The Nebraska Cornhuskers closed the 1920 football season Turkey day when the Washington State Cougars overcame a thirteen point lead and defeated the Scarlet and Cream, 21 to 20. The past season has been one of the greatest in the history of the University. The Nebraska schedule included such teams as Notre Dame, Penn State, Rutgers, Washington State, Kansas and other football aggregations of note in the football world. The record made for the season of 1920 is one of the greatest on record at the University. Three defeats are recorded against the Huskers, with one tie and five victories to their credit.

The Washington State aggregation, touted as one of the greatest teams on the Pacific Coast, proved their ability and lived up to their reputation when they were able to overtake the Huskers in the fourth period of the game and turn an almost sure defeat into victory. The Huskers were able to pile up a big lead in the first three periods of play but the aerial work of the Cougar backs proved their downfall and when the final whistle blew the men from the West had a one point margin on Coach Schulte's proteges.

Game a Fierce Contest.

The game without a doubt is one of the greatest seen on Nebraska field in some time. The Huskers went into the game for blood and the result was twenty points in the Nebraska scoring column. The entire Husker team was in every play and fought every minute of the game and were able to spill the Cougar offense time and again when a big gain seemed certain.

Fred Dale played a wonderful and outstanding offensive game and was one of the Husker's surest ground gainers until forced from the game on account of injuries.

Hubka and Captain Day playing their last games for the Scarlet and Cream were a tower of strength both on the offense and defense. Captain Day stopped the Cougar formations many times before they had done any damage. The Cougar defense was unable to stop the vicious offense put up by the Cornhuskers especially in the second half when the Nebraskans made six first downs in succession. The Cougars braced and held the Huskers for downs on the two yard line.

Statistics of the game show that Nebraska had the Washington State men outclassed in the number of first downs and passes completed and gained considerable more ground than did the Cougars.

Dale was the first to score for Nebraska when he intercepted a Cougar pass and raced for a touchdown. The Washington State aggregation were not to be stopped however, on the kickoff they made six first downs resulting in their first touchdown and tying the score. The Huskers' next

FOOTBALL MEN.

All football men are asked to meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Townsend studio, between M and N on Eleventh street, for picture of 1920 squad. By order of Captain Day.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL.

There will be a meeting of all Freshmen basketball candidates at 3:30 Wednesday afternoon in the Armory.

Many Students Attend Church Affiliation Day

Three hundred and fourteen University students were received into Lincoln churches November 21, according to the latest reports compiled by those in charge of Church Affiliation Sunday.

Invitations were sent out to every student in the University, asking him to be present at some church. There was a large response, especially at some of the down-town churches. Of the 314 who joined the Lincoln churches under the affiliation plan, quite a number were received into the churches for the first time.

The affiliation plan, as worked out provides that the student, when he joins a Lincoln church, shall at the same time retain his membership in his home church. The Lincoln membership shall remain in force until such time as the student leaves the University.

The list is not yet complete, as all the churches have not reported. The effort to have students affiliate with some church while in the city will be continued during the year, under the direction of the Committee of 200, by whom the invitations were sent out.

BERLIN.—A granddaughter of John D. Rockefeller, Miss Cormick, has been engaged by the Vienna Burg theater to play juvenile roles according to the Neu Berliner. Miss Cormick is the daughter of a daughter of John D. Rockefeller, and studied for the stage in Zurich.

GIRLS' CORNHUSKER PARTY THIS FRIDAY

Big Annual Affair to Be Held in Armory Friday Evening.

The big annual girls' Cornhusker party, a costume affair which is held at the end of each football season, will be held in the Armory, Friday, December 3, at 7:30 o'clock. This cherished Nebraska tradition will be under the direction of the W. S. G. A. and promises to be one of the biggest events of the year. Friday evening has been declared a closed night, and the girls' costume party and men's banquet are expected to include every loyal Nebraska student.

The Husker football will appear in action at the girls' party, although the faces of the gridiron veterans may be slightly changed from those which have appeared on Nebraska field this season. Just who will be on the team is reserved by those in charge as one of the many surprises to be sprung during the evening.

Only Girls Attend.

Every girl who attends—and only girls are allowed to come to the party, will come in costume. In previous years the costumes are said to have covered every conceivable kind of character, as well as many of the circus animals. The committee is planning many features which have never appeared at the Cornhusker party. An admission of thirty-five cents will be charged to help defray the expenses of the entertainment and of refreshments.

The list of stunts was announced to be held down to ten, in order that the entertainment would not take all of the evening. Only the first applicants were taken, although many organizations asked for a place on the program after all places had been filled. The organizations which will appear on the program are as follows:

Delta Gamma, Pi Beta Phi, Alpha Chi Omega, 1232 R Freshman dormitory; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Kappa Alpha Theta, Delta Zeta, Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Phi and Chi Omega.

The names of the stunts being prepared have been announced in two cases. The Chi Omega group will present "The Modern Hamlet" and the Alpha Omicron Pi girls will give "Rosalind."

