INSTALL CHAPTER OF MORTARBOARD

Black Masque Obtains Charter From National Honorary Organization.

INSTITUTED TUESDAY

Has Same Ideals and Traditions as Old Black Masque Society.

The Black Masque chapter of Mortarboard, national honorary senior girls' society, was installed at the University of Nebraska during Christmas vacation when the members of Black Masque who were active last year became charter members. The active chapter was installed Tuesday evening, January 4.

Mortarboard is an organization with ideals and regulations similar to those of the old organization of Black Masque. The traditional custom of tapping the junior girls chosen in the spring as members will be continued. The rules of Mortarboard require that not more than fifteen per cent of the girls in the senior class be members of the chapter in that school. Chapters of Mortarboard have been installed only in Universities of first rank. Some of the neighboring states having chapters in their Universities are Missouri, Colorado, Minnesota, Illinois and Ohio.

Granted Last Summer.

The active organization of Black Masque last year was instrumental in securing the charter. It was granted last summer. Seven of those girls came to Lincoln during Christmas vacation and the installation took place. All the girls who were active members of Black Masque last year are charter members. They are Helen Gilmer, Marian Wyman, Faye Breese, Bertha Helzer, Ruth Hutton, Mary Waters, Ruth Sheldon, Jean Landale, Myra Bishop, Helen Fisher, True Jack, Marian Henninger and Martha Hellner.

All women who have been active or honorary members of Black Masque are now members of Mortarboard. The active chapter was installed by charter members at the home of Ruth McKinney. The active members are Janet Maitland, president; Faye Curry, vice president; Florence Wilcox, secretary-treasurer; Ruth Lindsay, Ada Stidworthy, Hattie Hepperly, Olive Hartley, Rhea Nelson, Ruth McKinney, Helen Nieman, Mary Brownell, Ruth DuBols and Marian Mote. FARMER ORGANIZATIONS IN SESSION AT FARM

Various Agricultural Groups Are Addressed by Many Interesting Speakers.

Ten farmers' organizations held meetings at the University State Farm yesterday. The big afternoon meeting was the Nebraska Farm Bureau Federation at which Elmer Youngs, president, gave his yearly address. The meeting evolved into a discussion as to what line of service the Bureau should undertake first.

Prof. J. H. Frandsen, now with the Capper publications, asserted that the dairy cow is now of immense assistance in becoming the market and saving the financially distressed farmer. The dairy cow produces human food cheaper than any other farm animal in converting roughage and by-products of factories and mills into nourishing foods. A man in the dairy business can endure a crisis of low prices better than those engaged in other branches of farming.

The extension work of the dairy department for 1921 was outlined by Prof. M. N. Lawritson. He urged concentration upon one single problem and the improvement of the breeding of dairy cattle.

Home Economics Meeting.

Community spirit was emphasized by Miss Brown of the Kansas extension service. Modern conveniences are tending to destroy community life and directing farmers toward personal pleasures.

Miss Anna Jurgens of Mingtara, and Mrs. Harry Nigh of Mead, discussed the community spirit phase in its connection with boys and girls of the farm, the mothers' clubs and country churches.

Miss Mary Maxwell of Dakota City, deprecated the way in which ex-service men were treated after they had taken off their uniforms. Mrs. E. F. Pettis of Lincoln, described the work carried on by the citizenship schools of the state.

Wallace Speaks Today.

Mr. Henry Wallace of Des Moines, editor of Wallace's Farmer and prominently mentioned for President-elect Harding's cabinet, will address the Farm Bureau meeting this morning. Today will see the close of all meetings. Officials are unanimous in proclaiming this week as one of the most beneficial in the history of Organized Agriculture.

Students' Snap Shots Wanted for Annual

The Student Life Committee of the 1921 Cornhusker is urging students to turn in their snap shot portraying University and student life. The Cornhusker office is located on the fourth floor of University Hall. These pictures should be in the editor's hands in the next few days.

PLANS ADOPTED FOR SECOND BIG BANQUET

Committee of 200 is Sponsoring Movement—To Promote Life Service Work.

Plans for a big banquet for 1,000 students to be held March 15 under the auspices of the Committee of 200 for the promotion of Life Service Work, were laid at a dinner held Tuesday evening at the Grand hotel. The dinner was attended by about 110 members of the committee for the purpose of discussing plans for the second semester and especially the Life Service Work, which will culminate in the banquet similar to the one held in October at the Scottish Rite Temple, which was attended by 793 students. Dr. John Timothy Stone was the main speaker at this banquet.

