this.

Omaha received an extraordinarily large number of votes for the number of students from the metropolis but it is supposed that many students living near Omaha voted for her. The votes for Omaha numbered 144 while York and Beatrice were tied for third and fourth places with 80 votes each. The remainder of the list of twenty-five receiving the highest number of votes includes most of the larger places in the state with some of the smaller ones interspersed.

One of the surprises was the large vote cast for the small town of Wakefield, Neb. It is suspected that some Wakefield booster, anxious to give his town a chance bought up a lot of Nebraskaans so as to use the coupons for voting.

About fifty towns in the state received one and two votes probably from the only students in the University who are from those places. One loyal student from Stuart, Neb., cast his vote for his home town and added that it was the "Greatest Hay Shipping Point in the World."

SENIOR AND JUNIOR LAWS PLAN SMOKER FOR FROSH

Elks Home to Be Scene of First Annual Entertainment for Underclassmen.

Final arrangements have been made for the smoker to be given for members of the Freshman Law class. At a meeting of the Junior and Senior Laws, November 9, they decided to sponsor a reception and smoker for the Freshman Law students. At a later meeting they set Tuesday evening, November 23, as the date for this occasion. This evening was selected as the most appropriate because of the fact that it is the last evening before Thanksgiving vacation. The smoker will be held at the Elks home on Thirteenth and P streets.

The program will consist chiefly of music and short talks by various members of the Law College. Regent Judson of Omaha, will address the Laws at this gathering. J. J. Ledwith has consented to furnish apples to make the cider to be served.

The committee in charge of the program consists of Harold Porterfield, chairman; Earl Wilson, Alfred Cerney, Walter Herbert, Rodney Dunlap and Charles Samuelson.

The Laws plan to make this entertainment an annual affair in honor of the Freshmen. The purpose is mainly to assist the Freshmen to form acquaintances among the Junior and Senior Laws. The expense will be pro-rated among the upperclassmen in the College of Law.

HUSKERS IN REAL SCRIMMAGE TILT

Schulte Drives Varsity Through Genuine Practice Grind in Tuesday Afternoon Session.

Aggies Are Sturdy Foe

Freshmen Present Stiff Defense Using Enemy Plays to Good Advantage Against Varsity.

The first real scrimmage of the week was held last evening for the Varsity. Coach Schulte sent his men against the Freshmen for an hour and a half of stiff work. The Freshmen were able to hold the Varsity down to two touchdowns and at many times outplayed the Varsity. The Frosh got away for a number of big gains but were unable to score. Michigan Aggie plays were used against the Varsity by the Freshmen and were good for substantial gains many times.

The game Saturday promises to be a real battle for Nebraska if comparative scores are to be considered. Coach Schissler witnessed the Michigan Aggie-Chicago Y. M. C. A. College game last Saturday when the Aggies took the Chicago men into camp to the tune of 82 to 0. Earlier in the season Kalamazoo defeated the Michigan Aggies and the Chicago Y. M. C. A. College defeated the Kalamazoo team. The Michigan Aggies come back Saturday and beat the Chicago team 82 to 0. If these scores are to be considered the Cornhuskers are going to meet some real opposition when they mix with the Aggies Saturday.

Huskies in Fair Shape.

The Huskies are in pretty fair shape after their long trip east and the Kansas invasion and should therefore give a good account of themselves in the battle Saturday. The Michigan team will average 180 pounds to the man. The smallest man on the team weighs 165 pounds so Nebraska will be on a par with the Aggies as far as weight is concerned.

A great deal of the time was spent in breaking up the Michigan formations and forward passes as executed by the first-year men last night but the Freshmen got away with a number of forward passes which the Varsity were unable to stop. Coach Schulte as well as the men are anxious to finish the season with two victories that will more than cancel the two defeats already chalked up against the Huskies and cover up the tie which the Huskies were forced to accept with the Kansas.

Scrimmage Again Tonight.

The Varsity and the Freshmen regulars will scrimmage for fifteen minutes this evening. The scrimmage should be full of fight since the Freshmen are anxious to down the Varsity before the season closes. Coach Schulte will make no definite statement as to the outcome of the game Saturday but is of the opinion that the followers of the Huskies will see one of the greatest games staged on Nebraska field this year. The Aggie aggregation are coached by the famous Potay Clark, Illinois star of a number of years ago. He was noted for his ability in University as a football player and it is expected that the Michigan men will have consumed some of his cleverness.

News Students to Cover Convocation

Practical training in the reporting of a speech will be given the members of Professor Fogg's News Writing class this morning. They have been assigned to cover the addresses by Chancellor Avery, Dean Buck and Professor McFayden at the convocation of the Arts and Science College in the Temple theater at 11 o'clock. The assignment is to write an accurate and fair report, on the basis of class-room instructions dealing especially with the ethics of speech-reporting—accuracy, fairness, proportion—and submit the "copy" promptly. It will be received at U 112 until 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Front seats in the theater will be reserved for the seventy members.

A Freshman is not allowed to sit at the head of a table in the cafeteria at the University of Virginia. Freshmen are also required to attend all athletic contests.