The Black Masques and the Silver Serpents, Senior and Junior girls' honorary societies, will have concessions. In addition to the card of the W. S. G. A., which is making plans for the party, the following committee from the council has been selected to help: Gertrude Patterson, Mary McCoy, Elizabeth Jones, Ethel Curry and Elfrida Nuremberger.

Thief Gets Lock-jaw in Hands And Grabs Camouflage Nugget

Many pieces of gilt plaster of Paris cast on the ground beneath a window of the University Museum Monday morning told the story of an unsuccessful attempt Sunday night to rob the school of a supposedly gold nugget valued at $140,000. But the thief was fooled!

Nuggets of that precious metal are not apt to be reclining peacefully in glass cases in a public museum—especially nuggets worth $140,000. Thieves, however, do not develop the power of reasoning, and take what seems to them "well worth their while." Such is always the case after they are afflicted with a severe case of lock-jaw in the hands. No clue to the identity of the prowler has been discovered.

The cast was an imitation of the largest gold nugget in the world. It was plated with gold valued at about $18. The cast was inclosed in a glass collection case on the third floor of the building. The thief pried open one of the windows of the first floor and entered the Museum.

The evidence offered shows that without disturbing anything else, he went directly to the third floor and broke the glass case containing the camouflage mint. Evidently he was a fairly good judge of values, for, finding that it was not solid gold, he threw it out the open window and broke it. It was thus that the janitor found it early Monday morning.

LARGE RESPONSE FOR BASKETBALL MATERIAL

Goody Number of Huskers Out to Make Indoor Quintet this Season.

The first call for basketball candidates brought out a large amount of promising material for the Varsity team last evening. Coach Schissler was very well pleased with the turnout and the prospects for a winning team are very bright. The shortage of time is going to handicap the development of the team to a certain extent but barring accidents Nebraska should be represented by one of the fastest cage fives in the history of the school. Last year's team is practically intact with the exception of Schellenberg and Pickett. Captain Bailey is of the opinion that the Husker quintet will be just as clever as last year's team or more so.

Some of last year's veterans who turned out for the workout last evening are Captain Bailey, Austin Smith, Bekins, Monte Munn, Jungmeier, Paty and Newman will be in suit tomorrow evening. A large number of last year's Freshmen and members of last year's squad were out in suit also. The promising candidates who made their appearance last evening are as follows: Baleau, Munger, Dobish, Summers, Collins, Norton, Carmen, Hoy, Spacht, Haverley, Warren, Kohl, Williams, Cyprean, Hauser and Hamilton.

Coach Schissler spent last evening going through the rudiments of the game and getting the men used to the floor. A little passing was practiced as well as basket shooting.

NEBRASKA SCORES IN CROSS-COUNTRY

University Wins Seven Out of Ten
Firsts in Omaha
Meet.

Thanksgiving was a banner day for Nebraska in cross-country running. The main event of the day was the race at Omaha in which the University captured seven out of the ten first places. The order in which the men finished is as follows:

1. Kretzler.
2. Allen.
3. Slemmons.
4. Miles.
5. Claywittier.
7. Beiser.
10. Case.

The trophy remains with the Omaha Medical School owing to the fact that the first three men finished in the race are Medics at the University school in Omaha. All of these men are University men but the Medical College retains the cup. The race was run over a three and one-quarter mile course. The time for the race was nineteen minutes, this is thirty seconds better than the previous record which was held by McMaster who is the present coach of cross-country running at the University.

The Y. M. C. A. supervised a race in Lincoln which was won by a group of University students who run under the title of the Engineer's Club. C. F. Bowman was first with Anderson and Hyde finishing second and third respectively. The time for the race was 26 minutes and 45 seconds.

Sophomore Mixer to Be a Peppy Affair

The Sophomores are making elaborate preparations for a "peppy" mixer to be held in the Armory Saturday evening. A six-piece orchestra will furnish music for the dance. The committee in charge will provide a check stand to take care of wraps. Refreshments will be served. An admission fee of forty cents will be charged. Not only will this admit one to the entertainment, but it will provide for refreshments and use of the check stand.

The Armory will be prepared to accommodate a large number of students. A member of the committee made the statement, "The attendance of every Sophomore is looked forward to."

Another committee member said, "The only way to make this party a success is to come yourself. The more there the more fun everyone will have."

CORNHUSKER CAMPAIGN IS LAUNCHED TODAY

University Annual Stages Drive for Subscriptions this Week.

Thirty University co-eds, filled with the vigor of Lincoln's first touch of winter, thronged into the Student Activities office by 8 a. m. today to get subscription books to start to work in the 1921 Cornhusker subscription drive as soon as the gong sounded that opened the campaign.

Although bad weather will interfere somewhat with the personal solicitation on the campus for the next two days at least, interest in the campaign is not lagging a bit. Fraternity houses, rooming houses, downtown stores and every other place where there are any loyal Cornhuskers the solicitors are making their way.

