Our Inquiring Reporter

Today's question: What is your favorite means of locomotion?
Z. G. asks five persons picked at random a question each day.
1. Don Fairchild, 1319 Q street: Doesn't make much difference, just so its accommodating and I don't have to exert myself.
2. Helen Griess, 1548 R street: I like water. It's fascinating! I love to swim, but all I can do is paddle around.
3. Ed Moser, 345 North Fourteenth street: Old "Tuff Oats" (the yellow Ford) suits me as well as anything I know.
4. Izzie Pearsall, 1414 G street: Roller skates for me. Pretty quick now and you'll see me rolling along the street to school.
5. Jim Lucas, 1620 R street: People say how much fun it is to ride horses and bikes, but I notice that they generally prefer a car when it comes right down to it.

Silver Lynx announces the withdrawal of the pledges of Merle Hale, Lincoln; Arnold Roberts, Lincoln; Harvey Hansen, Battle Creek, Mich. Carl Olson was a student at the Acacia house the past week. He is a student at the School of Medicine in Omaha.