At the dinner Tuesday evening, Grace Stuff told of the work of Grace Coppock in China. Miss Coppock is an alumnae of this University and has been in China as a Y. W. C. A. missionary for fourteen years. She is now at the head of the Y. W. C. A. college work in China. The work of Steele Holcombe in Egypt was presented by Harold McMillen. Mr. Holcombe went to Egypt about a year ago under the direction of the Y. M. C. A. Nebraska University men raised money last year for the carrying on of his work in Egypt. The Committee of 200 has undertaken the support of the work of these two Nebraska graduates who are working in foreign fields because they think it of interest to all the religious organizations on the campus.

Bishop Stuntz Main Speaker.

Bishop Homer C. Stuntz will be the main speaker at the banquet for 1,000 students to be held in March. Bishop Stuntz has lived in the Philippines, India and in South America, and has traveled extensively all over the world. He will take as his subject, "Life Work." Lawrence Slater, who was elected to take charge of the arrangements for the banquet, announced that an effort will be made to have no less than 1,000 students (Continued on Page Four)

MANY FACULTY MEMBERS AT CHICAGO CONVENTION

Several Nebraska Professors Appear on Programs at Various Sessions.

Twenty-five University of Nebraska faculty members attended meetings of national importance held in Chicago the second week of the Christmas week. Some attended and took active part on the programs of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and other societies dealing with science and languages. About 3,000 professors from the prominent Universities of America were at a part or all of the meetings of the departments in which they are connected. Some of these conventions were the largest of their kind every held in the country. Many Nebraska alumni who are now active in scientific work elsewhere were in attendance.

HUSKERS HOME FROM CONQUEST

Schissler's Proteges Again on Home Floor After Defeating Illinois and Wesleyan.

GRINNELL COMES NEXT

Will Start Workouts on Coliseum Next Week Preparatory to First Home Games.

Coach Schissler returned to Lincoln with the Husker basketball squad yesterday morning. The squad is in pretty fair shape considering the threehard games played on the trip. The trip was in the nature of a pre-season workout for the squad and allowed Coach Schissler to get a good lineup on the men.

The sporting scribes of the Chicago papers and other papers who follow the Illinois basketball team comment very highly on the grade of basketball displayed by the Cornhuskers.

John Schomar, who is a Big Ten referee, spoke of the Huskers as displaying the fastest floor work and the best passing he had seen for a long time. He mentioned that the Huskers would have no difficulty in capturing the Big Ten pennant if Nebraska was a member of the conference.

In defeating the Indians the Huskers beat one of the best teams in the conference. In ten years of basketball the Illinois five have not been lower than third in standing and were tied for second place last year. The Illinois quintet had three of last year's men back to form a nucleus for the first team. Two men reported for work to complete the quintet that were just as good or better than the two men lost by graduation.

Critics Praise Huskers.

Every sporting writer who saw the Husker quintet in action rated the Nebraska athletes above the Illinois men as basketball players.

Forty-five hundred people witnessed the contest Monday night and five hundred more had to be turned away. Coach Schissler reports that there could not have possibly been more spirit and fight shown than if the team was playing for the championship of the Big Ten.

Coach Winters of the Illinois team expressed his desire that a series of games be arranged between the Huskers and the Indians every year and that it be made an annual affair. The Illinois team will journey to Lincoln next year and train on the Husker floor the same as did the Nebraskans this year.

Had Strong Team.

Illinois Wesleyan is rated as a second class school but that they have a real basketball quintet is shown by their record thus far this season. The Huskers defeated the Wesleyan team to the tune of 30 to (Continued on Page Four)

BACK BASKETBALL.

The basketball games will be held at the State Coliseum commencing January 14 and 15. Director Fred W. Leuhring has requested that every organization in school get behind the team and lend all the support possible.

After the game Saturday evening there will be dancing with music furnished by a large orchestra. Entertainment will be furnished as well as refreshments.

Director Fred Leuhring has requested that these two nights be made closed nights by every organization in school. This will be in the form of a reception to the basketball team after their successful invasion of the east. Additional details will be in tomorrow's paper.