Subscribers are required to deposit only $2 at the time they turn in their subscriptions and will give the additional $3 at the time they obtained their annuals next spring. In this way, it will be possible for any student to subscribe even though he is pressed for money at this time. It is expected that better than 500 students, faculty and alumni will put on the tag that lists them with the loyal Nebraskans who have subscribed, for the Cornhusker, before the day is over. Girl solicitors are expected to spend a considerable time today rounding up persons who had previously promised their subscriptions.

Drive Lasts Five Days. The big campaign will last five days winding up at 6 p. m. Saturday. The Cornhusker management will check over the books and announce the winners of the three big prizes as early as possible. The three organizations obtaining the highest number of subscriptions for the annual in the set time of the campaign will be awarded $75, $50 and $25 respectively, for first, second and third places.

It was decided that all sororities dormitory organizations and literary societies should be permitted to take part in the campaign. Representatives of nearly everyone of these organizations were on hand at the Student Activities office when the campaign was launched at 8 o'clock. Competition is going to be unusually strong this year because of the fact that the prize money has been divided up into three purses. In this way, no organization will be forced to look out entirely merely because it finished just a few subscriptions behind some other. Last year, the first and third place organizations were only ten subscriptions behind.

HUSKER BANQUET TO BE HELD THIS WEEK AT LINCOLN

Big Event of Year Will Be Appropriately Celebrated this Fall.

Ticket Number Limited

Part of Tradition of School When all Male Students Make Merry Together.

The banquet board will be the center of attraction Friday night, December 3, at 6:15 o'clock, in the Lincoln hotel ballroom, when Nebraska men will assemble for the annual Cornhusker banquet. The feast, given in commemoration of the work of the football players, is usually held close on the heels of the football season. Because the 350 tickets validated for last year's banquet were sold within a few days after the first announcement of the event and many University men were turned away the night of the feast, it is urged that tickets be purchased at once for this year's banquet.

The ballroom at the Lincoln hotel has been chosen instead of the dining room this year because of the larger number of guests that can be accommodated. Tickets are selling for $1.75 at all fraternity houses and in the Student Activities office. Fraternities are asked to omit dinner at their chapter houses Friday night and attend the feast in a body.

Valuable as Tradition.

The Cornhusker banquet is one of Nebraska's oldest traditions. Three years ago it almost died out because of the hilarity and noisy merriment displayed. A few loyal alumni revived the affair, however, and banquets continued to be held, although no rowdysm was apparent.

"There will be absolutely no vandalism or boisterous conduct displayed at the 1920 banquet," is the edict of University authorities. "A permanent University tradition cannot let itself be forever barred by the actions of a few disloyal and indifferent Nebraskans." This year the old Cornhusker spirit and life will be present, according to them, but the one-time apparent rowdysm will be dampened by the formality of the regular banquet procedure.

Last Year's Banquet.

The banquet of the past school year, held January 16, 1920, in charge of the Innocents Society, was successful from every standpoint. Dr. L. D. Young, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Lincoln, acted as toastmaster.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Not Much Work Expected.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—The session of Congress which convenes a week from today will be a curious event. Practically all that will be accomplished will be the completion of the work which the Democrats have begun. The Republicans prefer to wait until Harding comes into office before they commence their legislation.

Harding Sails.

CRISTOBAL, Nov. 30.—President-elect Harding has completed his inspection of the Panama canal with a visit to the fortifications at its eastern entrance and calls on several military and naval stations in the vicinity of Cristobal. They sailed on the steamer Pastores and will reach Norfolk Saturday. Senator Harding will proceed to Washington before his return to Marion.

Offers Appointment to Tumulty.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the President, has been offered by Mr. Wilson an appointment to the customs court of appeals, but has reached no decision with regard to its acceptance. A previous report stated that Mr. Tumulty would enter a law partnership but it was later disclosed that he had reached no definite decision.

Reprisals Have Begun.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 30.—Fifteen warehouses in Liverpool and Batle, a suburb, principally Liverpool cotton warehouses, were set on fire Saturday night. Two of the cotton warehouses in Liverpool were burned out. Gasoline cans and paraffin were found about the premises. The work is believed to have been done by Sinn Feiners.

League Has Sharp Conflict.

GENEVA, Nov. 30.—The question whether countries shall be allowed to control and dispose at will of their natural resources is the subject of a sharp conflict in a committee of the assembly. The contest arose over a resolution by Gustave Ador of Switzerland, setting up a permanent economic and financial commission, one of the duties of which would be to examine measures for preventing monopolies in raw materials and the means of controlling their distribution.

Give Up Arms to Chinese.

HARBIN, Manchuria, Nov. 30.—The anti-bolshevik troops, formerly under General Semenov and Kappel, who have made their way to the Manchurian order under bolshevik pressure from Duna are surrendering their arms to the Chinese for the passage through Manchuria. The surrender is being made under condition that the arms are returned to the men when they leave Chinese territory again on their way eastward.
