Reception at Governor's Mansion.

Mrs. Samuel R. McKelvie, first lady of Nebraska, entertained the members of the University Dramatic Club and University Players at a fancy dress masquerade ball Thursday night in the executive mansion. Before the dancing began, a number of University Players presented scenes from Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion." Eleanore Fogg and Rudyard Norton played the leading roles. About sixty guests attended. The ballroom on the third floor of the mansion was the scene of dancing. The costumes were gorgeous and varicolored.

NOTED SOCIOLOGIST TO ADDRESS STUDENTS

Professor Harry F. Ward to Talk at Convocation on "The New Social Order."

Convocation will be held today at 11 o'clock in the Temple theatre when Prof. Harry F. Ward of the Union Theological Seminary will speak. The special convocation has been called because Dr. Ward will be in Lincoln today only. He is a noted sociologist and is widely known over the country for his advanced ideas.

Dr. Ward is professor of Christian Ethics in the Union Theological Seminary and has spent a great deal of his time studying the present day industrial problems.
