

WORLD OUTLOOK CLASSES START EARLY NEXT MONTH

"Under Our Flag," is the name of the class for girls which discusses the home missionary work as well as the activities in American territories. Discussion of the mountain whites will be taken up, as well as the city problems and industrial community service. In addition rural leadership, frontier service and the work in Alaska will be discussed.

Arrangements for scheduling the classes at as many different hours as possible so as not to conflict with other classes are being made. The hours as well as the leaders for the different classes will be announced as soon as they are completed.

Committee of 200 Get-Together.

The executive council of the Committee of 200 has decided that on Saturday evening, February 5th the members of the committee of 200 will hold a get together social evening. The World Outlook Classes will be discussed. Committees have been appointed to arrange for a place and program. The meeting will be for the purpose of giving the members of the committee a chance to become acquainted with one another.

Students who are interested in entering either the mixed discussion groups or the separate classes under the World Outlook Classes series should keep the fact in mind during registration. Copies of the class schedule should be secured and University classes arranged so as not to conflict with the hour of the class which they desire to enter. Any further information of the classes may be secured from Dr. Harry Hutington at the Y. M. C. A. offices in the Temple building or from Miss Claire McKinnon at the Ellen-Smith Hall.

PROF. GRUMMANN SPEAKS ON ERVINE'S JANE CLEGG

Prof. Paul H. Grumann has delivered the fourth of his series on contemporary dramatists before the Drama League of Omaha. The subject of this most recent lecture was Ervine's Jane Clegg.

On Monday, January 24, Professor Grumann will deliver two addresses before the University of South Dakota. The first of these, upon Artistic Illusion, will be given before the morning convocation; the second will be a part of the art exhibition for that evening.

Dr. Sealock was in attendance at the conference of superintendents, principals and board members held at York Thursday and Friday of last week.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR UNIVERSITY ART EXHIBIT

Preparations are under way for the University's annual art exhibition, which will this year be held in the Art Gallery from February to 25th. It is planned to have a collection of paintings of early American masters, the works of Gilbert, Stuart, Copeley, Chester and of other men of like talent giving proof of the worth of this collection.

In addition there will be a collection of forty modern paintings, which is now being shown at Brookings, S. D., and fourteen paintings by Guy Wiggins, one of whose works the Art Association has purchased. This exhibition was recently shown at the Chicago Art Institute. The size of the three combined exhibitions has made it necessary to hang the paintings of the Nebraska Art Association and of the University in the other rooms of the school of Fine Arts.
